MASS PROGRAM

FIRST READING

For Zion's sake I will not be silent,
for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet,
until her vindication shines forth like the dawn
and her victory like a burning torch.

Nations shall behold your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;
you shall be called by a new name
pronounced by the mouth of the LORD.
You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD,

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Proclaim his marvelous deeds to all the nations.

SECOND READING

Brothers and sisters:
There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service
but the same Lord;
there are different workings but the same God
who produces all of them in everyone.
To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit
is given for some benefit.
To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge
according to the same Spirit;

GOSPEL

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee,
and the mother of Jesus was there.
Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."
And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come."
His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them,
"Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now

a royal diadem held by your God.
No more shall people call you "Forsaken,"
or your land "Desolate,"
but you shall be called "My Delight,"
and your land "Espoused."
For the LORD delights in you
and makes your land his spouse.
As a young man marries a virgin,
your Builder shall marry you;
and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride
so shall your God rejoice in you.

Ps 96:1-2, 2-3, 7-8, 9-10

to another, faith by the same Spirit;
to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit;
to another, mighty deeds;
to another, prophecy;
to another, discernment of spirits;
to another, varieties of tongues;
to another, interpretation of tongues.
But one and the same Spirit produces all of these,
distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

and take it to the headwaiter." So they took
it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

Jesus Blesses the Wedding at Cana

I have a friend in Ireland who is a Robin Hood fanatic. He reads everything he can on the subject, and he visits Nottingham almost every year for the Robin Hood festival. I don't know where his interest started but he has great enjoyment just being involved in the legend and "history" of Robin Hood.

If you haven't seen the 1991 movie Robin Hood: Prince of Thieves starring Kevin Costner, Morgan Freeman, Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio, and Christian Slater don't bother, it's complete rubbish.

However, there is an interesting quote when Robin is speaking to Lady Marian, and she asks him how such an arrogant man could have changed so much. Robin says: "I've seen knights in armor panic at the first hint of battle. And I've seen the lowliest, unarmed squire pull a spear from his own body, to defend a dying horse. Nobility is not a birthright. It's defined by one's actions."

Today we see Jesus performing His first miracle at a wedding in the town of Cana. The Church has always considered this Gospel passage as the indication of the sacramentality of marriage. A sacrament is one of the seven privileged ways in which God reaches out from heaven and touches our lives. There are lots of important meanings in this short story from St. John's Gospel, but I would like to focus on just two.

The first is the fact that Jesus does not only bless this wedding, and by extension this couple, their guests and family, Jesus overabundantly blesses them. Not only is the wine the best anyone has ever tasted but there is so much of it. More than they could possibly, realistically, drink. It is estimated that Jesus made 180 gallons which is equal to 1000 bottles of wine. It is an expression of generosity. Generosity is one of the essential qualities of marriage. Each spouse is called to be a companion, a friend, willing to love the other even more than themselves, even more than life itself. Marriage calls for a generosity of spirit where we give all to serve, help, cherish, and love our spouse. In this story Jesus does not take, He gives, and He gives in abundance, He gives what is best not what is over, or secondary. If we do not give generously, completely, we run the risk of hiding away what is best, withholding what is necessary and essential. And what is best of ourselves is necessary for our marriages to be rich, overabundant, and whole, ample and even complete. Giving ourselves generously in marriage is essential.

The second point goes back to the quote above. Marriage requires nobility. Very often nobility is associated with aristocratic titles and honors. If that is what nobility is, we are better off without it. Nobility as it is properly understood has nothing to do with privilege and everything to do with character. Nobility cannot be given to you by another, it can only be given to you by yourself. Nobility is from within but makes itself known in action. Nobility is a way of being, a way of living, a way of treating others and it is how we choose to make our mark in life and on the world.

Nobility always stands for the good, the true, and fights for the oppressed and the suffering. Nobility does not ask others to do what you yourself won't do and nobility makes its stand even when that stand is alone and forlorn. Nobility is the character that is brave, self-sacrificing, and directed toward a life of purpose and meaning. The noble person serves and serves with honor and grace. A man, or woman, who says to another: "I will stand by you in sickness and in health, in good times and in bad, forsaking all others, I will love you and honor you all the days of my life," is a noble person. This is a noble way to live, and this way of life requires a noble spirit. Nobility is not an easy way to live but it is the best way to live. In marriage the noble person serves the other in love, forsaking all others, including themselves.

Fr. Ben's Column

Marriage is noble because it takes a willingness to be brave and courageous. Married people are noble because marriage requires courage and bravery – to enter together an uncertain future with conviction and hope. Marriage requires a willingness to "put out into the deep" not knowing what the future holds, and yet, a couple does so trusting in God and each other. Such a life, relationship, marriage, will produce abundant blessings and a wine that is unique, like no other, a life of abundance, the very best life possible.

