From the Pastor's Desk

Fr. Bedel

Beloved in Christ,

I know that many of you have children in high school who will likely go to college. I also hear that college in this country is usually very expensive. So, for Catholic Schools Week, I want to share with you a well-kept secret I learned on my sabbatical. Evidently, costs for college in many places in Europe are a fraction of costs here in the USA for various reasons. This is the case at the University of Navarre, where I studied Spanish. There are about 100 American students paying a fraction of what their friends back here in the states are paying. I had such a positive experience at the University of Navarre, I would like to share with you more of the secret:

- Taking advantage of available technology, students can enjoy free video chats, even on a daily basis, with mom and dad back home using things like Zoom, What's App, Facetime, etc. Meanwhile, their friends at local universities fairly close to home may rarely call home because they are "just up the road."
- A simple internet search shows that Pamplona has a crime rate that is "practically nonexistent." This is consistent with my experience. I found it to be a very safe and livable college town.
- Most important to me, the university is faithfully Catholic. Every building on campus has an oratory (chapel) with the Blessed Sacrament reserved. They are open for prayer and a robust liturgical schedule. Because of these things, they made the Newman Society's website: <https://newmansociety.org/college/university-of-navarra/>
- Check out the university's website: unav.edu for information on their wide range of academic degrees, sports, clubs, and campus life in general.
- Finally, your young graduate will return home fluent in Spanish, which can be super beneficial to the résumé and future earning potential as use of the Spanish language continues to grow in our country.

In my experience, all the international students are already fluent in English. The faculty is certainly helpful and the students seem to help each other with note taking in the first several weeks as they are grasping the Spanish language more and more. The intensive Spanish course I took could also be a help with this. By the way, the campus is about 60% women and 40% men.

A happy Catholic Schools Week to you! Thanks for your prayers. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

God bless,
Fr. Bedel

Journeying Together:

THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATIONS OF BEACONS of LIGHT

BY FATHER EARL FERNANDES

INTRODUCTION

Beacons of Light is a multi-year process of pastoral planning for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati which seeks to help our parishes carry out the mission of evangelization. It will have a major impact on the people of the archdiocese and on parishes, which will be grouped together into "Families of Parishes." In this essay, I will attempt to offer a theological foundation for this process, beginning with a description of the Church as the Family of God.

The Second Vatican Council rightly calls the family the domestic church, stating: "From the wedlock of Christians there comes the family, in which new citizens of human society are born, who by the grace of the Holy Spirit received in baptism are made children of God, thus perpetuating the people of God through the centuries" (Lumen Gentium, 11).

Individual "domestic churches," drawn together by the Holy Spirit, form parishes, which the Code of Canon Law (c. 515) describes as "a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular church, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a pastor... under the authority of the diocesan bishop," who erects, suppresses or alters parishes.

Every diocese is divided into distinct parts to foster pastoral care through common action (cf. CIC, 374). At times several neighboring parishes can be joined together within a diocese, such as when a deanery is formed. A particular church is erected by the Pope himself, which reminds Catholics in each diocese that they are united to the universal Church and remain in communion with Catholics around the world, united with the Pope.

Our archdiocese is a portion of the People of God which is entrusted to a bishop, who acts as a shepherd, with the cooperation of his priests and the People of God. The bishop gathers the People of God in the Holy Spirit through the Gospel and the Holy Eucharist (cf. Christus Dominus, 11; CIC, 369).
