

32nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury."

- Mk 12:42-43

32º DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

En esto, se acercó una viuda pobre y echó dos moneditas de muy poco valor. Llamando entonces a sus discípulos, Jesús les dijo: "Yo les aseguro que esa pobre viuda ha echado en la alcancía más que todos".

- Mc 12, 42-43

All Saints Youth Ministry counts on the support of our parishioners to help us send teens on our weeks of service, summer camps, and retreats. By contributing to our All Saints Shares campaign, you are helping to support valuable youth ministry programs that grow faith, build leaders, equip servants, and create lasting friendships and memories for our young people. If you haven't given, please consider donating at: <https://www.allsaintsknoxville.org/shares>

Everything is connected; in our world, everything is profoundly interrelated... for no creatures are self-sufficient; they exist only in dependence on each other, complementing one another and in the service of one another...

Recognizing that the world is interconnected means not only realizing the harmful effects of our actions, but also identifying behaviours and solutions to be adopted, in an attitude of openness to interdependence and sharing... This commitment should lead to an urgently needed change of direction, nurtured also by our respective religious beliefs and spirituality.

Have you heard terms like Integral Ecology or Ecological Ecology and wondered what they mean? Have you looked at the All Saints weekly bulletin and seen articles on “Laudato Si, On Care for Our Common Home” and wondered why there is so much emphasis on environmental issues in our bulletin? What does Care for Creation have to do with Social Justice, Care for the Poor or just plain being a faithful Catholic

Christian? Come and hear the All Saints Creation Care Team explain the importance of the Laudato Si’ Encyclical, its call for urgent action and why it matters to us here in East Tennessee at the Social Action Committee Meeting on Monday, November 8th at 7 pm in the All Saints Day Chapel and live streamed at <https://allsaintsknoxville.org/social-action>.

Nicodemus Club will meet on Sunday, November 21, at 9:30 AM in room 106 in the RE Building for ninety minutes. The featured speaker will be Paul Simoneau, The Diocesan Vice Chancellor for Administration. Paul’s subject will be “Icons and the Rosary.” Nicodemus Club is open to all adults who wish to learn more about their Catholic Faith. For more information, contact Gene Masters at 865-539-2756, or by email at masterseugene@gmail.com.
