This Week @OLL...

The Life-Long Journey of Faith Formation continues!

Are there questions you have about the Catholic faith? Do you wish you could still have formation as an adult? Are you questioning how to form your children in the faith? This week's bulletin is for you! Check inside for enrollment information about our Parish School, as well as find adult formation opportunities, both on site and throughout the area.

May you continue to grow ever closer to our Lord as you learn more about His teachings each day!

A note from the pastor

Una nota del párroco

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Next weekend we kick off our annual observance of Catholic Schools Week! I'm blessed to have a leadership role here at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic School, where I regularly witness the awesome things happening in corridors, classrooms and conversations. Our students aren't just learning academic subjects, but they're being infused with Gospel values to build healthy relationships with others, with the world, and, most importantly, with God. Every educator has a list of humorous stories. Here's one I've brought with me from Sacred Heart Catholic School in Danville. Reflecting on the legacy of St. Joan of Arc, a little girl wondered aloud how she and Noah managed to fit so many animals into such a small boat! I was happy to report that Noah's ark was spelled differently and meant something very different. This story demonstrates a couple beautiful things about Catholic education. First, our kids learn to THINK. They learn to think critically, to make connections, and to use their imagination. Second, our kids THINK ABOUT FAITH. I suspect many kids in our community have never heard either of Noah or St. Joan of Arc. In Catholic schools, however, our kids reflect on the legacy of holy men and women, and look for ways to continue that legacy in their words and actions. Our Lady of Lourdes students will serve in several roles at each Mass on January 29 and 30. Please pray for them. God bless you!

Fr. Jonathan

Hermanos y hermanas in Cristo,

¡El próximo fin de semana comenzamos nuestra celebración anual de la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas! Tengo la suerte de tener un papel de liderazgo aquí en la Escuela Católica Nuestra Señora de Lourdes, donde regularmente soy testigo de las cosas maravillosas que suceden en los pasillos, las aulas y las conversaciones. Nuestros estudiantes no solo están aprendiendo materias académicas, sino que están siendo infundidos con los valores del Evangelio para construir relaciones saludables con los demás, con el mundo y, lo más importante, con Dios. Cada educador tiene una lista de historias humorísticas. Aquí hay uno que traje conmigo de la Escuela Católica del Sagrado Corazón en Danville. Reflexionando sobre el legado de Santa Juana de Arco, una niña pequeña se preguntó en voz alta cómo ella y Noah lograron meter tantos animales en un bote tan pequeño. Me alegró informar que el arca de Noé se deletreaba de manera diferente y significaba algo muy diferente. Esta historia demuestra dos cosas hermosas sobre la educación católica. Primero, nuestros niños aprenden a PENSAR. Aprenden a pensar críticamente, a hacer conexiones ya usar su imaginación. Segundo, nuestros hijos PIENSAN EN LA FE. Sospecho que muchos niños de nuestra comunidad nunca han oído hablar de Noé ni de Santa Juana de Arco. En las escuelas católicas, sin embargo, nuestros niños reflexionan sobre el legado de hombres y mujeres santos y buscan formas de continuar ese legado en sus palabras y acciones. Los estudiantes de Nuestra Señora de Lourdes servirán en varios roles en cada Misa el 29 y 30 de enero. Por favor, oren por ellos. ¡Dios te bendiga!

Fr. Jonathan

Volunteers are important!! The Human Concerns' ministry is always looking for more volunteers.

I promise you, if you volunteer for this ministry you will make great friends, work hard and have much fun.

Laura's Closet needs help on Mondays to sort, fold and hang the great donations that come in. Hours 9am to 11:00am. Tuesdays we help greeting people and helping them find clothing for their families. Hours 9am to 11:00am.

The Food pantry packs food in bags on Mondays and Thursdays to families in need.

In addition to these helpful ministries we want volunteers to help with the Thanksgiving Basket food drive and Jesse Tree. There are many tasks that need some training and work during the year not only in November and December. Please call me at 262-7315, ext, 6 and I will share the details. Thank you.

Front Office Volunteers: We receive many phone calls each day as well as parishioners coming to the office for various reasons. If you are looking for something to do where you can be of help to others please consider this. The shifts needed are Mondays and Wednesdays from 9am-noon and 2-4pm, as well as Fridays from 9am-noon. If interested call the office at 262- 7315 ext 6.

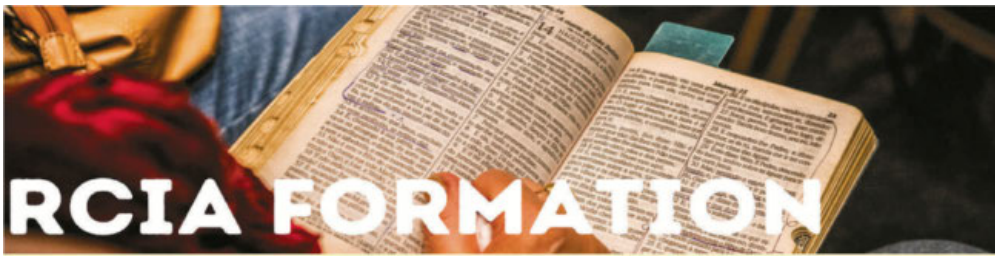

Please join us at the Beginning of Each Month:

FIRST FRIDAY & SATURDAY DEVOTIONS

Prayer is always needed!

Each First Friday you have an opportunity to pray with fellow parishioners here at Our Lady of Lourdes. We meet in church at 6:00pm. We will meet on January 4. We begin praying the Angelus at 6. We then pray the beautiful and powerful rosary. We conclude by 6:30pm.

You can continue praying on the first Saturday of each month. Please join us on January 5th. We pray the rosary from 9am to 9:30am. 9:30am to 10:00am confession is available. 10:00am we attend Mass. These are wonderful ways to begin every month.

RCIA FORMATION

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE!

Looking to brush up on your Catholic Faith? Here's your chance! Our RCIA formation classes are open to the general public. Please come with all questions, concerns, and curiosities!

All classes meet in the Fisher Memorial Library, Sundays at 3pm