A word of thanks from Fr. Ben

I want to thank all those who graciously sent me Christmas greetings and Christmas gifts this year. That was very thoughtful of you and very much appreciated. I also want to thank all those who have contributed to our Christmas collection, our weekly collections, and to our Victory Fund. The weekly collection is very important for our parish as it is the collection that really helps the everyday running of the parish continue. As you are aware we have seen a rise in the cost of living, inflation. This rise is definitely impacting us here at Victory especially as we have so many buildings to heat and light and the cost of heating and lighting have dramatically increased. If you have not been giving to the collection, please consider making a regular donation. It will help a lot.

School Tuition Announcement

At the recommendation of the Parish and Finance Councils, there will be no tuition increase for Our Lady of Victory school year 2022-2023. This year we have a school enrollment of 456 an increase in student numbers will help a lot in maintaining a reasonable tuition rate so, please, be recruiters for our school.

Tell the Pope what to do!

Pope Francis has called for a synod of the Church to take place in Rome in 2023. The Synod on Synodality is a two-year process of praying, listening, dialoguing, and discerning which will culminate in the celebration of the Sixteenth Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops in October 2023. Every diocese in the world will participate. Pope Francis said that the two-year process leading to the 2023 synod is not about “gathering opinions,” but “listening to the Holy Spirit.” Catholics are invited to participate in the process of the synod by participating in the preliminary gathering which will help prepare the documents for discussion. In our Archdiocese this dialogue will take place at the deanery level.

Our deanery is the St. Lawrence deanery and there will be an open meeting at Our Lady of Victory on February 24th, 2022 from 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM. If you can't make that meeting you might attend one of the other deanery meetings. A list is below. You can also check out the section on the Synod on the Archdiocese web page available at: <https://catholicaoc.org/synod> or follow the link on our parish web page.

It is not that often you get to tell the Pope what to do so don't miss your chance.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

1. Help is always needed to keep the interior of our church looking clean and welcoming. If you enjoy being active, are detail-oriented, hate dust and love streak-free windows, then this opportunity is for you! We are looking for parish volunteers to meet every Friday morning, after 8:30am Mass, to lightly dust, clean windows, straighten pew boxes, and touch-up vacuuming.

2. If you have a green thumb or enjoy working outdoors, consider joining the OLV Garden Club. This group keeps the parish grounds looking neat and well-tended. Keeping the flowerbeds beautifully maintained is a huge job on the campus of Our Lady of Victory, requiring the assistance of many volunteers! There are ongoing opportunities to maintain these flowerbeds throughout the seasons. I'm sure you've noticed how beautiful some of our flowerbeds look year-round but starting this spring we will need a few more volunteers to help in other areas. For more information on either of these opportunities, please contact Andy Spinney (513) 347-8819 or getinvolved@olv.org.

VICTORY FUTURES PROJECT UPDATE

In January 2020, Our Lady of Victory Parish began a strategic planning process for our development, stewardship, communication, and people engagement efforts. We completed an Initial Assessment in March 2020, and then the pandemic caused us to pause our planning activities. Beginning in February 2021, we resumed our efforts. Parish and school leaders identified the need to plan on how we can invite, involve, and engage more people into our faith community. Over the past year, we invited hundreds of parishioners to help us succeed with this planning. It was essential that parishioners participate in the process of identifying priorities, planning strategies for the attainment of these priorities, and help create a vision for OLV that will carry us forward as a community.

In August 2021, we created four teams from the original planning process to help implement these new processes, activities, and opportunities that are geared toward community input and people engagement. Since then, these teams have been working hard to help OLV succeed with this strategic plan. With the new year starting we will periodically update you on the Victory Futures Project and how their efforts will affect all parishioners.

As we move forward, communication is a priority for a thriving parish. Good communication provides clarity, directions, and increases engagement. Our website will communicate all messages from the parish, school, and all other parish organizations in a clear and thorough manner. Therefore, you will see a renovation of both the parish and school websites that will help our visitors access and navigate our website much easier.

As you know, volunteers are a very important part of our parish. As we look forward, we want to promote volunteer organizations and opportunities that make our parish so special. Did you know that we have over 50 ministries that consist of over 600 volunteer positions? These organizations offer a range of volunteer opportunities so there is something for everyone based on their interest, skills, and busy schedules. An assessment of every organization is presently taking place. Soon you will be able to see opportunities that may be right for you.

With a 23-acre campus, we all know the importance of maintaining and upgrading our fields and facilities which consist of 8 buildings, a playground for our preschool students, and numerous sports fields. A site development plan is being discussed so our community can maximize our efforts and allow us to enjoy this campus for years to come.

What makes Our Lady of Victory school such a dynamic place? What are our “WOW” factors? What are our Top 10 selling points? What separates us from any other school in the surrounding area? Through different ways, we intend to answer these questions so that OLV can continue to stand out as a beacon of high-quality education and use these “WOW” factors to continue building our faith community.

Through the Victory Futures Project, we have identified our priorities and are now starting the process of selecting the most important and achievable. Soon we will present a plan for each priority for the upcoming year. Our teams will continue to create the vision that allows our parish to flourish for many years to come.
