Parenting is hard. Parenting a child with a (diagnosed or suspected) mental illness is even harder.

Meetings are in Room A. on Fridays at 10 AM. This is a small group of mothers looking for ways to support each other by praying together, sharing knowledge, experience, stories, struggles and victories. We also hope to become a group of friends who can help each other in hands-on and practical ways if needed.

Being a part of other groups and sharing these special and unique struggles is difficult and many people know that it is difficult for others to understand and relate to, so parents often do not have an outlet. Parents dealing with mental illness (examples: generalized anxiety disorder, major depressive disorder, ADHD, eating disorders, schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, personality disorders) face special challenges navigating the mental and medical health systems as well. Finding proper services can be one more thing added on their already full plate. We would like to help carry that special cross. If you are interested joining the group or in more information, please contact: cluceon@dioknox.org.

Don't forget to return your baby bottles with your donation (change, cash or check made payable to CCETN) as soon as possible. Donations may be made online at <https://cctn.org/donate-babybottles>. Please indicate All Saints in the parish affiliation box. Thank you for your support of the Pregnancy Help Center.

WELCOME

Welcome to All Saints Parish! We are so happy that you decided to celebrate Mass with us today! Please stop by the Welcome Desk in the entrance way of the church to introduce yourself. Members of our Welcome Committee will be delighted to answer any questions you may have!

If ...

It’s a surprising little word — if. For such a short word, it holds an abundance of excuses.

Personally, I could buy a new car if I had a dollar for every time I used the word “if” to explain away my own flaws. “If I wasn’t so tired. If we had more money. If the kids weren’t always on my last nerve. If I had more talent. If life wasn’t so hard.”

If, if, if.

I don’t always feel like being the salt of the earth. Can’t someone else season the dish? Sometimes it’s more than I want to give, more than I want to do, more than I want to be. Sharing my bread, sheltering the oppressed, clothing the naked, and accompanying my neighbor — doing these things in the literal or figurative sense can be completely exhausting. Mediocrity is so easy. It’s so comfortable.

But if. It looms again, that short but powerful word.

“If” can be deep with excuses, but it can also be wide with possibility. If I bring it all to God. If I stop relying on my own abilities. If I prayed more than I talked. If I make my heart firm. If my faith does not rest on human wisdom.

If not me, who? If not now, when?

“You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.” — Matthew 5:14
