Q&A

Should a Catholic Pursue an Annulment

Question:

After a civil divorce, is a Catholic obligated to pursue an annulment?

Answer:

Many Catholics are not exactly sure what an annulment does. An annulment does not deny that a marriage took place, nor does it deny that there once was love. It does not mean that people say anything untrue, such as they never loved each other or that everything in their marriage was wrong. An annulment does not negate children, nor make them illegitimate. An annulment addresses the spiritual aspect of marriage. In effect, an annulment says that at the time of the wedding, there was either something present or something absent that prevented the sacrament from taking place. It is a spiritual determination that, if granted in the affirmative, allows a person to marry in the Church.

Annulments have no legal standing and are unable to be used in a civil court. Therefore, a Catholic has no moral obligation to pursue an annulment. However, when the tragedy of divorce occurs, and there is no hope for reconciliation, annulments may help bring some spiritual closure to a person's life. Some people have found the process to be healing and others have found it to be difficult. Speak to your priest or a member of the Diocesan Tribunal staff to decide what is best for you..

St. Patrick | March 17

Whether you know him as the man who brought Christianity to Ireland or simply as a reason you eat corned beef and cabbage in March, St. Patrick (415 - 493) is a well-known saint around the world.

St. Patrick was born in Britain of a Romanized family. At the age of 16, he was kidnapped by Irish raiders from the villa of his father, a deacon and local official, and brought into slavery in Ireland. He spent six long years there as a herdsman, during which he turned to his faith for strength. He later escaped back to Britain on a ship, where he was eventually reunited with his family.

His years of captivity changed him and brought out a zeal for God and a yearning to spread the message of Jesus Christ. Despite the constant danger of martyrdom, he continued to travel throughout Ireland where he baptized and confirmed in the name of Christ.

From the Pastor's Desk

Fr. Bedel

Beloved in Christ,

It's Lent, the time of significant spiritual growth, and all our excuses for being icy in the spiritual life are melting away. Here's why:

Our Lenten parish mission begins today at 7:00 PM. Please plan to bring the family back for Truth Over Trend with Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers at 7:00 PM Sunday through Wednesday. An online version is also available.

The feasts of St. Patrick and St. Joseph are later this week on Thursday and Saturday respectively. Of course, Holy Mother Church holds up these saints before us as heroic examples of living Christian virtue. I invite you, as a Lenten practice, to read up on these saints and consider how to imitate their heroic example. Here is a starting place with links to endless information:

- catholicsaints.info/saint-patrick/
- catholicsaints.info/saint-joseph/

And not only do we have their heroic example, but they also intercede for us as they look upon the face of our Heavenly Father.

St. Patrick and St. Joseph, pray for us!

Be a saint! What else is there? Thanks for your prayers. Be assured of my prayers for you.

Blessed Lent,
Fr. Bedel

Journeying Together:

THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATIONS OF BEACONS of LIGHT

BY FATHER EARL FERNANDES

PNEUMATIC AND MARIAN FOUNDATIONS

At the baptism of Christ, the voice of the Father was heard and the Spirit descended over Him like a dove. This same Spirit, which was poured out on the Apostles at Pentecost, has been poured into our hearts in baptism. The Holy Spirit introduces order (1 Cor 12:1-20) amid diversity of members and charisms in the Body of Christ so that members work together for the good of the whole Church (1 Cor 12:14-31). Each member is given some manifestation of the Spirit in view of the good of the body. The gifts of the Spirit are gathered in the Church, where members serve and listen to one reciprocally. The Church understands herself as a collective “we” in prayer, liturgy and discernment.¹³

The Spirit, who is at the core of this ecclesial “walking together,” also overshadowed Mary, Mother of the Church and the model of discipleship, who lived this journey in a privileged way. Although the Spirit was operating from the dawn of creation, in the fullness of time (Gal 4:4) a qualitative leap was made in salvation history. By the Holy Spirit, Mary conceived the Word of God, who, in turn, was given as a gift to humanity. Mary and the Spirit “journey together” from the Annunciation through Pentecost.

If, in the economy of salvation, the Holy Spirit represents the condition of possibility for the self-communication of God in Jesus on the part of the Divine, then Mary, with her fiat, represents the condition of possibility of this communication on the part of humanity. Through her attentive listening and openness to God, she fulfilled her mission in bringing Christ into the world. She demonstrates the characteristics of living this journey. She journeyed with and in the Trinity, willingly receiving the love of the Father, bearing the Son within her womb, and becoming a temple of the Holy Spirit. The Mother of God is a model for all disciples and an icon of synodal life, reminding us of the universal call to listen attentively to God with an openness to the Spirit.¹⁴

Next Week: Ecclesiological Foundations

¹⁴ LG 64; AAS 57: 64. The Council stated: “The Church indeed, contemplating her hidden sanctity, imitating her charity and faithfully fulfilling the Father’s will, by receiving the word of God in faith, becomes herself a mother. By her preaching she brings forth to a new and immortal life the sons who are born to her in baptism, conceived of the Holy Spirit and born of God. She herself is a virgin, who keeps the faith given to her by her Spouse whole and entire. Imitating the mother of her Lord, and by the power of the Holy Spirit, she keeps with virginal purity an entire faith, a firm hope and a sincere charity.”

Notes from Honduras

For the last several years, the weekend before Ash Wednesday, St. Margaret of York collects donations to help provide food for the children at Home of Nazareth School in Honduras. Last year was the first time the collection helped feed the parish of St. Joseph the Worker. (Home of Nazareth School is in this parish.) COVID has devastated this small country. Father Sevilla said many people are living on the streets, including some students and their families.

In Honduras, many parents of students are begging on the streets for a bit of money for food. People that have a job often find themselves feeding an extended family and neighbors. Sadly, many elderly folks are alone and have no family to help them.

Students at Home of Nazareth are fed a meal each school day. The students pray before each meal and always remember the people at St. Margaret of York.

I am thrilled to share that because of you, $3,575.66 was collected after all the Masses last weekend! A huge sum of money.

Thank you for all the volunteers and especially the folks that dropped donations into the baskets!

If any of you are interested in knowing more about Honduras or sponsoring a child, please contact me at t7mcnulty@gmail.com.

Blessings,
Tracy McNulty

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

The Resurrection and Spiritual Hangriness

I want to talk about being hangry. I'll give you a quick description of hangriness, though I warn you, it doesn't come from the Oxford English Dictionary. Hangriness is when you're so hungry you get angry. You turn into a real piece of work. You can't get anything done and you're probably not a joy to be around, at least until you grab a snack. Everybody gets this way sometimes.

We can be this way in our souls, too. It's so easy to get distracted by the hungers of this world: greed, pride, anxiety. We can become ruled by the needs of our bodies and the desires of our mind and, in doing so, neglect the needs and the desires of our souls.

Everyday stewardship calls us to a constant reflection on the truth that we are not made for this world, as Christ clearly shows us in his Transfiguration. He reveals himself in his heavenly glory, just before he is going to be deprived of all earthly needs and wants – even his very life. He shows us that this is what we were meant for. This is what we are striving for.

Lent exists to remind us that we are not made for this world. When you become spiritually hangry – or as Scripture more eloquently puts it this week, when your mind is "occupied with earthly things" – turn your thoughts to the Transfiguration. I promise you, it's even better than grabbing an energy bar.

– Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
