Dear Parishioners:

Blessed Christmas to you! Today, our 2nd day of Christmas focuses on the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. They remind us that no one's life is easy. Theirs certainly wasn't, but if we trust that God is with us, somehow we will know the same strength as they do.

Someone gave me this lovely Christmas Prayer, which I now share with you:

Come Lord Jesus, come.

Fill our gift-giving with generosity, making us aware of the true gifts we have to share with loved ones.

Deepen our sense of joy, making us ever-grateful for the small gifts others bestow upon us.

Enlarge our capacity for compassion, making us mindful of how we might give to those in need of sustenance and consolation.

Come into our hearts and homes this Christmas, Lord Jesus, making us people of joyful generosity and gratitude. Amen.

New Year's Eve and New Year's Day:

Because it falls next to Sunday, the January 1st holy day is not a holy day of obligation this year. Other years it will be. However, because this is a time for prayerful reflection for many people, and a great way to say goodbye to the old, and welcome to the new, we are having masses for both 12.31.21 and 1.1.22.

Friday morning, 12.31.21, the regular three Masses are scheduled.

Friday evening there are two Masses scheduled: 4:00 p.m. at Holy Family, and 5:00 p.m. at Saint Cecilia

Saturday morning, 1.1.22, there are two Masses scheduled: 9:00 a.m. at Saints Peter and Paul, and 11:00 a.m. at Saint Felix

Saturday evening, 1.1.22, we have the three regular Vigil Masses which are for the Feast of the Epiphany: 4:00 p.m. at Holy Family, 5:00 p.m. at Saint Cecilia, and 6:00 p.m. at Saints Peter and Paul

Sunday morning, 1.2.22, is the regular Sunday schedule.

God bless you all with health and happiness in the New Year.

I hope everyone's New Year 's resolutions include extra time for prayer.

⇒ WHAT IS A MASS INTENTION?

From the days of the early Church it has been common practice to offer Mass for the dead, as well as for others. Archaeologists have discovered epitaphs on tombs in the Roman catacombs, asking for prayers for the departed one. Numerous early Church Fathers witness to this practice. Recall from St. Augustine's "Confessions" St. Monica's one dying request, "that you remember me at the altar of the Lord wherever you may be." Countless Christians have made this same request of their survivors. Call Elisa at 724-775-4111 to request a Mass be celebrated for one of your loved ones.

Providing safe shelter this winter

Our annual Winter Warming Station will open a month from now, serving anyone without access to daytime shelter through March.

We believe all people have the right to safe, indoor shelter, especially during dangerous extreme temperatures.

There are three ways you can help:

Donate hot meals, non-perishable snacks, and clean winter wear for our guests

Oatmeal packets, individual sugar and cream servings, breakfast bars

Clean hats, gloves and scarves

Nutritious hot lunches and dinner

For more info: smcmur@ccpgh.org

Volunteer your time for conversation or card and board games with our guests

For more info: kslate@ccpgh.org

Make a financial donation to defray costs of operation

Thank you for sharing your warmth with those who need it most.
