Fourth Sunday of Easter
John 10:11-18

"I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep."

When Jesus told the parable of the "good shepherd" he was speaking to people who knew there were also not-so-good shepherds and bad shepherds.

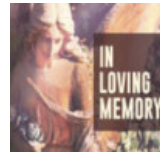

The good shepherd was with his sheep twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. He lead his flock to food and water and protected them from danger, thieves and predators.

When Jesus compared himself to the "good shepherd" his disciples understood he was telling them he cared for them and would give his life for them. He made it clear that he freely chose to be their good shepherd. The blood stained cross and the empty tomb that we remembered during Holy Week and Easter Sunday are proof that Jesus is our "good shepherd." Do we freely choose Jesus to be our good shepherd? Do we appreciate all that Jesus has done to shepherd us? Do we listen for His voice in prayer? Do we trust in Him to care for us and protects us? How do we demonstrate our faith in Jesus as our good shepherd?

"Breaking Open the Word" is an adult formation group that meets every Thursday at 6:45 PM in the youth center. You are invited to join them in 2024 as they will explore the "The Mass Explained Video Series". Dr. Brant Pitre has created over 50 videos covering the Biblical, Traditional, and mystical meanings of the words, ceremonies, languages, gestures, postures, orientation, music, and signs of the Roman Catholic liturgy. From the Ancient Church through the Medieval Church, from the Council of Trent through Vatican II, explore the practice, purpose, and development of the Holy Mass. No registration is necessary and you do not have to attend every session. The sessions end promptly at 8 PM. All are invited.

Please remember those who have died especially John Claude Guidry and Shirley Hebert Marcel. May they share in the glory of eternal life. May their family and friends find consolation in their faith.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS THOSE WHO ARE ILL OR IN NEED OF PRAYERS

our Shut-ins, the homeless, the unemployed, those in our parish community who need physical, mental, emotional, or spiritual healing, all the deceased members of St. Bernadette parish and Angela Beaudry, Mike LeBlanc, Jr., Barbara Henry, Rissa Duplantis, Marlene LeRay, Kirk Duplantis, Ronnie Carrier, Earl Thibodaux, Addie Williams, Mary Jo Hebert, A.J.
