Sacraments

Baptism: In Baptism, the Holy Spirit moves us to answer Christ's call to holiness. In Baptism, we are asked to walk by the light of Christ and to trust in his wisdom. We are invited to submit our hearts to Christ with ever deeper love. Please contact Gary or Tina Grimm at 724.495.2385.

Reconciliation: The Sacrament of Penance is God's gift to us so that any sin committed after Baptism can be forgiven. In confession, we have the opportunity to repent and recover the grace of friendship with God.

Eucharist: In the celebration of the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. Christ is truly present -- body, blood, soul, and divinity -- under the appearances of bread and wine. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist.

Matrimony: The Sacrament of Marriage is a covenant, which is more than a contract. Covenant always expresses a relationship between persons. The marriage covenant refers to the relationship between the husband and wife, a permanent union of persons capable of knowing and loving each other and God. The celebration of marriage is also a liturgical act. Arrangements should be made with a priest at least six months in advance. Pre-marriage classes, and meetings with the priest, are necessary. One party to be married must be a registered parishioner and a practicing Catholic.

Priesthood: Ordination to the priesthood is always a call and a gift from God. Christ reminded his Apostles that they needed to ask the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into the harvest. Those who seek priesthood respond generously to God's call using the words of the prophet, "Here I am, send me" (Is 6:8). Contact our Pastor.

Anointing of the Sick: When the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is given, the hoped-for effect is that, if it be God's will, the person be physically healed of illness. But even if there is no physical healing, the primary effect of the Sacrament is a spiritual healing. Arrangements are made by calling the Pastoral Center.

A Letter From Our Pastor

Dear Friends:

Someone once described refusing forgiveness to holding on to a porcupine: it feels so much better to let it go.

Peter asks the Lord: how many times must I forgive? Jesus points him towards the generous forgiveness that God extends towards us. As we have been forgiven, we must forgive. If we close our hearts to others, then we also close the door for ourselves. Forgiveness allows us to let go of bitterness and pain.

Forgiveness can be a difficult thing to grasp. Does it mean excusing hurtful, evil behavior? Does it mean that we are ignoring the harm that someone has caused us or others?

Forgiveness is a decision that we make to be willing to forego vengeance for wrongs done to us, to desire for those who wrong us true good, and to place all of this in God's hands. Forgiveness is part of a process that hopefully leads to repentance, reconciliation, and healing. Forgiveness can be extended even if the other party has not asked for it. In this case, it is a decision on our part to no longer be controlled by what they have done. Repentance, reconciliation, and healing can only come when they seek our forgiveness. But it begins with our willingness to extend it to them.

Our motive for doing so comes from the fact that God has decided to forgive us for our sins. In Jesus' parable, the master forgives the servant in debt. God wants to forgive us if we seek His forgiveness. To really receive it, we need to ask, which is the act of repentance. We see that the Lord's attitude towards us is one of mercy. He does not seek revenge. He wants the greatest good for us. He brings us healing. When we reconcile with God, we receive these blessings fully.

The Lord comes to heal our pain and desires that we will extend that mercy to others.

Thank you for your generous response to last weekend's Mission Cooperative Collection!

The response to our first weekend of signups for our photo directory was great! If you haven't signed up already, please do so soon. Our family photo album won't be complete without you!

On this Catechetical Sunday, we give thanks to God for our dedicated staff and catechists who share the faith with our young disciples. Thanks to our Faith Formation Team, our Youth Minister, our dedicated catechists and our school administration, staff, and teachers. May God bless you all as you share the faith with our young disciples.

God bless,
Father Howard

Offer a Mass or Dedicate the Sanctuary Candle - Book Now for 2024

Offer a Mass

The Mass is a beautiful celebration of Christ's love for us. What better way to honor someone than to have a Mass offered in their name.

Mass intentions are traditionally offered for $10.00. The Mass Intention will be published in the Bulletin.

Dedicate a Sanctuary Candle

The red Sanctuary Candle by the tabernacle burns to remind us of the sacramental presence of Jesus Christ. It is a mark of honor to remind the faithful of the presence of Christ, and is a profession of their love and affection.

If you wish to have the Sanctuary Candle burning in memory of a loved one, to honor a special occasion, or a special intention make arrangements with the Pastoral Center.

The cost of the candle is $10.00. It will burn for one week. The memorial will be published in the Bulletin.
