13º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La Pascua se ha ido, las solemnidades especiales también, nuevamente iniciamos el Tiempo Ordinario. Tiempo de reflexión en las enseñanzas de Jesús para su seguimiento al discipulado. "Hemos sido llamados por Dios y llamados a permanecer con Jesús, unidos a él. Es precisamente la 'vida en Cristo' lo que garantiza la fidelidad de nuestro servicio. Contemplantarlo, adorarlo y abrazarlo en nuestro encuentro con Cristo en la Eucaristía, en nuestra vida de oración, en nuestros momentos de adoración, y también reconocerlo presente y abrazarlo en las personas más necesitadas (Papa Francisco).

"Los zorros tienen cuevas y las aves tienen nidos, pero el Hijo del Hombre ni siquiera tiene donde recostar la cabeza" (Lucas 9:58). Seguir a Jesús, implica caminar con él sin cosas que nos impidan ver su camino. Empezar el viaje con Jesús en este Tiempo ordinario, será todo un reto. El Señor nos llama a cada uno a seguirlo de acuerdo a la vocación que hemos elegido. Una firme determinación es esencial. Se espera, que, no seamos cristianos del pero no estoy listo, pero cuánto tiempo debo servir, pero tengo muchas limitaciones. Ojalá, que el Señor nos ayude a ser valientes y decididos con esa libertad alegre de la que nos habla Pablo, en su Carta a los Gálatas. Servirnos unos a otros con amor. Para vivir dignamente el cristianismo, no bastan las ideas. Hay que llevar a cabo los hechos, que aunque pequeños, si salen del corazón, son la expresión de fe y seguimiento a Jesús. ¿Listos para la aventura de seguir a Jesús en este Tiempo Ordinario? ¿Está mi determinación firme a pesar de mis dudas?

Urgent Prayer Request

Dear Brothers and Sister in Christ and in Domestic Church,

One of the many beautiful ways that the Holy Spirit works through Domestic Church is in bringing our community together in a time of need. Our dear Michael and Erin Franco, who are from Baton Rouge and who currently serve as the Regional Couple for Region 5, which includes the state of Louisiana, are in need of our community's help.

On Thursday, June 16, Michael and two friends (Sean Harrison and Jeffrey Trufant) were flying in a small plane, taking aerial photos of a summer camp in the mountains of North Carolina. Toward the end of their flight, the plane became unresponsive and crashed in a wooded area on the outskirts of the camp. Miraculously, all three survived, though they were all very badly injured. Michael and Sean had to be air-lifted to Greenville Memorial Hospital in South Carolina, and Jeffrey is at a hospital in Asheville to be treated for his injuries. Michael suffered a number of severely broken bones and internal injuries, and he now faces a long process of treatment and recovery including multiple reconstructive surgeries. He and Erin have five young children and are expecting their sixth. Michael will be at Greenville Memorial hospital in Greenville, SC, and Erin will be with him for the duration of his stay, which will be until Friday at the earliest. Their five children are at home and being cared for by family and by DC members.

Michael is self-employed, and the financial weight of this tragedy (medical bills and Michael's inability to work) will be a major burden for them. So, please consider a generous gift so they can focus completely on Michael's recovery and the well-being of their family!

Here are two ways to help financially: We have a GoFundMe set up as well as a meal train link. The meal train link starts now in order to aid those who are caring for their children, and our hope is to make it available through when Michael and Erin are home.

Vicar General and Chancellor

Question:

I have seen the title of Vicar General and Chancellor used in our Catholic newspaper. Who are they and what do they do?

Answer:

A bishop is in charge of a diocese and appoints people to help with its administration. Two of those positions are the Vicar General and the Chancellor. Both play a role in the life of a diocese, despite the many jokes priests may tell at their expense! A chancellor is the archivist of a diocese, charged with task of keeping the records of the diocese. Often a bishop may add other responsibilities and the chancellor may end up being like the executive director of the diocesan office. The chancellor does not need to be a priest.

The vicar general is a priest, appointed by the bishop and acts in the name of the bishop in administering the diocese. He has an advanced degree in canon law or theology. He also has executive authority within the diocese. This means that he is involved in the day-to-day pastoral and temporal administration of the diocese. Canon law does not allow a bishop to appoint a relative to the position, nor the priest in charge of the sacrament of penance. In both cases, the purpose of the law is to avoid conflicts of interest.

Saint of the Week

Saint Oliver Plunkett was the last Roman Catholic Martyr to die in England. He was canonized in 1975, the first new Irish saint in almost 700 years.

Oliver was born in Loughcrew, Oldcastle, County Meath in November 1625, the son of the Baron of Loughcrew. As a young man, he wanted to become a priest, but it was illegal to travel to the continent to enter seminary. Even so, he undertook the dangerous journey with four other young men and a Papal Envoy. They were pursued by English privateers, storms at sea, and robbers on land. However, Oliver entered Rome in 1647, and was admitted to the Irish College. He was an excellent student and was ordained on January 1, 1654. Oliver remained in Rome, studied law and served as chaplain at Spienza University, ministered at Santo Spirito hospital, and cared for the poor and ill. By 1657 he was a professor of Theology and later of Apologetics or Controversies at Propaganda College.

The 1650s were a difficult time for Catholics in Ireland, the majority of population, as Cromwell passed many penal laws against them, and the practice of Catholicism was banned. During this time Oliver was appointed by Irish bishops to be their agent in Rome. Following the Restoration of Monarchy, Pope Clement IX appointed Oliver Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland 1669. Oliver returned to a country where the Catholic Church was in disarray and divided. He had to travel largely incognito and perform his duties in makeshift locations. He is credited with unifying the Church and in traveling across the eleven dioceses under his purview, confirming thousands, and ordaining several priests.

In 1673 persecution of Catholics was again on the rise and bishops were banned. Oliver went into hiding, but in 1679 he was arrested and charged with treason. He was hanged, drawn, and quartered at Tyburn in July 1681. Before his death he publicly forgave those responsible.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Luke 9:51-62

GOSPEL

Jesus knew that following him would not be easy. He could have made a lot of money. He could have had a beautiful home and a family to enjoy it with. Instead, Jesus chose to walk from town to town, teaching people about God. He gave up having nice things so that he could stay focused on God's work. That's what he asked his disciples to do, too.

PRAYER

Dear Jesus, thank you for giving up so much, so that I could grow close to God.
