20th Sunday in Ordinary Time-August 14, 2022

Jesus, in today's Gospel, reminded his disciples that he did not come to establish peace on earth but division. It means that the peace that Jesus offers us is not the cozy, comfortable kind of peace, but a peace that is borne out of sacrifice, pain and anguish. As someone once said, the gospel comforts the disturbed and disturbs the comfortable.

Our basic catechism describes the Church in heaven as the Church triumphant, the Church in purgatory as the Church suffering, and the Church on earth as the Church militant. So, let us remember that while we live, we continue to struggle, to grow and move on. Let us then continue to ask, to seek the truth, to confront evil and lies with good and the truth in our life journey.

The presence of Christ in our lives gives us peace, but He will disturb our peace to challenge us to grow and become better persons. God's love is both tender and tough. The main focus of our journey to God's heart is God Himself, and not the sunshine or the storm we encounter along the way. In other words, the presence of God is what should give us peace, whether we go through peaceful or raging waters on our journey.

Let us keep on believing in God's love and faithfulness. Let us keep on loving as Jesus did. Amen.

Fr. Steve

More than just a congregation gathered here in time and space, we, united as a family, live and grow within God's grace. Grateful for our joys and friendships, in our kinship we embrace.

As we celebrate our parish, mindful are we of its past, and our heritage we honor in our hearts always to last. May we be here for each other; in God's love we shall stand fast. "

PEACE & JUSTICE: Continue to pray for one another and pray the Rosary! Thank you dear parishioners of Star of the Sea for your prayers, donations, support and service! May God continue to bless all of us and may we always be grateful for all we have! May we continue to honor Jesus' lessons as we serve our parish community, sharing the goodness of Jesus to others and also find Christ in ourselves through service! Continue to share your time, talent and treasure with others. Share at least one random act of kindness with someone each day, as that one act alone can bring hope to someone who has been in need of a blessing! May God continue to bless us, our families and our parish community! Peace be with all of us!

"Keep our eyes fixed on Jesus!" (Hebrews 12:1-4)
