Everyday Stewardship

When I think about the story of the Samaritan woman at the well, I think of my father.

years ago, my father was one of those elect. That year, the story was more powerful than ever.

The woman went frequently to the well looking to get the water that

This Gospel reading that we use every year for the First Scrutiny of the RCIA was always my favorite to discuss with those who would be baptized in just a few weeks at the Easter Vigil. Not that many would sustain her body. But in the story, Jesus tells her of a different kind of water, one that gives life and quenches even the driest of thirsts. The story tells us that she put down her water jar and ran to the town telling of her encounter with the One who may be the Christ. She left that jar at the well. She did not need it anymore.

I encounter people all the time that spend their days going up the hill to draw water. They are tired and spent. My father was one of those. But with the gift of baptismal water, that constant chore is now over. There is no need to travel up that hill.

This Lent, if you are one of the baptized, reclaim the gift of your baptism. Stop climbing that hill in search of something that can only quench your thirst temporarily. You encountered Christ and have the everlasting, living water already. Put down that water jar. Your new life has only just begun.

Coronavirus and Safety

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) website recommends the following precautions at home:

Wash hands at the door and then regularly

Avoid touching a person's face and cover your mouth if you cough or sneeze

Disinfect doorknobs, tables and handrails regularly

Increase ventilation; open a window if possible

The same website details precautions in the workplace, especially handling food, meetings and travel; safety in schools; commercial establishments (into which customers go); crowds; transportation. If you wish to view their website for yourselves, go to www.cdc.gov/coronavirus.

St. Roch was a saint commonly asked to pray for victims of the plague. Many of them were healed.

Prayer to St. Roch

O Blessed Saint Roch,
Patron of the sick,
Have pity on those
Who lie upon a bed of suffering.

Your power was so great
When you were in this world,
That by the sign of the Cross,
Many were healed of their diseases.

Now that you are in heaven,
Your power is not less..

Offer, then, to God
Our sighs and tears
And obtain for us that health
we seek
Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

(Repeat the following 3 times)

Saint Roch, pray for us,
That we may be preserved
From all diseases of body and soul
