Catechetical Corner

Q&A

Daily Prayer Versus Mass?

Question:

I have a friend who says she doesn't need to attend Mass because she prays to God every day. What are your thoughts on this justification?

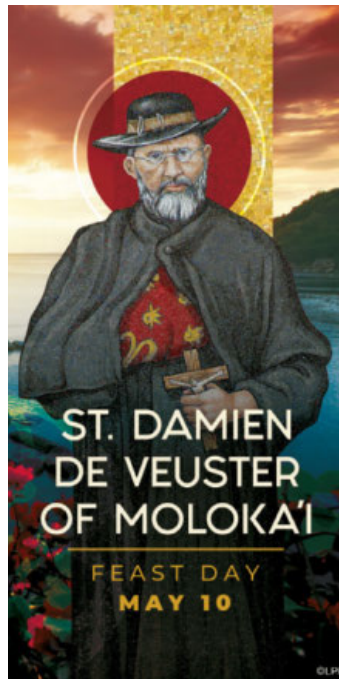

Answer:

If the only reason for going to church were to talk to God, your friend might be right. Prayer is not something limited to a physical place or even a holy place. If the sole purpose of the Church were prayer, it would be a narrow purpose indeed. The Church is a community of believers, formed by "one Lord, one faith, one Baptism." It is an outward sign of our faith in God instituted by Christ, and the purpose of the Church is to give us grace, that is, a share in God's life.

Coming to Mass is not really for God's sake, but for ours. If we believe that Jesus is truly present in the holy Eucharist, then we will want to be in his presence. We will want to be fed by him. Our daily prayer and good works are strengthened by our authentic encounter with our Lord. For Catholics, it is at Mass that we celebrate the source and summit of our faith. If this is true, why would we ever stay away?

St. Damien de Veuster of Moloka'i | May 10

People may be familiar with leprosy from Biblical times, but not so much in the 1800s. However, St. Damien de Veuster of Moloka'i (January 3, 1840 – April 15, 1889) would eventually shed a light on the effects of this devastating disease and allow people to see those afflicted with it with more compassion and love.

Born Joseph de Veuster in Tremelo, Belgium, he quit school at 13 so he could work on the family farm. Feeling called for more, however, he entered the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary six years later, where he took the name of a fourth-century physician and martyr. His brother, a priest from the same congregation, fell ill and was unable to go to his assigned location. Damien quickly volunteered in his place and found himself on the Hawaiian Islands in 1864. Two months after arriving, he was ordained a priest of Honolulu and assigned to the Island of Hawaii.

In 1873, he visited the Hawaiian government's leper colony on the island of Moloka'i, where he petitioned to stay permanently to care for their physical, medical, and spiritual needs. After years of working to improve their location and those who lived there, he contracted Hansen's disease and died of its complications. St. Damien was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI on October 11, 2009.

From the Pastor's Desk

Fr. Bedel

Beloved in Christ,

Happy Mother's Day to all the moms!

Today is World Day of Prayer for Vocations. All of us have a vocation. But before our minds go in a hundred different directions with images of vocation, what does "vocation" mean? It means God calls us to be His own. And being God's own is the best definition of "holiness." We belong to Him. Vocation means we are called to live as his chosen sons and daughters. As we are faithful to Him in our vocations, we usher in His Kingdom and He sets us up for eternal communion with Him, sainthood. Yes, we are all called to be great saints.

Most people are called to the vocation of married life. We need to hear more often that marriage is holy. Spouses are faithful to this calling when helping each other get to Heaven is the primary focus. And most married couples are blessed with God's gift of children thus giving spouses a second vocation as mother and father. Before Easter, we had our parish mission. The line I remember best from Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers was when he said we would meet God after death and He would ask: Where are your children?

I imagine this line was striking for most parents hearing it. It was also for me as spiritual father. So, we see that no matter if we are called to marriage, holy orders, religious life, or the chaste single life, we are created to answer a call to holiness and help those around us answer the call to holiness. How are you doing in living your vocation and helping others to answer their vocations?

Be a saint. What else is there?

Thanks for your prayers. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

Happy Easter!
Fr. Bedel

BEACONS of LIGHT

Beacons of Light is a process of comprehensive pastoral planning for our third century of faith in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. The planning and implementation within each Family of Parishes, under the leadership of each pastor, will unfold over the next several years. Parish Families were announced in December 2021 and our parish will be united with our neighbors St. Columban as a parish family. In February, our Parish Family Pastor and Priests were announced. Totus Tuus

June 20-24, 2022 | Grades 1-6 | 9:00am-2:30pm
June 19-23, 2022 | Grades 7-12 | 7:00pm-9:00pm

Totus Tuus, Latin for "Totally Yours," is a week-long summer catechetical youth program that combines Catholic religious instruction and having fun! A team of college-age students and seminarians come to the parish to lead. The youthfulness and energy of the teachers is an inspiring way to share the faith and their enthusiasm is contagious, so come out and join us. The day includes catechetical instruction on our theme - the Virtues and Beatitudes and Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary, songs, and skits that are silly but teach the faith, encounters with the sacraments, particularly Confession and the Eucharist, and time for games and recess. For teens, those entering 7 - 12 grades, a teen program of Totus Tuus covers more in-depth discussions on our theme and is held in the evening. Visit: smoy.org to register.

It's time to pass all the SMOYFest keys to the next group of SMOY parishioners ready to take on festival planning. The current chairs are stepping down after the 2022 SMOYFest and are ready to train the next group of wonderful volunteers to take over. But we need you, our amazing parishioners to volunteer now and become part of the planning committee in order to take over for 2023. Please take time to consider stepping up to allow SMOYFest continued success! Contact Tammy or Chris O'Rourke for more information and look for upcoming details about the next planning committee meeting. orourkeville@gmail.com or smoyfest@smoy.org.

Thank you for your past, present, and future support to make SMOYfest a successful event.

Register for Parish Religion Program

Registration for our Parish Religion Program (PRP) is now open! The St. Margaret of York Catholic Church Parish Religion Program assists the parents (the primary catechists) in the faith formation of their children to know, love, and serve Jesus. All parish children in grades 1-8 are expected to attend one of the following:

- Online PRP
- Sunday PRP, September - April
- Family Faith
- Enrolled in the Parish School

Children are required to have 2 years of religious education to receive a Sacrament. Preparation for Confirmation requires an additional component from our standard religious education programs during the Sacramental year. Any questions or concerns please contact Courtney Brown | cbrown@smoy.org

Baptism Prep Classes

All sacraments require preparation. Baptism Prep Class is for expectant parents who want to have their child baptized. (If your child is already here, congrats. We will still help you prepare for their Baptism with this class.) Once you have completed the paperwork from the class, you will be able to set the date for your child's Baptism. Baptism prep is required for additional children if it's been 4 or more years since your last class or there is a change in pastor. Contact: baptism@smoy.org to sign up for a class. Please provide your phone number when signing up. You can register for the class anytime during your pregnancy.

2023 Mass Intention Book

Please look for more information on the 2023 Mass Intention Book in July. As our priests have returned to celebrating Masses at local retirement homes, additional 2022 intention opportunities at SMOY have become available. If you would like to schedule a Mass intention for 2022 please contact Jacilyn Jackson at jjackson@smoy.org or 513.697.3109.

Liturgical Ministry Volunteers for 5:30pm Mass Needed

We are in need of more volunteers at our 5:30pm Masses. We are looking for additional Extraordinary Ministers, Lectors, Ushers, and Sound Techs. Please contact the parish office if you are interested in assisting with any of these ministerial roles. Phone: 513.697.3100
