JANUARY 23, 2022

Dear fellow parishioners,

This is the fourth installment of the Eucharistic Prayers for Various Needs. In it is a reminder of Jesus coming with the purpose of showing compassion for those who need it – including us:

Eucharistic Prayer for Various Needs IV: Jesus, the Compassion of God

You sent Jesus Christ your Son among us as redeemer and Lord. He was moved with compassion for the poor and the powerless, for the sick and the sinner; he made himself neighbor to the oppressed. By his words and actions he proclaimed to the world that you care for us as a father cares for his children.

Lord, perfect your Church in faith and love together with Francis, our pope, [the whole order of bishops], priests, and deacons, and all those your Son has gained for you.

Open our eyes to the needs of all; inspire us with words and deeds to comfort those who labor and are burdened; keep our service of others faithful to the example and command of Christ.

Let your Church be a living witness to truth and freedom, to justice and peace, that all people may be lifted up by the hope of a world made new.

In this prayer there is an optional response after each paragraph (as above) for the people: "Unite us in love, holy and faithful God." This response is what should be our intention – always.

The compassion spoken about Jesus by His words and actions is reflected in the Gospel passage today:

Jesus returned to Galilee...where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He...was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah... and found the passage where it was written:

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.

... [When] He sat down... the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him. He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

So, what does that mean for us? Well, go back again to "we are the body of Christ". St. Theresa of Avila says the same in her "Christ has no body" quote. It is up to us to fulfill our part/s and St. Paul's passage stating we are part of the many parts/one body and each part is important, eye, hand, foot, ear... all belong and all are affected when one part ails. This can be seen with the effects of the current pandemic. Not just for individuals, but for the whole community, country, world. Compassion for some folks may seem to be wearing thin – but think of your relationship with God. Would you keep showing you the compassion and love God does for you as you do (or not) for God and/or His children as your friend?

Let us pray for each other this week as we begin our Ordinary Time. Know that you are in mine always.

Peace and blessings, Fr. Bill

THANK YOU! HVALA LJEPLO! MERCI BEAUCOUP! MUCHOS GRACIAS! MAHALO, NUI LOA!

I want to thank everyone who sent cards, well wishes, gifts for the past holy season. I am very appreciative of your thoughts, prayers and kindness. So, my heartfelt thanks to you – always know you are in my prayers. Everything will be put to good use! Peace and blessings to you and yours – Fr. Bill Hritsko.

St. Vincent DePaul is looking for volunteers

SVdP wants to thank all those who contribute financially to our conference here at OLMC. Due to your generosity we are able to help those in our area who would be evicted. We help them when they are threatened with electric, gas or water disconnection. We help those who need food, clothing or furniture. We help those who are temporarily stranded.

We could not do all the above without your financial help but we also need volunteers to accomplish our task. Consider donating your time and talents to a wonderful organization.

Thanks, Ruth Crabtree

Liturgy Corner

Sally Oldham

Have you noticed that some people are really suffering during this prolong siege of Covid and all its variants? I know that it, plus all the things going on medically with Jerry, can be just too much to deal with. But, the one thing I know is that God has blessed me and is with me through it all. In all the time Covid has come, we have had to deal with so much. Our lives changed overnight. Wearing a mask seems almost normal now....of course, it is still not comfortable. Somehow, too, it effects your hearing—or it does mine. I know some normally happy people are having problems. They are angry. Some people are angry they are being told to wear masks and get vaccinated. Many are angry because people are putting others at risk by not wearing a mask or getting vaccinated. Many are angry because they feel locked up, not able to go out and do what they normally would....going to a store, a restaurant, church, etc. Now is the time to stop. Let's lighten up! Feel God's light upon us!

Let us all think about the things that God has given us. I have been blessed because Jerry is still with me. I have a family who surrounded me during this time. My brother, Fr. Mike came to the hospital, the house and gave me hope. My sister, Judy, came up from Florida to be with me when Jerry came home. My sister, Darlene, brought my niece, Judy, over to help me clean, get Christmas up and down. God helped them help me. He has allowed me to do what I had to do without getting COVID myself. So I am asking us all to have more patience with each other, to really look for God's blessings through it all and to try to tune into God's plan for us.

Prayer in Times of Anxiety and Fear

*Let nothing disturb you, Let nothing frighten you,
All things are passing away: God never changes.
Patience obtains all things. Whoever has God lacks nothing;
God alone suffices.*

St. Teresa of Avila wrote this beautiful poem and is used as a prayer.
