3RD SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus said to them in reply, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!" - Lk 13:2-3

FIRST READING

Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15

Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. Leading the flock across the desert, he came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There an angel of the Lord appeared to Moses in fire flaming out of a bush. As he looked on, he was surprised to see that the bush, though on fire, was not consumed. So Moses decided, "I must go over to look at this remarkable sight, and see why the bush is not burned." When the Lord saw him coming over to look at it more closely, God called out to him from the bush, "Moses! Moses!" He answered, "Here I am." God said, "Come no nearer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. I am the God of your fathers," he continued, "the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob." Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God. But the Lord said, "I have witnessed the affliction of my people in Egypt and have heard their cry of complaint against their slave drivers, so I know well what they are suffering. Therefore I have come down to rescue them from the hands of the Egyptians and lead them out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey." Moses said to God, "But when I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' if they ask me, 'What is his name?' what am I to tell them?" God replied, "I am who am." Then he added, "This is what you shall tell the Israelites: I AM sent me to you." God spoke further to Moses, "Thus shall you say to the Israelites: The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. 'This is my name forever; thus am I to be remembered through all generations.'"

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 103

The Lord is kind and merciful.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea, and all of them were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. All ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank from a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was the Christ. Yet God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the desert. These things happened as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil things, as they did. Do not grumble as some of them did, and suffered death by the destroyer. These things happened to them as an example, and they have been written down as a warning to us, upon whom the end of the ages has come. Therefore, whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall.

GOSPEL

Luke 13:1-9

Some people told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with the blood of their sacrifices. Jesus said to them in reply, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did! Or those eighteen people who were killed when the tower at Siloam fell on them — do you think they were more guilty than everyone else who lived in Jerusalem? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!" And he told them this parable: "There once was a person who had a fig tree planted in his orchard, and when he came in search of fruit on it but found none, he said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down. Why should it exhaust the soil?' He said to him in reply, 'Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not you can cut it down.'"

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

There's A Wideness in God's Mercy

1. There's a wide-ness in God's mer - cy Like the wide-ness
2. For the love of God is broad-er Than the mea-sures
3. Trou-bled souls, why will you scat-ter Like a crowd of

1. of the sea; There's a kind-ness in his jus-tice
2. of our mind, And the heart of the E-ter-nal
3. fright-ened sheep? Fool-ish hearts, why will you wan-der

1. Which is more than lib-er-ty. There is plen-ti-ful re-
2. Is most won-der-ful-ly kind. If our love were but more
3. From a love so true and deep? There is wel-come for the

1. demp-tion In the blood that has been shed; There is
2. sim-ple We should take him at his word, And our
3. sin-ner And more grac-es for the good; There is

1. joy for all the mem-bers In the sor-rows of the Head.
2. lives would be thanks-giv-ing For the good-ness of our Lord.
3. mer-cy with the Sav-ior, There is heal-ing in his blood.

The Annual 13 Tuesday Novena to St. Anthony of Padua has begun and will continue through June 7th. This Tuesday is week #2. The Novena to St. Anthony begins after the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Tuesday and is held again at 7:30 p.m. with Benediction.

Stations of the Cross

Join us for Stations of the Cross during Lent at St. Anthony's Chapel.

FRIDAYS AT 7:00 PM
SUNDAYS AT 3:00 PM

On Good Friday, April 15, Stations of Cross will be held at Noon.

St. Anthony's Chapel Shop

The Chapel Gift Shop is open each Friday evening during Lent at the conclusion of Stations of the Cross and also after the 13 Tuesday Novena in the evening.

Chapel Perpetual Mass Society

Intentions for the living & deceased can be enrolled in St. Anthony's Chapel Perpetual Mass Society. Those enrolled will be remembered at Mass on the 13th of each month & also on St.
Anthony's Feast Day, June 13th. Contact the Chapel Gift Shop to enroll (donation $25).

Work in Progress

The brass rail that runs along the Stations of the Cross is currently being refurbished. You will notice caution tape where the brass rail is normally. We anticipate this project to be completed by Easter.

Sacraments and Prayers

BAPTISM: Please contact the particular parish you intend to have your child baptized at for information on scheduling. Baptism Seminars are held quarterly on the second Sunday of the month at 3:00 p.m. at Most Holy Name School.

MATRIMONY: Arrangements are to be made with a member of the clergy team six months in advance of the wedding date.

SICK AND SHUT-INS: The Sacraments are available to those who are unable to celebrate Mass due to sickness or age. To make arrangements for visitation to your home call the parish office.

SACRAMENTAL SPONSOR: To be a Sacramental sponsor one must be a practicing Catholic and a registered member of a parish.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: CCD instruction is provided for kindergarten through 8th grade.

PLEASE PRAY FOR all of the sick of our parish, the homebound, those in nursing homes, those who care for them, and those in the military.

NEW MEMBERS: We welcome those who are interested in joining our parish family. We invite new members to complete a registration form, which can be obtained from the parish office, or use the communication form at the end of this bulletin.

FOR PARISH CEMETERY INQUIRIES: Please contact the Catholic Parish Cemeteries Association at (412) 256-9370 or via e-mail cpca@cpca-pgh.org.

BULLETIN DEADLINE: Noon on Friday, seven days prior to publication date.

EXCHANGE OF PARISH ENVELOPES: Please note that all envelopes that we take in that belong to another parish will be mailed back to that parish. This is a policy of the Diocese of Pittsburgh.
