PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

PALM SUNDAY

Palm Sunday is a special day for me. While it is a different date this year (it's one day off), I was born on a Palm Sunday. My mom liked to say that just as Jesus made his triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, so I made my triumphal entry into the world on Palm Sunday. I'm pretty sure my mom thought this was the beginning of God's work to prepare me to be a priest!

Of course, the meaning of this day is much more than any personal connection to it. Throughout his ministry on earth Jesus was preparing himself and his followers for the events that would follow upon his entry into Jerusalem. He had shared along the way that he must make his way to Jerusalem, that he must suffer, that he must die a horrible death, and that he must rise again. Palm Sunday sets off the events that are the fulfillment of the Father's will for his Son.

As we read of the crowds that cheered and waved palm and olive branches as Jesus entered into the holy city, we understand just how large of a following he had amassed during his public ministry. He is the king of the new covenant in the line of David, the shepherd king whom God had chosen. And he did it by calling others to a new, higher way of living and by setting the example for them to follow. Yet, in a few days these crowds will turn. Some will be among those who shout that Jesus be crucified as he is brought before Pontius Pilate. Others turn and run in fear that the same suffering will befall them for being the followers of Jesus. The few that remain steadfast are certainly confused as they try to grasp the profundity of the loss of their Lord and master.

We know that we can find ourselves caught in the middle like the crowds of that first Palm Sunday. We desire to follow Jesus and worship him as our Lord and king. And yet, all too often our hearts are inclined to turn away from him. May the great love of God for us that we witness in the commemorations of this Holy Week – the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus – be our motivation and our hope to follow Jesus with faithful and undivided hearts.

CONFESSIONS THIS WEEK

Monday, March 29 – 6:00-7:00 p.m. at Immaculate Heart of Mary

Tuesday, March 30 – 6:00-7:00 p.m. at Saint Nicholas

SIGN-UP FOR EASTER MASSES

As we did at Christmas, we are asking everyone to register for the Easter Sunday Mass they plan to attend. This will allow us to prepare for overflow Masses, if needed, and ensure that we maintain our capacity limits related to COVID-19. You can sign-up now at www.pghshrines.org/easter or by calling any of the parish offices. Thank you for your cooperation so that we can welcome all those who will join us this Easter. The Easter Sunday Mass schedule is the same as our normal Sunday morning Mass schedule with two additions: 6:30 a.m. Sunrise Mass at Saint Patrick and 10:00 a.m. Mass at Saint Nicholas.

God bless!

Fr. Nick

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

The Passion of Jesus makes it clear, no one escapes suffering. Suffering is inevitable but no one should suffer alone. That is one of the primary roles of families, to stand with and support each other in suffering.

From the St. Vincent DePaul Society

Members of St. Vincent DePaul: Doug, Ron & Ted are grateful for the most generous support of all parishioners, non-parishioners, and parish clergy & staff who supported this ministry. Despite the struggles of the past 15 months, your generosity has allowed us to continue easing the burden for the least of your neighbors living on Mt. Troy, Spring Garden, Troy Hill, and homes from the base of Troy Hill to East Street. Relief from sudden misfortune due to their sudden loss of employment, illness, or injury was given due to your sacrificial contributions.

Your neighbors' gratitude expressed to us belongs to you!

Our prayers to our Lord, Jesus Christ are that you and your families receive His blessings and spiritual healing, now and in the days to come.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord + March 28, 2021

PROCESSIONAL

GOSPEL DURING THE BLESSING OF PALMS Mark 11:1-10

When Jesus and his disciples drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately on entering it, you will find a colt tethered on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. If anyone should say to you, 'Why are you doing this?' reply, 'The Master has need of it and will send it back here at once.'"

So they went off and found a colt tethered at a gate outside on the street, and they untied it. Some of the bystanders said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" They answered them just as Jesus had told them to, and they permitted them to do it.

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. Those preceding him as well as those following kept crying out: "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come! Hosanna in the highest!"

Priest: Dear brothers and sisters, like the crowds who acclaimed Jesus in Jerusalem, let us go forth in peace.

All: In the name of Christ. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING— Isaiah 50: 4-7

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

RESPONSORIAL— Psalm 22: 8-9, 17-18, 19-20, 23-24

R. (2a) My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

All who see me scoff at me; they mock me with parted lips, they wag their heads: "He relied on the LORD; let him deliver him, let him rescue him, if he loves him."

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Indeed, many dogs surround me, a pack of evildoers closes in upon me; They have pierced my hands and my feet; I can count all my bones.

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

They divide my garments among them, and for my vesture they cast lots.

But you, O LORD, be not far from me; O my help, hasten to aid me.

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

I will proclaim your name to my brethren; in the midst of the assembly I will praise you:

"You who fear the LORD, praise him; all you descendants of Jacob, give glory to him; revere him, all you descendants of Israel!"

