Opening Hymn
We Walk by Faith

1 & 5) We walk by faith and not by sight
No gracious words we hear
Of Him who as none e'er spoke Yet we believe Him near

2) We may not touch His hands and side
Or follow where He trod
Yet in His promise we rejoice
And cry "My Lord and God"

3) Help then, oh Lord, our unbelief
And our faith abound
To call on you when you are near
And seek where you are found

4) That when our life of faith is done
In realms of clearer light
We may behold you as you are
In full and endless sight

First Reading:

Ez 17:22-24

Thus says the Lord GOD:

I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar,
from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot,
and plant it on a high and lofty mountain;
on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it.
It shall put forth branches and bear fruit,
and become a majestic cedar.
Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it,
every winged thing in the shade of its boughs.

And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD,
bring low the high tree,
lift high the lowly tree,
wither up the green tree,
and make the withered tree bloom.
As I, the LORD, have spoken, so will I do.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Resp. Psalm: R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you

Second Reading:

2 Cor 5:6-10

Brothers and sisters:

We are always courageous,
although we know that while we are at home in the body
we are away from the Lord,
for we walk by faith, not by sight.
Yet we are courageous,
and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord.

Therefore, we aspire to please him,
whether we are at home or away.
For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ,
so that each may receive recompense,
according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel:

Mk 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds:

"This is how it is with the kingdom of God;
it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day
and through it all the seed would sprout and grow,
he knows not how.
Of its own accord the land yields fruit,
first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.
And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once,
for the harvest has come."
He said,
"To what shall we compare the kingdom of God,
or what parable can we use for it?"

It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground,
is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth.
But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants
and puts forth large branches,
so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade."
With many such parables
he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it.
Without parables he did not speak to them,
but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you,
Lord Jesus Christ

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation (bow) he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. -Amen.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

The prophet Ezekiel’s image of God growing Israel into a mighty majestic cedar tree bearing fruit, with birds nesting in its branches was intended to be words of comfort for the exiled Israelites in Babylon. How do you find God’s comfort in times of distress?

Second Reading:

Paul encourages the believers in Corinth to be courageous in knowing one day all will appear before “the judgment seat of Christ.” How confident are you in reflecting on judgment day?

Gospel:

Mark tells us that Jesus often spoke in parables to the crowds about the kingdom of God. Today’s parables speak to the often unseen and subtle growth of the kingdom of God in our midst. How might you better observe the kingdom of God at work in your life?

WHY DO WE DO THAT? * CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Where does the money go that is collected each week at Church?

Answer:

This is a good question! Every parish has financial obligations, including the basic operation of the buildings, salaries, maintenance, and improvements. In addition, there are schools to support, programs to run, charities to be funded, and operational expenses like hosts and wine for Mass, music books, vestments, and so on. In some cases, cemeteries and other buildings need attention. Finally, there is the diocesan assessment that each parish pays to help run the diocese and the support services provided to each parish.

Most parishes manage to get by with the collection, a few fundraisers and endowments. But contrary to popular opinion, cash flow is also a problem, and many parishes operate in the red. The Finance Committee is responsible for assisting the pastor in fiscal management, and good stewardship is the basis for successful programs.

We are officially fundraising for two new property related projects.

Carpet – The Parish Center was built in 1983 and the chapel, office and conference/class rooms have the original carpet (38 years old). Over the years the carpet has been stained and in a couple places, burned so it’s time for it to be replaced.

Concrete – The Parish Center sidewalk is also original from 1983 and had raised over the years causing cracking and in the winter months, it raises up to create a trip hazard. We are replacing the sidewalk at the Center and also replacing a section of the sidewalk at the church to install a ramp by the double doors for use during funerals or for wheel chairs.

These two projects will cost nearly $19,000 and we’ve had a few families give contributions and hope others will consider giving as well. If you would like to contribute drop envelope in offering basket or see Janet in the office.

As of 6/07/2021, we have received contributions totaling $6,850.00 - Thank you for your generosity!

11 th Sunday: Being Creative Citizens of Christ’s Kingdom:

By making us citizens of his Kingdom and his messengers and representatives in this world, God gives each one of us the opportunity to put our own creativity at the service of that Kingdom.

God is continuously inviting us to follow him, to build our lives on the rock of his friendship by obeying his commandments and his teaching. But the commandments are just the beginning of the spiritual life.

God doesn’t want us to be robots; he wants us to be companions, to be free citizens of heaven.

He doesn’t program us, like machines; he inspires us, like soldiers or artists.

He wants us to get to know his plan, and then to freely contribute with our own creativity, intelligence, and imagination (gifts he has given us) to the task of building up his Kingdom in the world.

Think of all the saints in history who used their freedom to find better, more ingenious ways to love God and love their neighbor, and in so doing they made everlasting contributions to Christ’s Kingdom.

We all have that same freedom - it is a gift of God’s mercy!

That’s what it means to be a Christian: to build our lives on the solid foundation of friendship with Christ and obedience to his Kingship, but to build energetically and creatively, as love always does. That goes for every Christian, not just priests and nuns, but every one of us!

Today Christ will renew his commitment to us in this Mass. When he does, let’s thank him for making us to his everlasting Kingdom.

2021 Year of St. Joseph

Pope Francis announced a special year dedicated to St. Joseph and the 150th anniversary of the proclamation of St. Joseph as the Patron of the Universal Church.

Every Wednesday our daily mass in the Chapel will be dedicated to St. Joseph.

St. Anthony Can Find Anything — Even You

“Tony, Tony, come around! Something is lost and it must be found.”

Did you learn this one when you were a kid? In my experience there are even a lot of lapsed Catholics — or people who were never Catholic at all — who know that when you lose something, St. Anthony becomes your best friend. Missing keys? Pray to St. Anthony. Can't find your favorite sweater? St. Anthony. Forget where you parked your car in the mall lot? St. Anthony—okay, you get the idea. Whatever it is, large or small, important or trivial, Tony has a reputation for finding the lost things.

It's a devotion that can seem a little like superstition — witchcraft, even? — if you don't really understand it. Mumble an incantation to a dead guy and you're guaranteed to find your sunglasses. But as with most traditions that are old, beloved and effective, looking a little closer reveals the truth of the matter.

When we lose something really important, what do we do? We make the whole household stop what they're doing to join the search. Having St. Anthony as a friend means you ask him to stop what he's doing to help, too. And how he helps is by taking the matter exactly where all matters need to go — straight to the feet of Christ.

Here's the real genius of St Anthony: he takes the most mundane, commonplace occurrence — misplacing socks — into an encounter with the divine and truly all things great and small are gifts from God. He grabs our hand and points to the cross. “That's what you're looking for,” he tells us.

In the end, Tony doesn't really find the lost things. He finds the lost people.
