

11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants.”- Mk 4:30-32b

PASTOR COLUMN

Though we've been observing the liturgical season of Ordinary Time for about three full weeks, this is the first Sunday since Pentecost that the priest has worn the liturgical color green.

Traditionally, the color green is the color of hope. Whenever the theological virtue hope was depicted in paintings, she could easily be identified because she would be the lady in the green garments. We wear green, during Ordinary Time, because we hope—that what we do in the ordinary course of our lives will lead to heaven.

What else is green the color of? Growth, springtime, summer. The green of Ordinary Time is also to remind us of that growth that is supposed to be happening in our souls.

We often use the word 'ordinary' to describe things that are unremarkable, commonplace, or dull. The word 'ordinary' though, comes from the latin word ordinalis, which means ordered, orderly, regimented, steady, and consistent, like the ordinal numbers.

Just as Ordinary time is ordered, orderly, regimented, steady and consistent, so our own spiritual lives should take on the characteristics of this liturgical season: consistency in our daily prayer, regimented in our generosity and kindness, steady in our daily imitation of Jesus, and continuous in our openness to being challenged to growing in holiness. So, let the green of Ordinary Time remind you to nurture new, vibrant spiritual growth through an ordered spiritual life of prayer and good works.

Come up with a plan for the next few months. How much should you pray every day? At what times? When will you read and reflect on Scripture? To what good works will you commit yourself each week? What virtue do you need to work on? How often should you go to Confession? Weekday Mass?

As we make our way through this liturgical season of Ordinary Time, a season full of opportunities for spiritual and moral growth, may we be kept close to the Lord in our daily prayer, attendance at Mass, and open, to all of the ways the Lord wishes to challenge us, and guide us, and cause new growth in our souls, for His glory and the salvation of souls.

HEARING ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE AT MASS

Hearing Aids are available and may be obtained prior to the beginning of Mass in the Sacristy.

MASS OBLIGATION

The Bishops of Ohio made the decision to reinstate the general obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. As has always been the case those with serous reason to avoid gathering are still exempt. These include people who are ill, have significant health risks or cares for someone with those risks, and those with severe fear of anxiety of gathering and the risks associated. To read the letter from the Ohio Bishops and for more information please visit the Cleveland Dioceses website at www.diocesesofcleveland.org.
