Through joyful Eucharistic worship and loving community, we strive through Jesus and the Holy Spirit to build the Kingdom of God on Earth as we prepare for the Kingdom of Heaven. Pentecost Sunday

Theme: The Holy Spirit, gift of the Father A full-rigged ship under an unfurled sail makes a beautiful picture, but it does not move without wind. Without “the breath of life,” human beings cannot perform. An artist needs inspiration. The “ruah Yahweh” – the breath, animating Spirit, of God – was given to us at baptism. On the fiftieth day after Easter (Passover) the Jews celebrated the giving of the Mosaic Law at Sinai and the establishment of Israel as God’s people. At Pentecost we celebrate the giving of the Holy Spirit, gift of the Father, to God’s people and, related to it, the establishment of the new Israel, the Church. The Spirit, whom the Lord Jesus sends from the Father, will remind us of all that the Lord has taught us. He will animate us and help us to know and understand our religion not just with our mind but also with our heart and soul (Jn 14, 26). “Father of light, . . . send Your Spirit into our lives with the power of a mighty wind, and by the flame of Your wisdom open the horizons of our minds” (Alternative Opening Prayer).

For a more profound insight into the mystery of Pentecost, we should refer to the Introduction to both Easter and the Pentecost vigil. Pentecost marks the conclusion of the “great fifty days,” the Easter Season.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process by which the Catholic Church invites people of any background to inquire about Jesus Christ and the Church He established through His Apostles to continue His saving work and bring His love and grace to the whole world. In the RCIA each individual embarks on a personal journey of faith through which he or she can prayerfully decide whether to become a member of the Catholic Church. Weekly faith formation sessions provide teachings on God, faith and the Catholic Church. Participants in RCIA also attend Sunday Mass weekly and gather to discuss the Scripture readings and explore how the Word of God can be applied to their own lives. To learn more about the RCIA for yourself or for someone you know. Contact Deacon Melville at cmelville@stbarbaraky.org or call 371-3100.
