Pope Francis Wants to Hear From You!

The Holy Father is asking for as many of the baptized as possible to participate in archdiocese-wide meetings taking place in January and February, 2022, to discuss how we can collectively better advance the message of salvation. Please consider participating in one of the 12 scheduled meetings. To learn more and to sign up, please visit www.catholicaoc.org/synod.

Catholic Education Foundation (CEF) Tuition Grants

The Catholic Education Foundation for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati is now accepting K-8 tuition assistance grant applications for the 2022-2023 school year. The application period will run from now through February 6th, 2022. Please go to www.catholicbestchoice.org for more information and/or apply at <https://factsmgt.com/>.

Youth Ministry

What is the mission of your ministry?

Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we seek to ignite a love of Christ in the young people of our parish. We do this through the Sacraments, the engagement of parents, and walking with youth in the world. We provide opportunities for a deeper participation in the life, mission, and work of the Catholic Church through a focus on vocation, both universal and personal.

How did you personally get involved in this ministry? What excited you most about leading this ministry?

In my early days as a parishioner I was invited to become a volunteer with the youth ministry program at the parish. That was seven years ago. When the job became available in 2018, the Lord called me to apply and I said, Yes.

Tell us how your ministry helps lead others to a closer relationship with Christ.

There are fewer and fewer places in the world where kids can be kids, and youth ministry is one of those places. Christ invites us to be ourselves in our relationship with him. At youth group, we point to where Christ is already working in and through each of us.

What are some events coming up in your ministry?

Nearly every Wednesday night we have Game Night 7-9 PM in the Fr. Jan Room. This is open to students in grades 6-12! Most Sunday nights we have high school youth group and dinner 6:45-9 PM in the York Room. A full calendar of events can be found on the parish website!

How can someone get involved in your ministry?

Youth are welcome to just show up! They should bring a completed release form, which can be found alongside the calendar on the website!

What's the best way to contact this ministry?

Email Melissa at mcapella@smoy.org with any questions.

Merry Christmas!

Welcome to St. Margaret of York in this most wonderful time of the year! Christmas is a time of homecoming for many who have moved out of town. Welcome home! Since Christmas is a time of families coming together to celebrate our Savior's birth, we especially notice the absence of those who have died. So, we pray for those who mourn the loss of their loved ones. And we pray for the eternal rest of those loved ones. We can be thankful to Jesus, our Savior, whom we are celebrating, that he gives us the hope of knowing death does not have the final word. He was born on Christmas to make a gift of self in His suffering and death in order to conquer death itself. In Christ, we are no longer separated from our loved ones, but live in the communion of Jesus Christ with the hope of seeing them again. This hope is real and kept alive by remaining active in our Faith, especially encountering Jesus regularly in the Sacraments.

The Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, is a holy day of obligation, January 1st. There is no better way to start off the New Year than encountering the Living God in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the context of the community of faith. We will offer a vigil Mass on December 31st at 4:30 PM, and then 8:30 and 11:00 AM on January 1st. Since it is New Year's Day, a time for family gatherings, we will not have a 4:30 PM vigil on Saturday, January 1st for the Epiphany.

Speaking of Epiphany, as usual, we will offer the blessed chalk for the Epiphany blessing of homes next weekend. The words of the blessing will be in next week's bulletin.

The Christmas Season continues until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord on January 9th. Will your decorations last until then? May your family continue the celebration of our Savior's birth with great joy. Thanks again for your prayers. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

Merry Christmas!

Food Pantry Ministry

Your generosity abounds. This year both the Kings and Loveland LIFE pantries each received 15 carloads of items delivered by volunteers. Alongside monthly prayer, parishioners organized service projects, commercial donations of: meat, oral care items, and an industrial fridge/freezer. The donation boxes near the Parish Office were handcrafted by L. Rogers. May the Lord continue to bless you as you have blessed our neighbors.

January Item of the Month

Oral care items are ineligible for purchase using SNAP benefits. In January pantries strive to provide clients with a brush/paste. We advertised the same in Jan 2021 and toothpaste was subsequently donated every month last year. Thank you!

ITEMS OF THE MONTH: toothbrushes, paste, floss, denture tabs

These and all non-perishable donations can be left in the box opposite the Parish Office and will be delivered to the Kings and Loveland LIFE pantries. Volunteer: To deliver, email Lindsey at lindseygalles@gmail.com

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Stewardship Ties

There is a lot of imagery around Christmas that has to do with adoption – or, more specifically, with a child being loved by another as if they belonged to that person and loved in such a profound way that in time, they do come to belong to that person.

