Fifth Sunday of Easter

Theme: Christian Joy Tempered by Trials

Human beings cannot live without joy. If life consisted only of funerals without weddings, only of work without recreation (a party, a show, a vacation), the burden of human existence would be unbearable for most of us. However, expecting too much joy from life is also dangerous because it easily results in disappointment. Friends may tell us enthusiastically about a new movie in town: “You must see it!” We look forward with great anticipation to it and finally get to see it. In most cases, we come away sorely disappointed by it! Similarly, at every wedding, the mother of the bride sheds a tear of joy but it becomes a tear of sadness when the bride leaves home to follow her husband.

During the fifty days of Easter, the Liturgy of the Church invites us to be joyful because, Christ, our Savior, is risen and we as God’s adopted children will live with Him Forever. Christians have reasons for joy, but we should not forget that God’s kingdom has only been initiated in us. The full realization will come later. On this side of the grave we will have to live with the tension between “already” and “not yet.”

Expecting too much from Church and religion may disillusion you, and it takes maturity and courage to cope with this situation. Today’s Bible readings deal with Christian existence which is often joy mingled with tears.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION. Jesus can bring new life to you and to those around you. If you are someone you know needs the light and life of Christ, we can help! The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process by which the Catholic Church invites people of any background to inquire about Jesus Christ and the Church He established through His Apostles to continue His saving work and bring His love and grace to the whole world. In the RCIA each individual embarks on a personal journey of faith through which he or she can prayerfully decide whether to become a member of the Catholic Church. Weekly faith formation sessions provide teachings on God, faith, and the Catholic Church. Participants in RCIA also attend Sunday Mass weekly and gather to discuss the Scripture readings and explore how the Word of God can be applied to their own lives. To learn more about the RCIA for yourself or for someone you know. Contact Deacon Melville at cmelville@stbarbaraky.org or call 371-3100.
