Each mission trip is scheduled to start at 8 a.m. and end no later than 11 a.m.. You need not participate in all five events. Just pick the mission trip that best accommodates your schedule. ### Update on our Sister Parishes in and around Cavaillon, Haiti

On the very weekend, Aug 14-15, when the St. Charles Haiti Committee was to make its annual appeal to assist with elementary school education and nutrition as well as the basic parochial, health and agricultural needs of our sister parish, and its satellite chapels and schools in and around Cavaillon, a major earthquake struck that region. The news from Monsignor Coissy, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, is as we feared: major destruction. Msgr. Coissy was on the upper balcony when the earthquake hit. He broke his left leg in a few places when he was forced to jump down to a wall beside the kitchen. He admits that he thought that he was facing death. He is now sleeping under the stars, as are so many in Haiti, taunted by continuing tremors and much rain. His presbytery, church and the main school, Immaculate Conception, as well as the high school, were destroyed. Cardinal Chibly Langlois, just south of Cavaillon in Les Cayes on the southwestern coast, was also hurt in the quake and lost one of the priests in his residence.

hAs Committee members told you during the annual appeal, the main focus of the Committee's fundraising has been support of six elementary schools, nutrition for the children, and payment of the teachers, after which we assist Msgr. Coissy in ministering to the spiritual and physical needs of his agricultural parish. For the foreseeable future the Committee is adding disaster relief to its focus. Msgr. Coissy reports that already the most basic needs -- water, food and fuel oil -- have become scarce and are being sold at unaffordable prices. Their situation is "unlivable."

Please, if you can, support our sister parishes on-line via the Give menu at www.stcharleschurch.org/support/, then click on recurring or one-time Faith Direct tabs at bottom, sign in and designate Haiti; or via cash or check to the parish office (designating "Haiti" in the memo line). Thank you.

FORMACIÓN RELIGIOSA

Dejen a un lado el mandamiento de Dios para aferrarse a las tradiciones de los hombre

En tiempos de Jesús, los judíos observaban muchísimas reglas de purificación. Era importante mantenerse puro (o sea, no contaminado) para poder participar en el culto a Dios. Le daban tanta importancia a estas reglas exteriores que se olvidaban de lo que verdaderamente vale para Dios: la misericordia y el amor.

El evangelio hoy nos habla de aquellas personas que siempre van criticando la actitud de Jesús, esta vez es en Galilea. Pero también lo vemos hoy en muchas personas. Decimos amar a Dios y seguir a Cristo con los labios, pero nuestra actuación es todo lo contrario: "Hay que ser cristiano y no parecerlo, Así como los discípulos dejaron a un lado la tradición porque desde que seguían a Jesús cambiaron su comportamiento. Nosotros también lo podemos hacer, ocuparnos de los más débiles, de los que están solos, tristes poniendo en práctica las enseñanzas de Jesús y seguir el camino del amor. No basta con ir a Misa todos los domingos