We see this with Joseph and the infant Jesus. Joseph is not Jesus' biological father. But through a series of actions, and through his faithfulness in small, everyday matters, Joseph becomes the foster father of Jesus.

Perhaps we are parents who have adopted children, or we ourselves were adopted. We have also seen how, through a series of actions of love and sacrifice, someone can become the parent of a person who is not their "blood." A lot of times these families celebrate the day of the adoption. I've heard it called a "gotcha day," and it's marked joyously, like a birthday.

Most of us are not descended from the Israelites, God's Chosen People. But through a series of extraordinary actions of love and sacrifice, God has made Himself our parent, too. And through our own actions, and through faithfulness in small and everyday matters, we are His children.

But in this family, instead of blood ties, we have stewardship ties. It's not about who we look like, it's about how we treat one another. How we take care of one another.

So this Christmas, let's think about how we will celebrate our adoption. As much as it is Jesus' birthday, it's also our "gotcha day" – the day we received the gift of eternal family..

– Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

MERRY
Christmas

St. Stephen | Feast Day December 26

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. A man filled with grace and power, he worked great wonders among the people. Some Jews debated with St. Stephen but could not match his wisdom and spirit. Eventually, a charge of blasphemy was brought up against him, and the local population demanded that he be tried and sentenced. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin.

Despite the danger he faced, in front of the Sanhedrin and his accusers, St. Stephen gave a long speech about the history of Israel and the blessings that God had given upon His chosen people. He talked about how Israel had become disobedient despite God's abundant mercy. This enraged his accusers, and eventually the crowd dragged him out of the city and stoned him to death.

Even in his final moments, St. Stephen displayed great forgiveness and even asked God not to hold the sins of his attackers against them. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow.

Catechetical Corner

Q&A

Coming Back to Church

Question:

I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer:

If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back. This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be.

Christmas Book

For all the unprecedented changes we have seen in the past few years, the essential human questions are still the same.

Who am I? What do I want? Is there a point to my life?

More than likely, you have a nagging feeling, a yearning to understand your place in the cosmos. You wonder. You question. You explore. Welcome to the human story. Welcome to The Search.

The Search unflinchingly tackles the core questions of life, examining the many options you have and the many signposts that point you to potentially life-changing answers.

Whether you are a keen inquirer or a jaded skeptic, The Search will speak to you. You may be reassured by some parts and challenged by others. Either way, you will find a lot here to think about. And when all is said and done, these life questions demand to be answered.

Are you ready for The Search?

This book is our Christmas gift to you. It will be available at the Christmas Eve and Christmas Day Masses. Please, one per family.

St. Thomas Becket | Feast Day December 29

Not many saints can be relatable to our times, but St. Thomas Becket (December 21, 1118 – December 29, 1170) is one of the few. King Henry II, a good friend, made him chancellor of England at the age of 36. Then, despite St. Thomas Becket warning the king that he would not blindly follow his wishes, he was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury in 1162.

Soon after, King Henry insisted upon seizing Church rights. In the name of peace, St. Thomas Becket came close to a compromise, and momentarily approved the Constitutions of Clarendon, which would have denied the clergy the right of trial by a Church court. But he later rejected this, and for his safety fled to France where he remained in exile for seven years.

Although returning to England meant almost certain death, St. Thomas Becket came back. According to historical accounts, King Henry implored, "Who will free me from this troublesome priest!" St. Thomas Becket was later murdered by four knights in his Canterbury Cathedral as he was praying. For his part in the murder, King Henry performed public penance after St. Thomas Becket's canonization.

Baptism Prep Classes

All sacraments require preparation. Baptism Prep Class is for expectant parents who want to have their child baptized. (If your child is already here, congrats. We will still help you prepare for their Baptism with this class.) Once you have completed the paperwork from the class, you will be able to set the date for your child's Baptism. Baptism prep is required for additional children if it's been 4 or more years since your last class or there is a change in pastor. Contact: baptism@smoy.org to sign up for a class. Please provide your phone number when signing up. You can register for the class anytime during your pregnancy.

Retrouvaille: A Lifeline for Marriages

Retrouvaille offers a welcoming and loving space for couples who have been living with difficulties in their marriage. Retrouvaille offers hope: hope that it is not too late, and the hope of a different and better marriage. Retrouvaille helps couples to listen, to forgive, to be reconciled, and to move into a better future believing that God loves them and with His help and their efforts, their marriage can be healed. The next program is January 7-9, 2022. For more information about the Retrouvaille programs call 513.456.5413, or to register visit the website, helpourmarriage.org.
