SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading: Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant. (1 Kgs 19:21)

Psalm: You are my inheritance, O Lord. (Ps 16)

Second Reading: For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. (Gal 5:13)

Gospel: As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." (Lk 9:57)

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading: We hear today Elijah's call to Elisha to follow him and succeed him as the prophet to lead the Israelite people. Elisha did not hesitate to respond to the call. How have you responded to God's call for you?

Second Reading: Paul taught the Gentile-believers in Galatia to use their new-found freedom in their faith in Christ to "serve one another through love." In what ways do you use your faith in Christ to serve others?

Gospel: As Jesus begins his final journey toward Jerusalem, we hear how various encounters allowed Jesus to define the parameters of discipleship. What challenges do you encounter in being a disciple of Jesus? ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY

God calls us in the midst of ordinary things. Often only looking for God in the dramatic, spectacular, the ritual or the sacred places, we miss that He is walking beside us. Every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling to us, "Follow me." Sometimes, we are too distracted to hear this call. Other times, we would rather ignore it or pretend it wasn't heard. God, however, is very persistent. Whether we fine tune our hearing to receive this invitation now or when we close our eyes in death, we need to make a choice. The choice involves leaving some things behind and moving forward, taking risks. Choosing to keep focused and single-minded, the lens we then use to see our world and one another is God's, not our own. Life is no longer about what is important or matters to me but what matters to God. We acquire a new filter and are asked to use that filter to make choices, establish priorities, and determine what direction we will take, and how to love. Once we accept God's invitation, we cannot keep looking back to what was left behind, only forward to the surprises yet to come. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Guided by the Spirit

There will always be something behind us and before us. Time moves on and the world continues to rotate. Will we miss that which exists right before our eyes because they are shut while we are consumed by the past or worried about the future? When we go about whatever work God has set for us this day, large or small, we cannot get it done if we are looking behind us. Being mindful means to live for the present. It sounds like the simplest thing in the world, but we forget it (I forget it at least once every day). We must be guided by the Spirit. What I'm talking about here is a radical abandonment of ourselves to God — over, and over, and over again. We cannot put our hand to the plough, while our eyes are looking backward at what is left behind. We cannot turn back if we are to move forward. When we take up the yoke of stewardship, we will never be able to bear it if we rely on our own strength. When we put our hands to the plough, we will never get the job done if we look backwards at our own track record for inspiration. There is no inspiration there. Let the dead bury their dead. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

For the Kids!

Sharing the Gospel: Jesus knew that following him would not be easy. He could have made a lot of money. He could have had a beautiful home and a family to enjoy it with. Instead, Jesus chose to walk from town to town, teaching people about God. He gave up having nice things so that he could stay focused on God's work. That's what he asked his disciples to do, too.

Prayer: Dear Jesus, thank you for giving up so much, so that I could grow close to God.

Something to Draw: Draw a picture of Jesus walking with his friends.

Mission for the Week: I will love God more than all the things he has given me.

SUNDAY, JUNE 26

1 KINGS 19:16, 19-21
GALATIANS 5:1, 13-18
LUKE 9:51-62

And to another he said, "Follow me." In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn't even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion. There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him or we don't. Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what he can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives. ©LPi

HAITI MINISTRY

The next Haiti Committee meeting will be June 27 at 6:15pm, in person at the parish center and on Zoom. Please note: this is a change.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to everyone who donated to the second collection to benefit our twin parish in Haiti. We received $10,388.00. The money will be used to help support various areas such as the school, the medical clinic (which includes a doctor, a dentist, and a midwife), sustainable development projects, and to help the poorest of the poor in Cerca Carvajal.

Haiti sponsors are the backbone of our Haiti outreach! We are grateful for your continued dedication to this ministry to the people of our twin parish, and we continue to seek new sponsors. Sponsors commit to donate either monthly or annually at suggested amounts beginning at $10/month.

Please visit the parish website to find a Sponsorship Pledge Form with more information (under the Important Forms tab.) If you have any questions, please email saintedwardhaiti@gmail.com.

APPALACHIA MINISTRY

FILL A BOOK BAG!

St. Edward Appalachia Ministry would like to help the residents of far southwest Virginia by purchasing and filling book bags for students. This year, the need is greater than ever before. We will be working with parishioners of St. Anthony's in Norton on this project to help support their outreach to their neighbors and to help increase the Catholic presence in the community. We will be collecting monetary donations toward this effort for the next few weeks, then purchase the items online for local pick-up in Wise County. This benefits their local economy and saves us from transporting everything 360 miles by car.

TOTAL SO FAR!

Thanks to your generosity, we have received $10,816 as of 6/16/22. Our goal is to fill 300 backpacks for elementary students and 100 backpacks for high school students and we are confident we will have reached it at the time this bulletin is in your hands!

TRIP DATES:

Parishioners will be in Norton July 13 through 18.

QUESTIONS?

OUR PARISH IS CONSIDERING SPONSORING AN AFGHAN REFUGEE FAMILY IN COLLABORATION WITH COMMONWEALTH CATHOLIC CHARITIES.

FOOD PANTRY

As you know, the cost of food is rising, so we are seeing an increase in people in need coming to the parish seeking assistance with food. Some items that we need on our shelves include:

Household products such as toilet paper and paper towels and cleaners, Spaghetti Sauce, Shampoo, Laundry Detergent, Wipes for babies, toothpaste, Fruit and fruit juices (small containers).

Thanks for your generosity!
