Our Lady of Mount Carmel Buckeye Lake

 Mass at St. Leonard

Dear fellow parishioners, this weekend we begin the month of Our Lady. In the “hierarchy of heaven” she is venerated in a level all her own.

Before we go further, we must look at the act of veneration itself.

The word is derived from the Latin verb, venerare, meaning “to regard with reverence and respect”. Veneration of saints is practiced, formally or informally, by adherents of some branches of many religions, including Christianity, Judaism, Hinduism, Islam, and Buddhism.

Veneration is about reverence and respect not worship! The latter belongs to God alone as adoration and glory belong by right to God (see Revelation chapter 4). There is nothing contrary to the adoration of God when we offer appropriate honor and recognition that God-created persons/beings deserve based on achievement in excellence as this reflects the glory of God that He bestows in His creatures.

In Catholic and Orthodox Churches, veneration is shown outwardly by respectfully bowing or making the sign of the cross before a saint's icon, relics, statue, by going on pilgrimage to sites associated with saints, holy ones and/or holy places. The practice of veneration, as stated above, is also practiced in other faiths as they hold that there are those who were significant teachers or practiced great sanctity or holy places that should be honored and revered in a significant way.

Not all veneration is the same. According to Catholic teaching, there are three levels of veneration: latria (highest level reserved to God alone), dulia (all other inhabitants of heaven) and a middle level, hyper-dulia (reserved to Mary alone). Within the dulia level, there is also a hierarchy of celestial beings which is another whole study!

There is an important distinction we need to make between “adoration” and “veneration” and that is about “worship”. Worship is declaring in word and/or deed the greatness of someone or something and giving it proper honor and is not fully synonymous with either adoration and/or veneration. Catholic sources will sometimes use the phrase “worship of adoration” to differentiate honorable acts towards God and “worship of veneration” as honorable acts towards Mary and/or the saints. Yes, this can be confusing... but remember “adoration” belongs to God alone while we can venerate other holy beings.

So, why do we honor/venerate Mary? First, she is the Mother of God. Second, there are three dogmas specifically about her: Immaculate Conception (absence of the original sin, by God grace), Perpetual Virginity (before, during and after Jesus’ birth) and her Assumption (body and soul taken into heaven at the end of her earthly life). We can venerate/honor her as well because all graces are afforded her by God to be given freely to each of us which makes her the “Mediatrice of All Graces”. And she personally intercedes with her Son, Jesus Christ, for those of us in her charge. So, honoring and venerating Mary does not detract from worshipping God, it actually enhances it. And I very glad about that!

Let us pray for each other. Know that you are in mine always.

Easter peace and blessings, Fr. Bill.

PSR Classes will end on May 2nd for this school year. Thank you to all of the teachers who have helped to make this year successful in the midst of a pandemic.

Tentatively, we will begin the 2021-22 year on September 12th so mark your calendars. On that note, I am looking for willing individuals to help with the teaching of classes next year. If you are interested, please call the parish office’ and leave your name and phone number so I may reach out to you. As a reminder, all volunteers working with children must complete the Protecting God’s Children workshop and have a BCI background check.

“Living the Joy of the Gospel,” This weekend is the start of the Bishop’s Annual Appeal. Please prayerfully consider a gift in support of the Appeal, which makes possible many ministries and programs that benefit so many in our diocese. Our parish goal this year is $ 28,094.17. We invite you to make your pledge by filling out the front of the envelope that was mailed with your contact information. Be sure to indicate the name of the parish to which you designate your gift. On the right side of the front of the envelope, please indicate the amount of your gift. For example, if you are making a pledge of $120, write $120 on the ‘total gift’ line. If you are paying money now, write the dollar amount enclosed on the line marked ‘paying now.’ Please do not include credit card payments on the ‘paying now’ line. Calculate the balance and indicate this amount on the ‘balance’ line. Please specify your preferred payment schedule, up to ten monthly payments, and check the months you wish to receive a pledge reminder statement. You also have the option of paying your pledge by electronic funds transfer via checking account or by using a Visa or MasterCard. We are informed weekly of new gifts made electronically on behalf of our parish. If you wish to exercise this option, check the box marked ‘credit/debit’ then provide the necessary information requested on the inside flap of the pledge envelope. Again, we encourage you to fill out and return your pledge envelope as soon as possible. We hope that each of you will be able to make a gift of $400.00 or what you can pledge this year. Please understand that no gift is too small! All gifts are needed and appreciated. Let us strive for 100% participation.

Liturgy Corner

By Sally Oldham

I was a little apprehensive traveling to Florida, but when you only see your sister twice a year, you take a leap of faith. Of course, when I was seated in the plane, I began my prayer for the flight crew and the pilots. Then when the plane began its ascent, I began my rosary and when I got off the plane, there was my sister. I talk to her weekly but to see her made all the difference in the world.