R. My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

SECOND READING— Philippians 2: 6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

ALLELUIA

N: When he returned he found them asleep. He said to Peter,
 J: "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not keep watch for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak."
 N: Withdrawing again, he prayed, saying the same thing. Then he returned once more and found them asleep, for they could not keep their eyes open and did not know what to answer him. He returned a third time and said to them,
 J: "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is to be handed over to sinners. Get up, let us go. See, my betrayer is at hand."
 N: Then, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, accompanied by a crowd with swords and clubs who had come from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. His betrayer had arranged a signal with them, saying,
 S: "The man I shall kiss is the one; arrest him and lead him away securely."
 N: He came and immediately went over to him and said,
 S: "Rabbi."
 N: And he kissed him. At this they laid hands on him and arrested him. One of the bystanders drew his sword, struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his ear. Jesus said to them in reply,
 J: "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs, to seize me? Day after day I was with you teaching in the temple area, yet you did not arrest me; but that the Scriptures may be fulfilled."
 N: And they all left him and fled. Now a young man followed him wearing nothing but a linen cloth about his body. They seized him, but he left the cloth behind and ran off naked. They led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes came together. Peter followed him at a distance into the high priest's courtyard and was seated with the guards, warming himself at the fire. The chief priests and the entire Sanhedrin kept trying to obtain testimony against Jesus in order to put him to death, but they found none. Many gave false witness against him, but their testimony did not agree. Some took the stand and testified falsely against him, alleging,
 C: "We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple made with hands and within three days I will build another not made with hands.'"
 N: Even so their testimony did not agree. The high priest rose before the assembly and questioned Jesus, saying,
 S: "Have you no answer? What are these men testifying against you?"
 N: But he was silent and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him and said to him,
 S: "Are you the Christ, the son of the Blessed One?"
 N: Then Jesus answered,
 J: "I am; and 'you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming with the clouds of heaven.'"
 N: At that the high priest tore his garments and said,
 S: "What further need have we of witnesses? You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?"
 N: They all condemned him as deserving to die. Some began to spit on him. They blindfolded him and struck him and said to him,
 C: "Prophecy!"
 N: And the guards greeted him with blows. While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the high priest's maids came along. Seeing Peter warming himself, she looked intently at him and said,
 C: "You too were with the Nazarene, Jesus."
 N: But he denied it saying,
 S: "I neither know nor understand what you are talking about."
 N: So he went out into the outer court. Then the cock crowed. The maid saw him and began again to say to the bystanders,
 C: "This man is one of them."
 N: Once again he denied it. A little later the bystanders said to Peter once more,
 C: "Surely you are one of them; for you too are a Galilean."
 N: He began to curse and to swear,
 S: "I do not know this man about whom you are talking."
 N: And immediately a cock crowed a second time. Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had said to him, "Before the cock crows twice you will deny me three times." He broke down and wept. As soon as morning came, the chief priests with the elders and the scribes, that is, the whole Sanhedrin held a council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. Pilate questioned him,
 S: "Are you the king of the Jews?"
 N: He said to him in reply,
 J: "You say so."
 N: The chief priests accused him of many things. Again Pilate questioned him,

S: "Have you no answer? See how many things they accuse you of."

N: Jesus gave him no further answer, so that Pilate was amazed. Now on the occasion of the feast he used to release to them one prisoner whom they requested. A man called Barabbas was then in prison along with the rebels who had committed murder in a rebellion. The crowd came forward and began to ask him to do for them as he was accustomed. Pilate answered,

S: "Do you want me to release to you the king of the Jews?"

N: For he knew that it was out of envy that the chief priests had handed him over. But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Barabbas for them instead. Pilate again said to them in reply,

S: "Then what do you want me to do with the man you call the king of the Jews?"

N: They shouted again,

C: "Crucify him."

N: Pilate said to them,

S: "Why? What evil has he done?"

N: They only shouted the louder,

C: "Crucify him."

N: So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbas to them and, after he had Jesus scourged, handed him over to be crucified. The soldiers led him away inside the palace, that is, the praetorium, and assembled the whole cohort. They clothed him in purple and, weaving a crown of thorns, placed it on him. They began to salute him with,

C: "Hail, King of the Jews!"

N: And kept striking his head with a reed and spitting upon him. They knelt before him in homage. And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple cloak, dressed him in his own clothes, and led him out to crucify him. They pressed into service a passerby, Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross. They brought him to the place of Golgotha — which is translated Place of the Skull. They gave him wine drugged with myrrh, but he did not take it. Then they crucified him and divided his garments by casting lots for them to see what each should take. It was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him. The inscription of the charge against him read, "The King of the Jews." With him they crucified two revolutionaries, one on his right and one on his left. Those passing by reviled him, shaking their heads and saying,

C: "Aha! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself by coming down from the cross."

N: Likewise the chief priests, with the scribes, mocked him

among themselves and said,

C: "He saved others; he cannot save himself. Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross that we may see and believe."

N: Those who were crucified with him also kept abusing him. At noon darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon. And at three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice,

J: "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?"

N: which is translated,

J: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

N: Some of the bystanders who heard it said,

C: "Look, he is calling Elijah."

N: One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink saying,

S: "Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down."

N: Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.

Here all kneel and pause for a short time.

N: The veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom. When the centurion who stood facing him saw how he breathed his last he said,

S: "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

N: There were also women looking on from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of the younger James and of Joseph, and Salome. These women had followed him when he was in Galilee and ministered to him. There were also many other women who had come up with him to Jerusalem. When it was already evening, since it was the day of preparation, the day before the sabbath, Joseph of Arimathea, a distinguished member of the council, who was himself awaiting the kingdom of God, came and courageously went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate was amazed that he was already dead. He summoned the centurion and asked him if Jesus had already died. And when he learned of it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph. Having bought a linen cloth, he took him down, wrapped him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that had been hewn out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone against the entrance to the tomb. Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph watched where he was laid.

The Gospel of the Lord.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENT

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!
