Please call the office to add/remove names.

Do you know of a parishioner that is in the hospital, a care facility or homebound?

We often do not know when someone is in the hospital or that they are in a nursing home or assisted living facility unless the parishioner or a family member contacts us. The parish sick and homebound ministry visits those that are homebound or in a care facility, and brings Holy Communion from Lay Ministers. It is important that you let us know where you are or that you would like us to visit you. Even if it is only temporary due to chemotherapy/medical treatments, rehabilitation, or if the need is long term, contact Beth to set up weekly visits from the parish.

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) Carole Samperton—

Do you wonder what's involved in joining the Catholic Church? Are you a member of another religion and want to know what it is that Catholics believe? Is your spouse or friend a faithful Catholic whose way of life and peace of mind impress you? Want that same sense of fulfillment? Are you a Catholic who has never received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation? Please contact the RCIA team. We are also in need of sponsors to walk this journey with our candidates and catechumens. More information can be found on our website: <https://www.seaschurch.net/RCIA>

UPCOMING EVENTS

On the Weekend of August 26/27, our parish will host The Good Shepherds of Bethlehem. This company offers religious articles made of olive wood from the Holy Land. The artisans who produce these products in the Holy Land have maintained this family tradition for years. Many of them suffer difficulties in selling their products due to the political situation and the adverse conditions of tourism in recent years. The religious articles are very beautiful. Father Arturo's Last Supper olive wood piece which was recently on display in the church was purchased from The Good Shepherds of Bethlehem.

"And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light." Through the grace of Jesus, your marriage can be transformed. Join us on the next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Experience on Nov 3-5, 2023 in ATLANTIC BEACH, NC and Sep 22-24, 2023 in Herndon, VA. Early sign up is recommended. For more information visit our website at: <https://NCMarriageDiscovery.org> or contact us at applications@NCMarriageDiscovery.org or 704-315-2144.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Youth Minister: Holly Scott Sujack
910-912-9014 / holly.scott-sujack@seasfay.org

ATTENTION YOUTH!

Our next HSYM summer social activity is scheduled for Saturday, August 19, 2023 at Carowinds!

This event is open to all incoming Freshman through Seniors. Teens need to arrive at the parish by 7am, and we will be returning between 8:30 and 9pm.

Please RSVP and turn in signed permission slips no later than Monday, August 14th.

For more information and to purchase your tickets, visit <https://www.carowinds.com/>.

We will be at the park for both lunch and dinner, so please take a look at adding the meal plan options, as these are typically a great deal over buying meals individually!

Did you know???

The flowers in the sanctuary or the flowers in Mary's grotto, can be donated in honor or memory of a loved one. Call the office for more information or to schedule.

PLEASE BE AWARE-if you receive a text message or email that appears to be from Fr. Arturo asking for money, gift cards, etc. , please DISREGARD and DELETE it is a scam! The requests can appear genuine.

If you have received a scam email or text and you are not certain it is legitimate, please call the office before responding to any communications.

AN OFFERING OF TIME

Volunteers who share the gift of their time help make our parish a more vibrant community. Volunteering brings together the faithful, creating new relationships and forming lasting friendships. Working together we have the opportunity to support the physical needs of the parish, as well as supporting the spiritual and physical needs of fellow parishioners and our brothers and sisters in Christ in the local community. Please consider sharing your time and talents with St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish. Our website has several examples on how you may become involved, or you may contact Beth O'Leary, our Parish Life Coordinator.

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Parts of the Liturgy of the Eucharist

What is the Liturgy of the Eucharist?

As the General Instruction for the Roman Missal teaches, "At the Last Supper Christ instituted the Paschal Sacrifice and banquet, by which the Sacrifice of the Cross is continuously made present in the Church whenever the Priest, representing Christ the Lord, carries out what the Lord himself did and handed over to his disciples to be done in his memory. For Christ took the bread and the chalice and gave thanks, broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Take, eat, and drink: this is my Body; this is the chalice of my Blood. Do this in memory of me.' Hence, the Church has arranged the entire celebration of the Liturgy of the Eucharist in parts corresponding to precisely these words and actions of Christ, namely:

- At the Preparation of the Gifts, the bread and the wine with water are brought to the altar—the same elements, that is to say, which Christ took into his hands.
- In the Eucharistic Prayer, thanks is given to God for the whole work of salvation, and the offerings become the Body and Blood of Christ.

Through the fraction and through Communion, the faithful, though many, receive from the one bread the Lord's Body and from the one chalice the Lord's Blood in the same way the Apostles received them from the hands of Christ himself" (GIRM, 72).

The Parts of the Liturgy of the Eucharist

For an in-depth summary of the parts of the Liturgy of the Eucharist, we turn to the Catholic Encyclopedia:

"The Liturgy of the Eucharist, the essential part of the sacrifice, includes: the preparation of the altar; the preparation of the gifts: bread, wine, and water are brought to the altar ([and in many places] the money offerings or offerings for the poor), [typically] the offertory song is sung during this preparation; the priest washes his hands; an invitation to prayer is prayed by the priest. There follows the Eucharistic prayer, which is a prayer of thanksgiving and sanctification and the center of the Eucharistic celebration. It contains: the preface, expressing thanksgiving in the name of the entire people of God; the acclamation or sanctus (holy, holy, holy), which is recited by the priest and people or sung, the Eucharistic prayer; the invocations for the Church, the epiclesis; narration of the institution and consecration of the bread and wine in the words of Christ; the fulfillment of the command given by Christ to the Church to carry on this mystery of the sacrifice, called the anamnesis; the offering of the victim to God the Father in the Holy Spirit; the intercessions for the living and the dead and for the faithful present; the final doxology, and concluding Amen" (Catholic Encyclopedia, Thomas Nelson Inc., Nashville, 1976, p. 197).

Now that is a table of contents! Although this listing may seem complex, we'll be taking each section one at a time, breaking it down so we can understand the importance of each part in the Mass and its importance for us. As we journey through the parts of the Liturgy of the Eucharist, remind yourself that these pieces all serve a grand purpose: our pathway to the true presence of Christ on the altar at Mass!
