SYNOD ON SYNODALITY - JOURNEYING TOGETHER

The Pope is inviting all parishes in the world to participate in a Synod and Epiphany is excited to be included in this process. A Synod is a gathering of people, beginning at the parish level, called to listen to the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to “journey together” and discern God’s will for the whole Church.

Staff members are working diligently to implement this process and present it to you. Check our bulletin and weekly emails for more information in January, when you will be invited to participate in this synod process.

OUTREACH

O Come Let Us Adore Him

Our Savior is here! Jesus, we praise and adore you for being the GIFT to the world. May all of our actions towards others be a reflection of your Light and our love for you.

Go in Peace to Love and Serve the Lord

Thank you for your generosity throughout the year, and especially during this Christmas Season. Epiphany would not be able to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, care for the sick or visit the prisoner unless parishioners and visitors actively lived out the Gospel by their participation. And so, we pray: Good and gracious God, for the opportunity to serve you by serving others, we thank you and ask for your continued blessings. Amen.

An Invitation

The Epiphany Community was blessed by your presence here today. Please come back again and share your time and talent with the many Ministries of Human Concerns and Pastoral Care. Whether you have five minutes once a month or one hour each week, there is an opportunity for you to become involved at Epiphany. Your participation will provide service to our brothers and sisters in Christ who are in our pews, our neighborhoods, our city, our state, our country, and in other countries of our world, including Fr. John’s home country of Uganda.

Feast of the Epiphany “Baby Shower for Mary”

ART NOTES

December 26, 2021 | Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

In the Centrum, several ceramic pieces from Italy are displayed. The wall sculpture of “The Nativity” is an original work by Mario Franchi of Assisi. The other pieces are circular “tondi” in glazed ceramic from the della Robbia workshop in Florence. One piece is also titled “The Nativity”. In the back of the Centrum is “The Child Wrapped in Swaddling Clothes” from the Ospedale degli Innocenti (Hospital of the Innocents) in Florence. In the right alcove is a smaller tondo of the “Madonna and Child”.

In the back of the Centrum is a copy of “Rest on the Flight into Egypt”, painted by Luc Olivier Merson in 1879, depicting an imagined scene from the Gospel story of Saint Matthew for the Feast of the Holy Family. This stark work shows Mary and Jesus sleeping in the arms of a sphinx, while Joseph sleeps near the fire. Showing the Holy Family in the ruins of an ancient empire, this piece echoes Epiphany’s crèche in Minor Worship, set in Roman ruins. The original of this work hangs in the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, Massachusetts. In the Blessed Sacrament Chapel is a contemporary treatment of “The Holy Family”, a copy of an original in the Vatican Museum.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

December 26, 2021 | Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.
