GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Lectionary: 155Reading I 1 Kgs 17:10-16

In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath.
 As he arrived at the entrance of the city,
 a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her,
 "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink."
 She left to get it, and he called out after her,
 "Please bring along a bit of bread."
 She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives,
 I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar
 and a little oil in my jug.
 Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks,
 to go in and prepare something for myself and my son;
 when we have eaten it, we shall die."
 Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid.
 Go and do as you propose.
 But first make me a little cake and bring it to me.
 Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son.
 For the LORD, the God of Israel, says,
 "The jar of flour shall not go empty,
 nor the jug of oil run dry,
 until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth."
 She left and did as Elijah had said.
 She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well;
 the jar of flour did not go empty,
 nor the jug of oil run dry,
 as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

R. (1b) Praise the Lord, my soul!
 The LORD keeps faith forever,
 secures justice for the oppressed,
 gives food to the hungry.
 The LORD sets captives free.
 R. Praise the Lord, my soul!
 The LORD gives sight to the blind.
 The LORD raises up those who were bowed down;
 the LORD loves the just.
 The LORD protects strangers.
 R. Praise the Lord, my soul!
 The fatherless and the widow he sustains,
 but the way of the wicked he thwarts.
 The LORD shall reign forever;
 your God, O Zion, through all generations. Alleluia.
 R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

Reading II Heb 9:24-28

Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands,
 a copy of the true one, but heaven itself,
 that he might now appear before God on our behalf.
 Not that he might offer himself repeatedly,
 as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary

with blood that is not his own;
 if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world.
 But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice.
 Just as it is appointed that human beings die once,
 and after this the judgment, so also Christ,
 offered once to take away the sins of many,
 will appear a second time, not to take away sin
 but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

Alleluia Mt 5:3

R. Alleluia, alleluia.
 Blessed are the poor in spirit,
 for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mk 12:38-44 or 12:41-44

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds,
 "Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues,
 and places of honor at banquets.
 They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers.
 They will receive a very severe condemnation."
 He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.
 Many rich people put in large sums.
 A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.
 Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them,
 "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury.
 For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth,
 but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had,
 her whole livelihood."

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Creator God, life is your gift to us. Through Baptism, you invite us to share in the gifts of our lives in service to others. Be with us each day as we choose to show Your presence in the world. Give us the courage and generosity to respond to Your love, to Your call. We pray especially for those who serve you as priests, brothers, sisters, deacons, and lay ministers. We pray for holy matrimonies. Keep them close to You. Open the minds and hearts of other men and women that they may accept Your challenge to build the Kingdom. Amen.

PRAYER TO
ST. JOSEPH

O Saint Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires.

O Saint Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession and obtain for me from your divine Son all spiritual blessings through Jesus Christ, Our Lord, so that having experienced here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of fathers.

O Saint Joseph, I never weary of contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms. I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him in my name and kiss His fine head from me, and ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, patron of departing souls, pray for me. Amen.

#GIVINGTUESDAY

November 30, 2021

St. John School is excited to participate in this year's #igivecatholic campaign on Giving Tuesday! Through the generous donations in past years, we have been able to purchase equipment and furniture for our classrooms. This year, we are hoping to raise $10,000 toward playground equipment for our new campus at Cardome. We are so grateful for the support of our community in helping our school become the best it can be for our students. Be sure to mark your calendars to help us meet our goal on Giving Tuesday! More info to come!

CAN YOU EXPLAIN WHAT WE MEAN BY A VOCATION OR CALLING? I HAVE HEARD THIS TERM USED IN MANY DIFFERENT CONTEXTS AND AM NOT SURE WHAT IT MEANS. DOES IT APPLY TO RELIGIOUS LIFE?

A vocation or calling refers to a spiritual experience whereby a person senses within oneself the closeness of God and what he is asking in one's life. It is a realization of what one's part in God's plan could be. Vocation comes in all kinds of ways. Some are as dramatic as St. Paul's, being knocked off his horse, blinded, and hearing God's voice. Others are less dramatic, often occurring over time through little events and personal interests. Others happen in a hurry, accompanied by great spiritual insight or conversion. We often think that this applies to religious vocation, but in fact, every Christian has a vocation, a calling to serve others in and through the church. Whether married or single, religious or lay, we are all called to live out our baptismal commitment to preach and teach the Gospel message. Each of us has our role to play in God's plan, and we become coworkers with God in the work of redemption. With a little confidence, a willing spirit and God's grace, we can and will respond to his unique call.

2021 Diocesan Annual Appeal

The Diocese of Lexington's Annual Appeal is a visible expression of our unity as the Body of Christ. Each donation to the fund is a sign that we believe in the Gospel message to "love one another as I have loved you" [John 15:12]. It is an affirmation of our belief that "faith without works is useless" [James 2:20].

It demonstrates that we believe that whatever you do to others, you do to Jesus.

Gifts to the Diocesan Annual Appeal fund are distributed via a grant process, and provides vital support for parishes, missions of parishes, Catholic schools, outreach ministries and diocesan-wide programming. The areas receiving funding are transforming lives of Catholics and other members in our community through acts of service and we need your help.

We are still in a time of great uncertainty but the one thing we do know that we share a unity and communion that makes us One in Christ. We are unified in our commitment to serve all churches and communities in our 50 counties, spanning from the Bluegrass to Appalachia.

As brothers and sisters, we walk alongside those in need and provide many avenues of care.

Please prayerfully consider sharing your blessings with others in our region who need it most. Your generous offering enhances our ability to provide for the physical and spiritual needs of persons who are vulnerable and in need.

We are one Body, united in Christ.

Life is truly a journey...and sometimes the way is rough. Whether it's a loss of employment, kids worrying the heck out of you, a spouse who is sick, or any other challenge or loss, sometimes it's helpful to have a companion. We naturally turn to trusted friends, but sometimes we worry about burdening a friend or feel that we might have to put life together in their way or time. Wouldn't it be nice to have an "ear" that doesn't judge – that has no agenda or timetable, someone who can keep a confidence – just to not be so lonely while working things out? Someone who trusts God – but also trusts you-- to work your situation out in your own time? That's what Stephen Ministers do – they respectfully join you in your journey, listening and offering confidential support and encouragement. Need a companion for your journey?
