PASTOR'S COLUMN

From 1885 to the late 1960s, the standard Catholic school text in the United States was The Baltimore Catechism and was based on St. Robert Bellarmine's 1614 Small Catechism. It was officially replaced by the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults in 2004, but it is still relevant and easily accessible today, utilizing a simple question and answer format easily understand by children and easy to memorize.

Here are the Baltimore Catechism entries (numbers 101-104) relevant for the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord.

101. When did Christ ascend into heaven?

Christ ascended, body and soul, into heaven on Ascension Day, forty days after His Resurrection.

And it came to pass as he blessed them, that he parted from them and was carried up into heaven. (Luke 24:51)

102. Why did Christ remain on earth forty days after His Resurrection?

Christ remained on earth forty days after His Resurrection to prove that He had truly risen from the dead and to complete the instruction of the apostles.

To them also he showed himself alive after his passion by many proofs during the forty days appearing to them and speaking of the kingdom of God. (Acts 1:3)

103. What do we mean when we say that Christ sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty?

When we say that Christ sits at the right hand of God, the Father Almighty, we mean that Our Lord as God is equal to the Father, and that as man He shares above all the saints in the glory of His Father and exercises for all eternity the supreme authority of a king over all creatures.

All powers in heaven and on earth has been given to me. (Matthew 28:18)

104. What do we mean when we say that Christ will come from thence to judge the living and the dead?

When we say that Christ will come from thence to judge the living and the dead, we mean that on the last day Our Lord will come to pronounce a sentence of eternal reward or of eternal punishment on everyone who has ever lived in this world.

For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will render to everyone according to his conduct. (Matthew 16:27)

Fr. Estabrook's Final thought: Our Lord ascends to heaven, showing us that God desires heaven to be our eternal home.

There is a place prepared for you there, where you can be forever with God. Whenever you pray, "Our Father who art in heaven", long ardently for eternal happiness, and make a firm resolution to perform all your duties on earth faithfully, and to avoid sin, so that you may be worthy of heaven.
