We are happy to welcome our new Parochial Vicar,
FR. JOSEPH MAXWELL APPIAGYEI

Fr. Maxwell was born in Ghana as a fraternal twin on October 17, 1967, to Peter and Victoria Appiagyei (both deceased). He is one of seven children, four boys and 3 girls.

After completing the Sixth Form, he entered St. Paul’s Seminary at Accra in Ghana for 3 years of philosophical studies (1990-1993).

He then attended the Pontifical University of the Holy Cross in Rome (run by the Opus Dei) for 3 years of theological studies (1993-1996).

Fr. Maxwell was ordained to the Priesthood on July 19, 1997. He once again went to the Pontifical University to study and received a Licentiate in Moral Theology. (2002-2004)

He has ministered in various capacities in the Diocese of Obuasi. He has served as a Vocations Director and a Youth Chaplain and was the Pastor in three parishes. He was the Chaplain for the Laity Council and Legion of Mary, a Vicar General for four years, and a part-time lecturer in Moral Theology at St. Gregory the Great Provincial Major Seminary for seven years. He was the Administrator of the Cathedral for the past 8 years. Wow!

NOW, he has come to Richmond, VA to be our Parochial Vicar! Fr. Maxwell interests include reading and listening to gospel music.

We warmly welcome you!

REFLECTION

Are you guilty of spiritual stockpiling? Spiritual stockpiling isn't an endless rotation of rosaries and novenas. It's accumulating emotional "goods" to meet your needs. Perhaps it's a collection of material objects you treasure. Maybe it's a preoccupation with money. It could also be relationships, making sure there's always enough friends and connections to never really feel alone. It's our tendency to let things add up so that we won't quite need God to fulfill our inner life. Yet in this Sunday's Gospel, we have that inescapable petition from the Our Father. "Give us each day our daily bread." This life isn't an immediate arrival. And as much as we might try to shore up possessions and pleasures, we know the journey is unpredictable. Give us this day our daily bread implies enough for the next set of steps, but not enough to stockpile. So here's the big question: Do we trust God to give us what we need? After all, "What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish?... how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" At the Last Supper, Jesus said he would never leave us orphaned. God will not abandon us. And surely He wouldn't ask us to pray for what He does not intend to give. Of course, sometimes our prayers for daily help can seem to go unanswered. Today's Gospel has advice for that, too. "I tell you... he will give up to him whatever he needs because of his persistence." Our spiritual stockpiling increases our self-reliance and decreases our openness to God's possibilities. Be persistent in your pursuit of God! Trust that He will keep His promises to provide for us, today and always. -LPi

RCIA - Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

What makes us more uniquely Catholic Christians than the Seven Sacraments and the spiritual renewal we receive in witnessing those receiving them for the first time? Family, friends, and visiting guests may have questions about these liturgies and the sacraments.

Have you ever wondered what is involved with becoming fully initiated as a Catholic in our St Edward faith community? Would you like to be able to talk with someone about some questions you have? Why not consider contacting us to learn more about what that process looks like and see if the Spirit is moving you to act!

RCIA is continuing at this time with informal summer sessions. We’d love to have you become One in the Lord and make a joyful noise with our faith filled community. Contact Anita McCabe, 864-4712 or anitam1@stedwardch.org.

From Brothers and Sisters to Us: U.S. Catholic Bishops Pastoral Letter on Racism (1979):

"Racism is a sin: a sin that divides the human family, blots out the image of God among specific members of that family, and violates the fundamental human dignity of those called to be children of the same Father. Racism is the sin that says some human beings are inherently superior and others essentially inferior because of races. It is the sin that makes racial characteristics the determining factor for the exercise of human rights. It mocks the words of Jesus: "Treat others the way you would have them treat you." (4) Indeed, racism is more than a disregard for the words of Jesus; it is a denial of the truth of the dignity of each human being revealed by the mystery of the Incarnation.

In order to find the strength to overcome the evil of racism, we must look to Christ. In Christ Jesus "there does not exist among you Jew or Greek, slave or freedom, male or female. All are one in Christ Jesus." (5) As Pope John Paul II has said so clearly, "Our spirit is set in one direction, the only direction for our intellect, will and heart is -- toward Christ our Redeemer, toward Christ the Redeemer of [humanity]." (6) It is in Christ, then, that the Church finds the central cause for its commitment to justice, and to the struggle for the human rights and dignity of all persons."

Some thoughts for elders:
As we age, we all recognize traits that manifest and do not bring us harmony. Often, loneliness pushes us farther into displaying these characteristics. Try reaching out to a confidant or look for ways to forgive and reconnect. Making conscious choices of aging gracefully means avoiding these tendencies. Aging is personality specific. We can transform personality using virtue. Choose God over the world.

Next week: what to avoid when choosing virtue.

Praise God in His Temple

The new organ was installed at the end of November, 2018 in time for our Advent and Christmas Liturgies. The installation included new speakers and speaker enclosures above the baptismal font.

Critical Need: Replacing the wiring and dimming controls (which are going on 20 years old) has become a necessity. At the same time, we will be replacing the light fixtures.

Enhancement of St. Edward statue

Lighting

To date, we have raised $171,888.00 of our $350,000.00 goal.

Next on our agenda:
The replacement of wiring, lighting controls/dimmers and failing fixtures around the worship space which has become a necessity. We hope that all parishioners will choose to give to our campaign. The load is lightened when shared by all.

Praise God envelopes may be found in the baskets on the tables outside the sanctuary doors leading into the Church from the Commons or at the Parish Center Offices.
