MASS PROGRAM

OPENING HYMN

Jesus Christ is ris'n today, Alleluia! Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross Alleluia! Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

Jesus Christ is Risen Today

Hymns of praise then let us sing Alleluia! Unto Christ our heav'nly King, Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia! Sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia!

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,

have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

FIRST READING

Peter proceeded to speak and said:
"You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man

Acts 10:34a, 37-43

God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Psalms 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

SECOND READING

Brothers and sisters:
If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Col 3:1-4

Anniversary Intentions for the Deceased.

The following death anniversaries occurred: March 29 - April 4

Annamae Fritsch - Virginia Oates - Roberta Klem - Danny Mazzaro - Anne Holy

MASS PROGRAM

SEQUENCE

Christians, to the Paschal Victim
Offer your thankful praises!
A Lamb the sheep redeems;
Christ, who only is sinless,
Reconciles sinners to the Father.
Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:
The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.
Speak, Mary, declaring
What you saw, wayfaring.

“The tomb of Christ, who is living,
The glory of Jesus' resurrection;
Bright angels attesting,
The shroud and napkin resting.
Yes, Christ my hope is arisen;
to Galilee he goes before you.”
Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.
Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!
Amen. Alleluia.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Alleluia

Jn 20:1-9

HOMILY

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became Man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen

Our Lady of Victory Carmel Pastor's Intentions for Homebound:

- That all Christians may have the freedom to worship God and live according to their faith
- For the Holy Father Pope Francis, bishops, and priests that they may lead the Church in humility and fidelity

MASS PROGRAM

PRAYER FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE VICTORY FUTURE PROJECT

Almighty God and Father,
You established your light on this hill in Delhi and generations have kept that light burning brightly. As we look forward, bless our efforts and our deliberations. Give us wisdom and courage so that we can build the kingdom you desire and the community you long to see. Give us generous, kind hearts and bless our efforts with Success. Amen

OFFERTORY HYMN

Morning has broken like the first morning
Black-bird has spoken like the first bird
Praise for the singing, praise for the morning
Praise for them springing fresh from the world

Morning Has Broken

Sweet the rain's new fall, sunlit from Heaven
Like the first dewfall on the first grass
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden
Sprung in completeness where His feet pass

COMMUNION HYMN #1

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive honor and glory.
Worthy are the ones who believe to receive the goodness of God.

Worthy is the Lamb

Worthy are you, O Bread of Life. Salvation and joy belong now to us.
By conquering death and rising to new life, we've become a people of praise.

Worthy are you, O paschal Lamb. Wisdom and strength belong now to you.
You laid down your life and died upon the cross: we've become a people of hope.

Worthy are you, O risen Christ. Wonders and signs, revealing your might.
Your power and glory shine upon our lives: we've become your light for the world.

COMMUNION HYMN #2

We hold the death of the Lord deep in our hearts. Living, now we remain with Jesus, the Christ.

Once we were people afraid, lost in the night.
Then by your cross we were saved.
Dead became living, life from your giving.

Something which we have known, something we've touched, what we have seen with our

Now We Remain

eyes: this we have heard, life giving Word.

He chose to give of himself, became our bread. Broken that we might live. Love beyond love, pain for our pain.

We are in the presence of God. This is our call. Now to become bread and wine: food for the hungry, life for the weary, for to live with the Lord, we must die with the Lord.

CLOSING SONG

People of God, see the morning is new;
Rise from your sleeping and run to the tomb.
Come and see! Come and see! He is alive!

A grave that is empty, a promise fulfilled.
God who was with us is here with us still.
He is here! He is here! He is alive!

Alleluia, Love is Alive

Alleluia! Love is alive; Conquered the grave and defeated the night.
Alleluia! Love is alive! The Son has arisen for all.
Your people sing alleluia!

Fr. Ben's Column

Easter Sunday- *Christus Resurrexit, Alleluia! Christ has risen, Alleluia!

I have always loved real fires. The bigger they are the more I loved them. In ancient Ireland at the time of Saint Patrick's mission, there was a pagan festival called Beltane which fell around the same time Easter was celebrated. During this festival great bonfires were built all over Ireland. At an appointed time the High King of Ireland, at Tara, would set ablaze the first fire. From that point all the fires were lit and soon the whole of Ireland was ablaze. Night became day and darkness was overcome by the light to usher in the Spring. Saint Patrick established his bonfire ten miles from Tara on the Hill of Slane and set it ablaze before the High King. From this point on the Gospel of Jesus Christ was carried throughout the whole country of Ireland. Night became day and darkness gave way to light. Like his fire, Patrick burned with a passion that set the country on fire.

The Easter fire, which should be big and dramatic, is the true image of Christ. It expresses His own heart and His desire to love the Father completely and absolutely. The fire also expressed Christ's passion to carry out the Father's desire that His children should be saved and restored to Him. In order to keep that Easter fire alight the whole year round, we transfer the Paschal fire to the Paschal candle so the flame is kept burning brightly. This way, people can receive it at Baptism, and we can make it present at funerals to remind us of God's passion for us and the sacrifice He made for us. In a sense, out of necessity we seem to tame that fire with the Paschal candle, but we should be careful not to tame that fire in our hearts, our souls, and our lives or else we lose out on the passion we should have in life.

