OPENING HYMN

Gather The People

Refrain

Gather the people! Enter the feast!
All are invited, the greatest and least.
The banquet is ready, now to be shared.
Join in the heavenly feast that God has prepared.

1. Around this table we dine as kin, beloved fam'ly of God.
We share the Body of Christ, the Lord.
Here we become what we eat.

2. Around this table we tell great tales, the wondrous stories of grace.
We hold the mem'ry of Christ, the Lord.
So we become what we eat.

3. Around this table God's bounty falls on all who hunger and thirst.
We drink the fullness of Christ, the Lord.
So we become what we eat.

READING I

Dn 12:1-3

In those days, I Daniel, heard this word of the Lord:
*"At that time there shall arise Michael, the great prince, guardian of your people;
it shall be a time unsurpassed in distress since nations began until that time.
At that time your people shall escape, everyone who is found written in the book.*

*"Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake;
some shall live forever,
others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.*

*"But the wise shall shine brightly
like the splendor of the firmament,
and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever."*

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

You are my inheritance, O Lord!

READING II

Heb 10:11-14, 18

Brothers and sisters:
Every priest stands daily at his ministry, offering frequently those same sacrifices that can never take away sins.
But this one offered one sacrifice for sins, and took his seat forever at the right hand of God; now he waits until his enemies are made his footstool. For by one offering he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated.

Where there is forgiveness of these,
there is no longer offering for sin.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL

Mk 13:24-32

Jesus said to his disciples:
*"In those days after that tribulation
the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light,
and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.*

*"And then they will see 'the Son of Man
coming in the clouds'
with great power and glory,
and then he will send out the angels
and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.*

*"Learn a lesson from the fig tree.
When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near.
In the same way, when you see these things happening,
know that he is near, at the gates.
Amen, I say to you,
this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place.
Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.*

"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

"But the wise shall shine brightly
like the splendor of the firmament,
and those who lead the many to justice
shall be like the stars forever." (Dn 12:3)

Psalm:

You are my inheritance, O Lord! (Ps 16)

Second Reading:

For by one offering he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated. (Heb 10:14)

Gospel:

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man
coming in the clouds'
with great power and glory,
and then he will send out the angels
and gather his elect from the four winds,
from the end of the earth to the end of the sky." (Mk 13:26-27)

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

First Reading:

The prophet Daniel foresees a time of "unsurpassed distress" where all receive divine judgement of either everlasting life or everlasting disgrace. Do thoughts of the end times bring you comfort or concern?

Second Reading:

The author of Hebrews continues to emphasize Jesus' death as the definitive and final sacrificial offering for sins. Why do you think this is a central theme in the Letter to the Hebrews?

Gospel:

Jesus speaks of his Second Coming at the end of time and warns his disciples:
"Be watchful! Be alert!" How are you preparing for judgment day?

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation (bow) he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

The OLPH Liturgy Committee, with the generosity of our congregation, would like to present a Harvest Blessings Thanksgiving display on the floor or on a table in front of the altar on Saturday, November 20 and Sunday, November 21.

All parishioners are invited to bring to Mass fresh, edible root, vine or tree fruits or vegetables that will keep beyond a week on Saturday the 13th and Sunday the 14th when you come to Mass or on Saturday the 20th from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., when loaves of bread will also be accepted. Donations can include fresh pumpkins, squash, beets, celery, apples, pears, bananas, oranges, potatoes, sweet potatoes, etc., as well as loaves of bread.

After the 10:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, Nov. 21, all of you will be invited to come to the altar and take anything you can use from the Harvest Blessings display. The rest of the food can be distributed to those who come for food during Thanksgiving week. We thank you in advance for your participation in what we hope will be the first annual Harvest Blessings Thanksgiving table! God bless us everyone!

COMMUNION HYMN

Gods Holy Gifts

Refrain

God's holy gifts for God's holy people; come now to share the banquet of Christ. Feed on his love with faith and thanksgiving. Know in your heart that he died for you.

1. May the Body of Christ be food for our souls and bring us to everlasting life.
2. May the Blood of the Lord protect us from harm and mark us as God's beloved ones.
3. As the grain of this bread was gathered as one, may we who believe be bound by love.
4. As the cup that we share is emptied for all, may we offer up our lives in love.
5. When we eat of this bread and drink of this cup, we hold in our mem'ry Christ the Lord.

CLOSING HYMN

How Great Thou Art

1. O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder Consider all the works thy hands have made, I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, Thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed!

Refrain:

- Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee; How great thou art, how great thou art!
- Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee; How great thou art, How great thou art!
2. When through the woods and forest glades I wander And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees, When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze,

Help us continue to grow and sustain Our church through a ministry.

It is fulfilling and a great way to give back to the LORD!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?
CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Why do some sacraments leave a character or mark on the soul? Don't all sacraments affect the soul?

Answer:

All sacraments mediate grace and connect us to Christ and to the Church. Some sustain us in our faith journey, while others help us heal from the effects of sin. Each one offers a share in God's life, giving us what we need to be faithful followers of Jesus. But some sacraments change us in ways that are irreversible. The three sacraments that leave a character are Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Orders. We are literally different people because of the effect of the grace of those sacraments. We are changed at the core of our being in such a fundamental way that we can not go back to what we once were.

In Baptism, we are freed from original sin, initiated into the Body of Christ as adopted sons and daughters. In Confirmation, we are given the fullness of God's Spirit, sealed in his grace and gifted with what we need to live a Christian life. In Holy Orders, a priest is marked as an 'alter Christus,' another Christ, and is once and forever a priest who offers sacrifice, forgives sin, and acts in the person of Christ. In these three sacraments, we are conformed more closely to Christ, reflecting his love and truth.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENT

Giving Until it Hurts

In the time of Christ, sacrifice was nothing new to the Jewish people. The Israelites were experts at sacrifice. So, after centuries of every kind of offering imaginable, what was so special about Christ's? What made it so different from the sacrifices offered by the Levitical priests for centuries before his death?

Well, to adequately answer that question would consume whole volumes. And, of course, the first and most important reason is that Christ was the son of God and the savior of the world, not a random (if "unblemished") lamb offering. It was only by the blood of Christ that we could be redeemed.

But another answer is this: Christ's sacrifice cost him. In fact, it cost him everything. The offerings made by the Israelites through their priests cost them too, of course. They gave of their flocks, of their household stores, of their wealth. But Christ gave differently. He gave of himself. He gave until it was all gone.

Such is the highest form of stewardship: the gift of self to the point of discomfort. It can take a multitude of forms and I am not saying we are all called to be nailed to the cross. In fact, for most of us, our gifts will not involve physical discomfort at all. But certainly, stewardship demands discomfort. It demands that we go against our human nature of putting ourselves first, of thinking primarily of our own needs and desires. And most of all, it demands love. For that, above all else, distinguished the gift Christ gave us.

WREATH SPONSORSHIP
