Mary, The Holy Mother of God

We hide ourselves and our secrets from God because we are afraid. Even Mary can seem too perfect to approach. The shepherds find the strength to speak to Mary and Joseph at the moment they see the child in the manger. They open their hearts and share what they've experienced. Saint Luke writes of the shepherds, "When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child."

When I was a college student, I visited Rome. Beggars often approached and said, "Mangia? Mangia?" I didn't speak Italian and thought, "Why are they speaking about the Christmas nativity scene?" My friend said, "Mangia means eat. They're hungry." That's when I realized more deeply than ever before that Mary puts her baby in a place designed for hungry animals to eat.

See that baby in the manger in your heart. Imagine Mary kneeling nearby looking at you with love. She doesn't cling to God for herself. In that cave, from the beginning, she quietly offers her son to hungry souls. The manger means vulnerable self-offering love. That's the sign. This week that same manger opens our hearts to tell Mary about our lives, too. — Father John Muir ©LPi

End of Life Planning

Mark your calendars for February 11th, 2023!
"The Best Gift to Give Your Loved Ones"

We will host 3 speakers, Janie McCullah, a licensed Funeral Director from Click Funeral Home, Fr. Doug Owens, and Paul Simoneau, Vice Chancellor for the Diocese of Knoxville.

The Mystery of Suffering and End of Life Decisions

- Paul Simoneau

Church's teachings on the salvific meaning of human suffering, care for the seriously ill, and end of life decisions. Important distinctions are made between that which is considered "ordinary care" (e.g., nutrition, hydration, basic care and comfort) and "medical treatment," and the principles that help us discern between what is obligatory treatment and what is optional. The subject of palliative care (treating pain) and that of the use or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures will also be covered. The presentation will walk participants through the diocesan approved "Advance Care Plan" (what many call a Living Will) and "Assignment of a Health Care Agent" (someone who can make medical decisions on your behalf should be incapacitated). Throughout this presentation, the spiritual meaning of this important part of life's journey will be highlighted. Packets of information and resources will be provided.
