Q&A

Tithing vs. Stewardship

Question:

What is the difference between tithing and stewardship?

Answer:

Both tithing and stewardship are part of a spiritual way of life that calls us to use all of our resources for the service of the Gospel. Everything we are and everything we have comes from God. Offering back to God what He has given us is part of how we worship and give thanks to God.

Tithing is the practice of giving back 10 percent of what we earn. It comes from the Old English word for "ten." The first Scriptural example of tithing came from Abraham who gave a tenth of his possessions to the priest Melchizedek. He did so as an act of thanksgiving to God.

Stewardship as a way of life calls us to use well all that we have and all that we are, placing all things in service of others and God. Stewardship helps us see the good we can accomplish by making God and our spiritual life the most important values in our life. Whatever we accumulate in this life stays here. We can't take it with us! Both tithing and stewardship help us remember that nothing is mine or even ours ... all belongs to God.

St. Benedict the African | April 4

St. Benedict the African (1524-1589), was born in San Fratello, Sicily to Cristoforo and Diana Manas-seri, Africans who had been taken as slaves. Some accounts claim that because of his parents' loyal service that Benedict was given his freedom at birth, other sources say that his freedom was granted when he turned 18. At 21 Benedict joined a society of hermits living under the rule of St. Francis of Assisi. Eventually he succeeded his friend, Jerome Lanze, as their leader. When the Pope disbanded the independent hermit society, Benedict joined the Order of Friars Minor and he was sent to Palermo, to the Franciscan Friary of St. Mary of Jesus. There Benedict worked in the kitchens and despite being illiterate and a lay brother (not a priest), he also served as Master of Novices, and as Guardian of the Community. St. Benedict was known throughout his life as a brilliant cook under whose hands food seemed to multiply miraculously, a healer, and a spiritual leader with profound understanding. He is recognized as the patron saint of African Americans.

He is recognized as the patron saint of African Americans.

From the Pastor's Desk

Fr. Bedel

Beloved in Christ,

Please keep our eighth graders in your prayers this Monday and Tuesday as they participate in a two-day forum on leadership at Camp Joy. I will be there to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass on Monday evening.

This coming Saturday is the retreat day for our Elect and candidates for full communion in the Catholic Church. Please keep them in your prayers that they will continue to be strengthened by the Holy Spirit as they get closer to the sacraments of initiation at Easter. Welcome home!

In the coming weeks, we may hear some people say things like: "Lent ends at the beginning of the Mass of the Lord's Supper the evening of Holy Thursday." While this is technically true, it does not mean that our Lenten observances end. We would actually live them better and take them more seriously during the last few days before Easter known as the Paschal Triduum: From the Mass of the Lord's Supper, all of Good Friday, and all of Holy Saturday until the Easter Vigil Mass.

In that same vein, the liturgical books remind me to remind the faithful with some words from the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council: "Pastors should remind the faithful of the paschal fast which should be observed everywhere on Good Friday and continued, where possible, on Holy Saturday. In this way, the people of God will receive the joys of the Lord's Resurrection with uplifted and responsive hearts."

Thanks for your prayers. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

Blessed Lent,
Fr. Bedel

Cana Family Institute: Strong Catholic Marriages & Families

The Cana Experience is specifically designed for parents of young children, to help them live their vocation to marriage and parenthood in all its fullness. I personally participated in both the Created and Called and the Temperament God Gave You programs. I joined Created and Called when my oldest was entering kindergarten as I wanted to make sure that, through the chaos of parenting, our faith was always central in our hearts and in my home. Not only has Created and Called formed me into a better wife and mother, but also a more faithful disciple of Christ with a deeper love for my Catholic faith. I still meet regularly with my Cana sisters as we continue to support one another on our journey in faith. I am passionate about this ministry as I have seen first hand the fruits it bears. A strong community built on faith with steadfast love and support is what every family needs as we navigate this world together with the common goal of strengthening our relationship with God.

To join a group, register online at <https://canafamilyinstitute.com>.

The Temperament God Gave You

Discover how understanding temperaments will develop in us greater compassion and communication skills, equipping us to more effectively encourage, motivate and strengthen our spouse and children. Learn how temperaments affect our spiritual life and how to use this information to grow closer to God. The Temperament God Gave You is an 8-session small group experience based on the book The Temperament God Gave You by Art and Laraine Bennett. Groups meet twice monthly January through May. Registration begins October 1st.

Created and Called (Mother's Group)

Join a group with other moms who want to renew and refresh their energy for their family. Sessions include a reflection on a Gospel passage and church teachings, followed by a conversation on 2-3 principles that are directly relevant to marriage, parenting, and family life, and conclude with a resolution to implement. The four years are consecutive as each builds on the previous one. Each program is 15 sessions and meets twice monthly from September to May. Registration begins April 1st.

Everyday Stewardship

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Make a Way

What's your comfort zone: emotionally, professionally, personally? We all have one. But did you realize that you can have one spiritually? Think about what you like and what you don't particularly enjoy when it comes to church, prayer, and liturgy. We all have "those songs" we crinkle our noses at, either because they're too modern or too old-fashioned. We all have "those people" in our parish whose ideas we aren't so sure about, whether that's because they're trying to change too much or because they seem always to be looking toward the past. Also, when was the last time you sat on the OTHER side of the church during Mass?

As much as we may not want to admit it, even (and especially) as people of God, we get deeply attached to our own personal comfort zones — and we tend to view those outside with distrust.

But what if God had a comfort zone? What if He viewed us, in our sin and our misery, as too "far away" from Himself to reach? Thankfully, our God is a God who "opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters." Our God is a God who does "something new."

The call to stewardship demands that we look outside of ourselves. Our thoughts, our opinions, our preferences — these things are not important to the steward. Even if there is a vast, dry desert of discord, or a seemingly endless wasteland of opposing views between us and our neighbor, God challenges us to "make a way" out of our comfort zone, that together we may announce His praise.

The Kreidler Family Educational Gift

The Kreidler Family Educational Gift is an annual award that recognizes an active St. Margaret of York youth parishioner who lovingly reaches out to others in the name of Christ. This youth is a current or incoming high school student who demonstrates a willingness to serve others at SMOY and the community at large. Each year, SMOY's Pastoral Council will accept applications for this educational gift. The amount of the gift is $1000 and, when awarded, shall be applied directly towards tuition expenses for a Catholic high school. The gift is nonrenewable, but may be awarded to the same St. Margaret of York youth parishioner a maximum of four times.
