Lent – A time of preparation and training

Every summer, in the heat of the day and evening, I see kids on the football fields dressed in all the gear running plays. I often comment to coaches on the stamina and commitment the kids must have to undertake the strenuous training in such heat. It rarely seems to bother them. Similarly, I see children giving up their own time not only to compete in sports competitions but huge amounts of time to practice, running, cross-country, baseball, softball, basketball, volleyball, soccer, constantly running drills and plays. They practice over and over, and hone their skills, develop their physical stature, form themselves into a team. The same is true for other interests such as the musical, intellectual pursuits like special projects, music, chess, you get my point. Not only do parents support their children in these strenuous efforts they actively encourage them. Why? Because training, honing skills, developing expertise, brings success and they want to be winners. What's most amazing about this is the commitment of the children and, even more surprisingly, very few seem to think this level of commitment to training is odd, over the top, too much, or ridiculous. We see the same sort of effort, sacrifice, commitment and focus put into things like forming the body through fast, diet and exercise. Because it is a goal in life, we are willing to work, and even suffer and sacrifice, for our success.

The Holy Scriptures, both in the Hebrew and Christian Testaments, as well as many of the spiritual experts in our Church, speak of spiritual growth in similar ways. We are beings made up of body, soul and spirit and it makes sense that all these elements should have a part to play in our relationship with God. They can be formed to work with God's grace so that we can be who God wants us to be and live as God wants us to live. Penitential and spiritual practices for religious purposes make as much sense as do similar practices for human endeavors but while human endeavors come and go spiritual success is eternal.

Why Ashes?

On Ash Wednesday the faithful receive ashes. This is the ancient tradition of the Church and is the sign that we are entering a season of spiritual purification. It is a sign of conversion, sorrow for sin, and acceptance of God's will. The sign itself is a Biblical sign. We see examples of it in the Book of Jonah, Job, and even in the Gospels. In the funeral liturgy it is a sign of our mortality. The use of ashes as a sign was taken up by the ancient Church and was a sign of the human condition impacted by sin and penance. In this sign we outwardly profess our guilt before God and prompted by the hope that the Lord is kind and compassionate, patient and abounding in mercy, we express our desire for inner conversion and the reception of God's life-giving grace. God's grace is the ointment that brings back to life the soul turned to dry, dead, and life destroying ashes. The sign of ashes is also the beginning of a journey of conversion that reaches its goal in the celebration of the sacrament of reconciliation during the days leading to the great feast of life at Easter. At Easter, with Christ, we Rise from the Dead through God's gift of grace and life.

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday: Days of Fast and Abstinence

Only two days in the year remain days of fast and abstinence and they are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fast and abstinence means that able-bodied adults, in good health, between the age of eighteen and sixty are asked to have only one full meal (and two smaller meals) and refrain from eating meat on these two days. Fridays in Lent remain days of abstinence, meaning that those, in good health, between the ages of eighteen and sixty are asked to refrain from eating meat. There is no obligation to fast on the weekdays of Lent, but voluntary acts of penance and self-denial are recommended.

Some areas of fasting could include: candy, electronic/computer games, social media, alcohol, either total or partial (i.e. Not to use social media at all for Lent, or on certain days of the week, or until after 6pm in the evening).

We might consider doing extra things: Attending daily Mass, or an extra two Masses a week during Lent, or serve at the local soup kitchen, or say the rosary every day, give an extra donation each week to a charity, visit a relative in the nursing home, attend Stations of the Cross on Fridays.

MASS PROGRAM

FIRST READING

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants. If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head. "The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Ps 32:1-2, 5, 11

SECOND READING

Brothers and sisters, Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

1 Cor 10:31-11:1

GOSPEL

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once. He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them." The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.

OUR LADY OF VICTORY

Archbishop Schnurr sends his thanks to everyone from Our Lady of Victory who has pledged to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Appeal. If you have not yet made your pledge, please consider doing so this week. More than anyone in the world, the Catholic Church teaches, feeds, and heals. In our local community, this happens through the Catholic Ministries Appeal.

You will find extra pledge envelopes in the back of Church for your convenience this weekend. To make a donation online, please visit CatholicAOC.org/CMA

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament – St. John Bosco said: “Trust all things to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and to Mary Help of Christians and you will see what miracles are.” I am asking parishioners to consider signing up for Eucharistic Adoration. At Our Lady of Victory, we have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Monday’s (except holidays) from after the 8.30am Mass until 7pm. In order to maintain this devotion, we need people to sign up, so we have a continuous presence with the Blessed Sacrament. You can sign up for half an hour or an hour, and spend time with the Lord, praying for your intentions, your family, the Church, the world, the dead, or the living. This might be a great spiritual practice for Lent, or a great space to find time apart from the business of life and pray, reflect and rest in the Lord. We can maintain this devotion only if people are willing to be present. Contact the parish office at 513-922-4460 to sign up.

CHALICE FOR VOCATIONS

Once a month a family in the parish will be given the chalice at Mass and will keep it in their home with a promise to pray, as a family, for vocations, every day. The Johnson family received the Chalice for February. If you would like to volunteer your family for this devotion, please call the Parish Office.

REPARATION TO THE SACRED HEART

Reparation to the Sacred Heart is held on the 4th Wednesday each month at 7pm in the chapel. All are welcome! This month we meet on Wednesday, February 28th, in the chapel. Questions? Please contact Cyndy Hummer at chummer@fuse.net

HOLY HOUR FOR THE DYING

The Holy Hour for the Dying is held every Friday evening in the chapel. We are going to be meeting now at 6:30pm instead of 7pm. All are welcome! If you want us to pray for someone who is dying, please contact Cyndy Hummer at 513-922-4231 or chummer@fuse.net

GOSPEL

A man came up to Jesus with sores all over his body. He wore a hood over his head and a robe with long sleeves to hide his sores. He said, "If you want to, you can heal me." Jesus touched him and said, "I do want to. Now your sores are gone." Jesus said, "Do not tell anyone about your healing." The man was too excited to keep a secret. He told everyone he met.
