FROM OUR PASTOR

Last weekend, I announced that I had received in the mail, a copy of Bishop Robert Barron's "Letter to a Suffering Church: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis." I was deeply moved and inspired by the letter, so I took advantage of a very good deal to purchase copies for the parish.

According to Barron, in the wake of the sex abuse scandals, 37% of Catholics are seriously considering leaving the Church. But Bishop makes the case to "stay and fight", bluntly affirming "there is simply never a good reason to leave the Church. Never. Good reasons to criticize Church people? Plenty. Legitimate reasons to be angry with corruption, stupidity, careerism, cruelty, greed, and sexual misconduct on the part of leaders of the Church? You bet. But grounds for turning away from the grace of Christ in which eternal life is found? No. Never, under any circumstances."

In the second chapter of his letter, Bishop Barron calls our attention to the Sacred Scriptures which contain innumerable incidences in which human weakness and human sin brought terrible wounds to God's holy people, many instances where the Imago Dei is "thoroughly effaced". He then shows how sadly, "We Have Been Here Before" (Chapter 3) in Church History, and then goes to answer "Why Should We Stay (Chapter 4)" and gives some practical advice for "The Way Forward" (Chapter 5). This book gave me insight and hope, and I think it can give it to you as well. So please take a copy of Bishop Barron's letter. Read it and discuss it, and let me know what you think of it. Please join me in praying the "Prayer for a Suffering Church" concluding Bishop Barron's letter:

Grant we pray, O Lord, healing for all victims of sexual abuse. Purify your Church of corruption. Bring justice to those who have been wronged. Grant consolation to all who are afflicted. Cast your light to banish the shadows of deception. Manifest to all your advocacy of those who have been so cruelly hurt, and your judgment upon those who, having perpetrated such crimes, remain unrepentant. Compel those in your Church whom you have entrusted to safeguard the innocent and act on behalf of the victims to be vigilant and zealous in their duties. Restore faith to those from whom it has been stolen, and hope to those who have despaired. Christ the Victim, we call out to you!

Strengthen your faithful to accept the mission placed before us, a mission of holiness and truth. Inspire us to become advocates of those who have been harmed. Grant us strength to fight for justice. Impart to us courage so that we might forthrightly face the challenges to come. Raise up saints from your Church, and grant us the grace to become the saints you desire us to be. This we ask of you, who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.
