If you were raised
with Christ,
seek what is above,
where Christ is seated
at the right hand of God.
Think of what is above,
not of what is on earth.*

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The rich man described in the Gospel today failed to share his abundance with others. Our society seems to value material possessions, wealth, and status. The more we have, the happier we feel. Our greediness can also creep into workplaces where co-workers want to assert dominance or in families where children do not want to share objects or attention. Our call today is to reflect on how to evaluate and best use what we treasure and value. How can we practice hospitality and generosity?

The more God's love fills us, the more we want to share what we have with others near and far. To place the needs of another before our own means to love as Christ loved us. Maybe we can share our material wealth by donating to the school supply drive. Maybe we can share the gift of time by helping a neighbor with yard work. If we see someone struggling with loss or grief we can make them a meal or spend a little extra time with them as they mourn. If there is a "treasure" you have, you need to share it and not store it up!

The gift of God's love is a treasure we can surely share with others through invitation and accompaniment. We can always invite a friend or family member to join us at Mass or to participate in service to the community. We cannot be greedy with our faith, we need to share it in our words and actions. If you know of someone who would like to come back to the faith or explore what the Catholic Faith is all about, encourage them to join our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) formation. RCIA is a process of sharing, reflecting, questioning, discussion and prayer. Our process is flexible and open as participants walk with parishioners to experience a new way of life. If you know of someone who would like to learn more about this process please contact me or Roberta in the office.

My blessings to you this week as we share Christ's love with our family and community.

Fr. Benson

ADORATION IN THE CHAPEL

Eucharist Adoration is open every Thursday from 9:00am to 6:00pm in the Lower Chapel. The evening ends with Benediction service beginning at 5:45pm in the chapel.

Eucharistic Adoration is the worship of the Blessed Sacrament outside of Mass. The Eucharist is displayed in a monstrance on the altar so all can spend time in the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

We offer Eucharistic Adoration every Thursday from 9:00 am to 6:00 pm in the lower chapel with Benediction at 5:45 pm. No appointment is necessary, simply come spend some quiet time in prayer.

Here are a few suggestions on how to make Eucharistic Adoration a more regular part of your life:

Be realistic about your time. Start by going to the chapel for fifteen minutes and build up to a longer duration or more frequency.

Remember to make your time meaningful and nourishing. Even spending a few minutes can change your outlook.

Reflect on what you can sacrifice so that you have more time for regular Adoration.
