PASTOR'S COLUMN

Last week, I mentioned that the last 100 paragraphs of the Catechism explains the "The Lord's Prayer". I recommended reading through the Catechism entries to help enrich your own praying of the Our Father. I'd like to offer this week some simple entries from the old Baltimore Catechism (BC) on the importance of praying in general.

BC. 1099. What is prayer? Prayer is the lifting up of our minds and hearts to God, to adore Him, to thank Him for His benefits, to ask His forgiveness, and to beg of Him all the graces we need whether for soul or body.

BC 1100. How many kinds of prayer are there? There are two kinds of prayer: Mental prayer, called meditation, in which we spend the time thinking of God or of one or more of the truths He has revealed, that by these thoughts we may be persuaded to lead holier lives; Vocal prayer, in which we express these pious thoughts in words.

BC. 1105. At what particular times should we pray? We should pray particularly on Sundays and holy days, every morning and night, in all dangers, temptations, and afflictions.

BC. 1106. How should we pray? We should pray: With attention; With a sense of our own helplessness and dependence upon God; With a great desire for the graces we beg of God; With trust in God's goodness; With perseverance.

BC 1109. What should we do that we may pray well? That we may pray well we should make a preparation before prayer: By calling to mind the dignity of God, to whom we are about to speak, and our own unworthiness to appear in His presence; By fixing upon the precise grace or blessing for which we intend to ask; By remembering God's power and willingness to give if we truly need and earnestly, humbly and confidently ask.

BC 1117. What are the fruits of prayer? The fruits of prayer are: It strengthens our faith, nourishes our hope, increases our love for God, keeps us humble, merits grace and atones for sin.

BC 1120. Did Our Lord Himself pray, and why? Our Lord Himself very frequently prayed, often spending the whole night in prayer. He prayed before every important action, not that He needed to pray, but to set us an example of how and when we should pray.

~COME PRAY THE ROSARY~