At the Easter Vigil we gather around a fire to welcome the Risen Lord. We gather to welcome the new life that Christ now offers to each of us and the world. It's hard to comprehend just how extraordinary and momentous this event is in the life of the human race, in all creation, and, in fact, in the life of God. We have a tendency to take things for granted, familiarity breeds contempt, as the saying goes. For us, the life of grace, the availability of the sacraments, the accessibility of God, is so familiar, so near, so ordinary that we can forget how incredible these gifts are. Yet, when we stop to think about it, the fact that Jesus, the Logos (Word) who is the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, died on a cross for us, for you, now that is tremendous. Even more so, the fact that because He loves us so much, God the Father sent His Son to die on a cross to save us. That is also tremendous. The love that God the Father must have for you that He would allow such a thing, now the depth of that Fatherly love is beyond our human comprehension. As Saint John (3:16) says: "God loved the world so much that He sent His only Son."

The truth is that the Resurrection of Christ ushered in the possibility of having a close relationship with God. It ushered the possibility of receiving God's grace, which is God's own life and love, along with the possibility of fulfilling our eternal destiny – an intimate life with God now and in eternity. Between the time of the fall of Adam and Eve and the time of the Resurrection of Jesus, we were lost. We were lost in sin, and, in spite of all the sacrifices and offerings, heaven was closed to us. Imagine, never being able to enter heaven; or never being able to be fulfilled in our humanity. Imagine, never being able to live as we were created to live, to love as we were created to love. Imagine, not able to spend eternity as we were created to spend eternity – now that is damnation.

Christ's Resurrection changed all that as He ushered in a life of grace and the potential to live as we should and could. From the tree in the garden, life was taken away and from the tree of the Cross, life was restored.

Fr. Ben's Column

God paid a terrible price to save His children, to save us, to save you and me. The fire of Easter should remind us of the light coming into the world – that is true – but it should also remind us of the passion God has for us and the passion with which our hearts should burn for Him.

Ad Omne Opus bonum paratus: Prepared for every good work

Ad Omne Opus bonum paratus – prepared for every good work was the motto of St. Norbert. Tim Butler asked me a great question a few days ago: What do you want for Our Lady of Victory parish? I can tell you what I hope for and what I would like to help achieve. I want to help bring about a passion for God, a passion for good, a passion for life, a passion for the best in and for each other. I want to bring a passion that infuses every aspect of our lives here at Victory, our marriages, our homes, our school, our families, our programs, our good works, our liturgy, our whole life together. I want to help build a passion for God that moves us to be better, do better, want better, for God, for others, for ourselves, and for those we love.

The primary reason for the existence of a parish is the worship of God, the salvation of souls, and the transmission of the faith. All our efforts should flow from this or lead to this holy work. So, I would like greater communion with God to be central to our life and our worship. I would like to see Victory form people to be dedicated to Christ and the Church, valuing, supporting, encouraging, and protecting all life at all stages. I would like creativity to be the norm where talent is encouraged, and opportunities to share those talents abound. I would like to see in our parish and school an environment where people are affirmed, challenged, transformed by God's love. I would like an environment where belonging leads to a deeper faith, a deeper commitment, and friendships that are formed for life. I would like Victory to be a place where people experience faith, hope, prayer, joy, and kindness while feeling uplifted, valued, and renewed so that when they leave here, they leave feeling they are better for having been here, and their life is a little easier and more worthwhile. I would like for us to offer opportunities for spiritual and human growth for individuals, couples, families, young and old so that we can come close to God and experience His love for us. I would like us all to experience a community where every member is, according to their state in life and ability, engaged and valued while every child and every person is enriched by being part of this community. I would like Victory to become a place where kindness is the character of our encounters, where good, virtuous, and wholesome character is nurtured and formed. I would like our community to be a place where our children are formed in spirit, mind, body, heart, and soul for life. Victory should be a place where people feel touched by God.

From what I hear and see here at Victory I think you want the same. I think all of this is our shared mission. We already work for many of these things and although we are imperfect and sometimes fail – we do not let our failures, our falls, and our weaknesses define who we are or what our future can be. We know, you and I, by helping each other, we can do better and build the community some only wish for. We know we can build that community, with God's help and through God's grace.

We live in a time where people seem to think programs are our salvation. I think programs, like schools, associations, and plans are useful. They help us achieve our goals, but they are not an end in themselves. I believe it is people who really make a difference. People like the Blessed Virgin Mary, Peter, Paul, Patrick, Teresa of Avila, Mother Teresa, people like you.

Whatever we do, I want us to be like the Easter blaze setting the world on fire. I think that is a mission worth working toward. To be set on fire for Christ – that's a life worth having and worth living.

It's Easter Sunday – where the miraculous breaks into the everyday. So, let's not be afraid to believe and dream big. Be prepared for every good work.
