Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – July 31, 2022

If simplicity of life and the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity and obedience especially attract you, discover that life as a priest. Call the Vocations Office, (804) 359-5661, to speak with Fr. Brian Capuano; or write to vocations@richmonddiocese.org.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time July 31, 2022

The setting of this passage is a controversy over inheritance that Jesus is asked to mediate. Jesus refuses to get involved, seemingly because he detects in the man making the request a motive of greed rather than justice. Jesus is also disappointed that after listening to all his preaching, the first concern of this man still remains his share of the inheritance. And so, Jesus used this occasion to warn his hearers and all of us today not to rely on wealth and possessions for our security. Our true security is in God.

Today's readings talk about our attitude towards possessions. Jesus wants us to respond to our instinct for security and happiness. He wants us to use it not only here and now but also for eternal life.

Jesus is our priceless treasure. He reminds us all today to put in the right perspective our longing for the things we need for a descent, secured life.

Let us keep on loving as Jesus did. Amen.

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” (Mt 5:3)

RESPECT LIFE: As a gift from God, EVERY human life is sacred from natural conception to natural death. The life and dignity of every person must be respected and protected at every stage and in every condition. The right to life is the first and most fundamental principle of human rights that leads Catholics to actively work for a world of greater respect for all human life and a greater commitment to justice and peace.

Please pray that human life is never devalued or violated! May we always appreciate the gift of life that God gives all of us! May we trust in His plan where we take care of each other as all life is precious and His Love is for all of us! Please learn more about building a culture that promotes life and the integration of Christ's teachings of human dignity in our society!
(<https://www.respectlife.org/>)

PEACE & JUSTICE: Continue to pray for peace in our homes, country, and in the world! May God's peace be with us all! God is gracious and He loves us no matter what, no matter what we have done, and no matter who we are!

Today, the Gospel encourages us to be good listeners and “to fill our lives and the lives of many others with love and joy.” It has also taught us how to make our hearts soft, docile, warm, compassionate and humble. “At Holy Mass, when we approach the Table of the Sacrament, may we strive to keep our hearts as Jesus wants them to be. May the reception of our Lord in Holy Communion ready us to make sacrifices for the sake of our family, confirm our resolve to adhere always to God's design, and to keep our hearts faithful, loyal and attentive to God's voice anytime He speaks to us.” (Catholic Journal, 2021, www.catholicjournal.us/2021/10/01/if-today-we-hear-his-voice/)

CATHOLIC IN RECOVERY (CIR): CIR is a support group at SOS that seeks to serve those suffering specifically with alcohol and drug addiction. CIR is a resource of HOPE and HEALING for those struggling with these particular addictions, and encourages recovery by building a stronger relationship with God. All is possible with God's love! If you are interested in CIR, please inquire about joining a meeting!

Contact: Shawn at (757)343-5307 or refer to CIR's Website: visit www.catholicinrecovery.com

MIGRANT MINISTRY: Thank you for your support of Migrant Ministry and please pray for the migrant workers as they labor in the summer heat! We will be making a few trips over the summer months with our Deanery Parishes to relay supplies to migrant camps. If you are interested to learn more about SOS' Migrant Ministry or if you are able to speak or understand Spanish and/or French, we would like you to consider joining our ministry for the summer, or possibly to help with a special Christmas trip to help bring over Giving Tree migrant presents in December. Please contact Virginia at the Parish Office or email at vamollner@staroftheseeparish.com.
