Dear Parishioners,

As Christmas approaches, we find ourselves thinking more about Jesus being born in an animal stable under the stars of His own creation. It's hard to imagine a more humble way for Jesus to enter into this world. The townspeople neither have time nor a place for Him. Mary and Joseph are alone in a stable, but other lowly, humble people will stop what they are doing to visit the newborn King. In our own prayer and reflection, we will probably reflect on each of these persons and their role in that first Christmas. Pope Francis would like us to get to know St. Joseph more and learn from him.

Pope Francis is very fond of him. He has included St. Joseph's name in every Eucharistic Prayer and referred to him throughout his papacy. Recently, Pope Francis released a short apostolic letter about St. Joseph, titled "With a Father's Heart". In the first sentence of his letter, Pope Francis says he chose that title because that is how Joseph loved Jesus. After examining some aspects of Joseph's fatherhood, he then concludes with his deepest reason for his letter – "our conversion" which he says this is "the grace of graces". If in our prayers we ask St. Joseph to pray and intercede for us, Pope Francis says he will do so from his place in heaven.

The letter is short yet rich with spiritual insight. For instances, we read that "the history of salvation is worked out...through our weaknesses. All too often, we think that God works only through our better parts, yet most of His plans are realized in and despite our frailty." Pope Francis gives us hope with the same words that God reassured St. Paul: "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." (2 Cor 12:7-9) There is weakness and frailty in life, especially in its most important aspects. Joseph experienced this many times yet he does his best while trusting in God. Joseph repeatedly shows himself to be a father whose love is courageous, merciful, obedient, and hard working. Pope Francis speaks about each of these, giving examples, and links them to fatherhood. Each of these are perfectly found in our Heavenly Father, and Pope Francis wants us to strive for the same in ourselves, especially for earthly fathers.

Another key aspect of Joseph that the letter reflects on is his willingness to sacrifice himself and to accept whatever life presents him. Pope Francis says: "Often in life, things happen whose meaning we do not understand. Our first reaction is frequently one of disappointment and rebellion. Joseph sets aside his own ideas in order to accept the course of events and, mysterious as they seemed, to embrace them, take responsibility for them, and make them part of his own history... The spiritual path that Joseph traces for us is not one that explains, but accepts. Only as a result of this acceptance, this reconciliation, can we begin to glimpse a broader history, a deeper meaning."

To read Pope Francis's full letter, search for Patris Corde or "With a Father's Heart". It's worth your time.

Gratefully,
Fr. Miller

As the celebration of Christ's birth approaches, the Church reminds us today of the mysteries surrounding when Jesus was conceived in His Mother's womb. The first is the mystery of God becoming man - the Incarnation. God loved us so much that He became one of us, so that He could save us from sin, and show us the way to a meaningful life, now and forever. The second mystery is that God didn't - and doesn't - work out that plan of salvation for us all by Himself. Instead, He asks for our cooperation. In today's Gospel, God invites Mary to become the mother of the Savior. It was possible for Mary to reject this invitation and said, "Thanks for the invitation, Lord, but what you're asking is actually very inconvenient for me." That's how Adam and Eve had responded to God's invitation to take care of the Garden of Eden. Mary however, didn't insult God with an answer like that. She knew His plans were wise and wonderful and put her life at His service: "I am the handmaid of the Lord, may it be done unto me according to your word." Mary's "yes" reversed Eve's "no", and made room for Christ's undoing of Adam's fall. When God disrupts our plans, we should follow Mary's example, making our contribution to God's work of salvation, however small it may be.

IF YOUR MIND WANDERS AT MASS BY THOMAS HOWARD

Distractions, fatigue, boredom at Sunday worship—maybe we experience these because we don't fully appreciate what's going on at Mass. Howard's profound and practical look at the liturgy focuses our wandering minds. It reminds us that at Mass the veil separating earth and heaven lifts, so that we stand with angels and saints in the presence of God Most High.

1st Reading – 2 SM 7:1-5, 8B-12, 14A, 16

When King David was settled in his palace, and the LORD had given him rest from his enemies on every side, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am living in a house of cedar, while the ark of God dwells in a tent!" Nathan answered the king, "Go, do whatever you have in mind, for the LORD is with you." But that night the LORD spoke to Nathan and said: "Go, tell my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD: Should you build me a house to dwell in?' " "It was I who took you from the pasture and from the care of the flock to be commander of my people Israel. I have been with you sprung from your loins, and I will make his kingdom firm. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. Your house and your kingdom shall endure forever before me; your throne shall stand firm forever."

Responsorial Psalm — PS 89:2-3, 4-5, 27, 29

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

The promises of the LORD I will sing forever; through all generations my mouth shall proclaim your faithfulness. For you have said, "My kindness is established forever"; in heaven you have confirmed your faithfulness.

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

"I have made a covenant with my chosen one, I have sworn to David my servant: Forever will I confirm your posterity and establish your throne for all generations."

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

"He shall say of me, 'You are my father, my God, the Rock, my savior.' Forever I will maintain my kindness toward him, and my covenant with him stands firm."

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

2nd Reading – ROM 16:25-27

Brothers and sisters:

To Him who can strengthen you, according to my gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery kept secret for long ages but now manifested through the prophetic writings and, according to the command of the eternal God, made known to all nations to bring about the obedience of faith, to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Alleluia:

Gospel – LK 1:26-38

The angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary. And coming to her, he said, "Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you." But she was greatly troubled at what was said and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. Then the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. "Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." But Mary said to the angel, "How can this be, since I have no relations with a man?" And the angel said to her in reply, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be called holy, the Son of God. And behold, Elizabeth, your relative, has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren; for nothing will be impossible for God." Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Hymn — Hail Mary: Gentle Woman

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women, and blest is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of death. Amen.

Refrain: Gentle woman, quiet light, morning star, so strong and bright, gentle Mother, peaceful dove, teach us wisdom, teach us love.

1. You were chosen by the Father— you were chosen for the Son. You were chosen from all women and for woman, shining one.

[Refrain]

2. Blessed are you among women, blest in turn all women, too. Blessed they with peaceful spirits/ Blessed they with gentle hearts.

[Refrain]

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who prowl above the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Closing Hymn — O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

4. O come, O Rod of Jesse's stem, from ev'ry for deliver them that trust Your mighty power to save, and give them vict'ry o'er the grave. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel.

5. O come, O Key of David, come, and open wide our heav'nly home— make safe the way that leads on high, and close the path to misery. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel.
