MASS PROGRAM

OPENING HYMN

There's a wideness in God's mercy, like the wideness of the sea; there's a kindness in his justice which is more than liberty.

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

There is plentiful redemption in the blood that Christ has shed; there is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the head.

FIRST READING

The days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers the day I took them by the hand to lead them forth from the land of Egypt; for they broke my covenant, and I had to show myself their master, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD. I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives how to know the LORD. All, from least to greatest, shall know me, says the LORD, for I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more.

Jer 31:31-34

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Create a clean heart in me, O God.

PS 51:3-4, 12-13, 14-15

SECOND READING

In the days when Christ Jesus was in the flesh, he offered prayers and supplications with loud cries and tears to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered; and when he was made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

Heb 5:7-9

VERSE BEFORE THE GOSPEL

Whoever serves me must follow me, says the Lord; and where I am, there also will my servant be.

Jn 12:26

GOSPEL

Some Greeks who had come to worship at the Passover Feast came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me. "I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? 'Father, save me from this hour'? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it and will glorify it again." The crowd there heard it and said it was thunder; but others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered and said, "This voice did not come for my sake but for yours. Now is the time of judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself." He said this indicating the kind of death he would die.

HOMILY

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became Man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen

PRAYER FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE VICTORY FUTURE PROJECT

Almighty God and Father,
You established your light on this hill in Delhi and generations have kept that light burning brightly. As we look forward, bless our efforts and our deliberations. Give us wisdom and courage so that we can build the kingdom you desire and the community you long to see. Give us generous, kind hearts and bless our efforts with Success.

Amen

OFFERTORY HYMN

I have loved you with an everlasting love, I have called you and you are mine;
I have loved you with an everlasting love, I have called you and you are mine.

I Have Loved You

Seek the face of the Lord and long for him: He will bring you his light and his peace.

COMMUNION HYMN

O Lord, you are the centre of my life: I will always praise you, I will always serve you, I will always keep you in my sight.
Keep me safe, O God, I take refuge in you. I say to the Lord, "You are my God. My happiness lies in you alone; my happiness lies in you alone."
I will bless the Lord, who gives me counsel, who even at night directs my heart. I keep the Lord ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm.

Center of My Life

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even in safety shall my body rest. For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay.
You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand, at your right hand happiness forever.

CLOSING SONG

Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ, our salvation and our hope.
Let us bow in homage to the Lord of Life, who was broken to make us whole.

Glory in the Cross

There is no greater love, as blessed as this: to lay down one's life for a friend.
Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ and the triumph of God's great love.

Fr. Ben's Column

I am the Good Shepherd

If you travel to Ireland and have the opportunity to drive through the Wicklow Mountains, you are certain to encounter sheep. Once, these mountains were covered with bogs, trees, and woodland. There were mountain deer, goats, foxes, and, at one time, wolves roamed these mountains. The trees were cut down in the 18th century to build ships for the Royal Navy, which then ruled the seas. Although there has been some reforestation in recent decades, the mountains are pretty much barren except for some bracken, heather, wild grass, lakes, and bogs. However, sheep are allowed to roam freely and feed on the vegetation that is available. As you drive along, it would not be surprising to see them in the rocky fields, walking along the side of the road, or maybe even walking on the road, as they casually make their way searching for food. Not a shepherd in sight! It is not that these sheep are wild or uncared for, nor are they left alone. They have become accustomed to their environment and they know these mountains intimately. They also know the sound of their shepherd's voice. When he calls, they raise their heads and move toward him. The shepherd is never far away. If any of his sheep get caught, stray, or go missing, the shepherd searches for them. He picks them up and gathers them home. Interestingly, they don't follow strangers. They don't go toward their voices. If they are approached, they move away. If they are held by strangers who might be trying to rescue them from being caught in branches or trapped on a ledge, they struggle and fight to be released. But with their shepherd, with him, they go quietly, gently, and gracefully because they know his voice, his smell, his touch. They know that the shepherd, their shepherd, cares for them. And so, they follow him.

Interestingly, in the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel, the prophet rails against the leaders of Israel, high priests, officials, and kings. He calls them out for being bad shepherds who fail to care for the sheep because they are greedy, selfish, corrupt, and care for themselves at the expense of the sheep. They don't listen to God's voice. They don't care for God's people. They don't follow God's law and they turn others from God's way. Through the prophet, God says He is so disgusted with those He appointed to be shepherds that He Himself will be the Shepherd of Israel and He Himself will care for His sheep.

So, when Jesus says, "I am the Good Shepherd" the people react and take notice because Jesus is taking a title to Himself that properly belongs to God alone, the title that God had given to Himself in the Book of Ezekiel. We understand what Jesus is claiming because we are followers of Jesus and know that He is God. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, has come to lead His sheep, carry them to safety, bind up their wounds, and lead them to good pasture. He has come to die for the sake of the salvation of God's sheep.

It is true that we are all sheep and belong to the flock of the Good Shepherd, Jesus. It is also true that we are all called to be like Jesus. Priests and parents, fathers and mothers, husbands and wives, pastors and parishioners, brothers and sisters, are all called to be good shepherds. All are called to lead God's sheep, carry them to safety, bind up their wounds, lead them to good pasture and, if necessary, die for the sake of the sheep. The hired man, on the other hand, is willing to let the sheep die for him.

The good shepherd is willing to die for the sheep. It is easy to be a good shepherd when things are going well, like when there is an easy slope, or when none of the sheep get lost or stray. It's easy when the food is plenty, the weather is good, and the sun is shining. It is hard to be a good shepherd when winter falls in, when the sheep are restless, or when the wolf is on the prowl. Being a good shepherd is never easy for very long, but if we have to suffer for something, let that something, be worthwhile – let it be for God's sheep.

Our Lady of Victory

Why do Catholics Light Candles?

A few weeks ago, I sent flowers to a convent of Carmelite nuns in Ireland on behalf of the people of Our Lady of Victory Parish. The flowers represented our thanks for the prayers the nuns offer on our behalf. They were overjoyed to receive them and they placed them in the church where everyone, including God, could see and enjoy them. I could have just said thank you to the sisters when I saw them: but giving a gift, something tactile, something they could see, touch, and enjoy, was better.

Words are good, but there are other ways we express our love, friendship, gratitude, and thanks. We hug, we embrace, we shake hands, we give gifts. Words are good, but these expressions are better. Our relationship with God and the saints is the same. We could just offer a spoken or silent prayer. But lighting a candle allows us to express in a real way what is going on in our hearts. It expresses our prayers, our needs, our hopes, our longings, our sadness. It represents a friend or a loved one we want to offer to God or a situation we need help with. It can also just be a thank you to God, Mary, or a saint. It expresses our love and so many other aspects of our relationship with God, the saints, and others.

The lighting of a candle is a good way to express, in an outward way, an inner prayer. This practice is seen in the Scriptures and in the lives of the earliest Christians. Lamps were kept burning in the Temple and at various shrines associated with God's presence, as well as places where God encountered men and women. For Sabbath begins with the woman of the home lighting the Sabbath candles. Easter begins with a blazing fire, which is kept burning in the Paschal candle. Lighting a candle to raise a prayer, to honor God, or as an offering, is a very good and holy practice. It would be a good thing to keep this tradition going and to teach it to our children.