Family! For most of us, it is people who love and support you. I know it is not the norm for some. I am also glad I have all my siblings still alive, which is also not the norm either. After your parents have gone to their heavenly home, it feels a bit empty, but I know they are only a prayer away.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel is a family, too. We are joined not only to express our faith together, but to do good things for our community through St. Vincent de Paul, our Food Pantry, and our everyday activities. Our faith does not stop as we leave the church, it continues as we meet and greet others throughout our day and week.

We will be asked to help support this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal. I know that OLMC opens their hearts and is truly generous in their pledges each year. We gain a lot, by giving, as we are helping the diocese, the seminarians and even our own Parish. You are the Church. You are loving and caring people. May we all do our share by participating, even if it is a small pledge. We are a family of God. God bless us one and all.

Inspiration for the week

Anyone familiar with gardening knows that proper and timely pruning is essential. The health of the plant depends upon it. An unpruned tree can quickly produce suckers that zap many of the essential nutrients from its body. Pruning requires patience and vision. Studies reveal that plants often respond defensively to being pruned, displaying reactions that are similar to hurt or discomfort. Pruning is not easy but necessary. A hard lesson for us to learn is that we also need to be pruned. We become far healthier when we allow God to stretch, refine, and form us into the best version of ourselves. The fruit that then comes from our vines will be more abundant, nutritious, and robust. Left to our own devices we can easily find ourselves running amuck and spiraling out of control. Without a proper vision and trust in the Master Pruner, we will never find the contentment we desperately desire. Nor will the work of the Gospel stand a chance of succeeding.

Prayer is the bridge between panic and peace.

Real Presence, Real Future reflections: Are you Bearing Fruit?

Dcn. Jesus (Jesse) Figueroa Jr., St. Mary Magdalene Parish & RPRF Commission Member

The Glory of God manifest itself to produce fruit in abundance. When we are connected and intentional about our relationship with God, we produce the fruit God is cultivating within us. We must stay firmly attached to the vine. As Disciples of Christ, we must stay firmly connected to Him and take action. We must pray and listen to God’s word and share with others His message of love. This brings strength, nourishment, and energy from the vine. We are then connected and bearing fruit. It is God who does the work in us, our fruit bearing is all because of Him.

The Power of Prayer

STEPHANIE RAPP, DIOCESAN HOPE TASK FORCE

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." (Jeremiah 29:11).

God has a plan for you and he wants to give you the gift of hope! This gift is one that enables us to trust in His promises and His grace. It keeps us from discouragement, sustains us in times of abandonment, and opens up our heart in expectation for eternal beatitude. (CCC 1818). As Catholics, we know that the future always holds hope, made possible by our Lord Jesus Christ who saved us!

Jesus is the reason for our hope and He continually loves and pursues us, inviting us to be in a relationship with Him. We respond to this invitation by spending time with Him in prayer.

Prayer is how we communicate with our Lord and is foundational for our relationship with Him. It is through prayer that we can share our whole selves with Him, including our doubts, fears, joys, sufferings, and dreams. Prayer is also where we humble ourselves before Him, confident in His faithfulness and knowing that no matter what we are facing personally, as a family, or as a society, we can always turn to Him with open hearts ready to receive Him and His gifts.

"To Christians, the future does have a name, and its name is HOPE.

Feeling hopeful does not mean to be optimistically naive and ignore the tragedy humanity is facing. Hope is the virtue of a heart that doesn't lock itself into darkness, that doesn't dwell on the past, does not simply get by in the present, but is able to see a tomorrow."

Pope Francis

There are many different ways that we can encounter our Lord in prayer such as:

- Offering our day to Him
- Praying the rosary or Divine Mercy Chaplet
- Simply repeating the name of Jesus
- Contemplating & meditating on Scripture
- Praising Him through worship music
- Spending time with Him in silence
- Praying for or with others.

But, regardless of how we pray, we are always connecting with God, and He will use these intimate moments to nourish the seeds of hope within us.

Therefore, let us persevere in prayer as we look forward to the future, and may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace!

Stephanie Rapp is a wife, mother of three, and serves as the Diocesan Director of Marriage & Family Life.

Reflect

- Do you spend time with the Lord every day? Do you pray daily? How can you make daily prayer a part of your life?
- What types of prayer speak to you and bring you hope? What types of prayer are you interested in learning more about?
- Who can you be praying for - or with? Who around you is in need of hope?

For me,
prayer is a burst
from my heart,
it is a simple glance thrown towards heaven, a cry of thanksgiving and love
in times of trial as well as in times of joy.
