Where people are saints & sinners

January 16, 2022

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Theme: “For the Lord Delights in You” When in a marriage two people have grown into a mature love for one another, one of them can be heard to say in the course of a lively conversation: “But my wife and I think . . . “ Such partners have grown into the conjugal oneness mentioned by the Bible: “The two of them become one body” (Gn 2,24; Mt 19,6: note that in Biblical language “Body-flesh stands for the whole person!). It can also happen that the marital oneness is overly stressed by one of the partners. The man who once loved that charming little woman so much because of certain beautiful qualities of character may become a tyrant and seek to mold his wife into a blueprint of himself. This is love turned into egotism.

Real love is participation in one another’s personality with great respect, never destroying it! In the awareness of the Bible, human beings are related to God in sacred partnership (covenant), which has conjugal overtones, as today’s readings bring out. But in His great love, God does not destroy us as persons. We are and should be different, though the same Spirit of love has been given to all of us. Christians should live in the joy of the wedding (partnership-covenant) between God and human beings.

2023 Synod on Synodality: Helpful Approaches Synodality is “journeying together” - a way of living out our faith that involves shared responsibility, listening and speaking to one another, and discernment with the Holy Spirit to address the issues facing our Church today. Approaching the Synod consultation with the following attitudes will enable genuine listening and dialogue: Sharing requires time. Humility in listening must correspond to courage in speaking. Dialogue leads to new ideas. Openness to conversion is necessary. Synodal listening is directed toward discerning God's will. Prejudices and stereotypes must be left behind. We are called to be beacons of hope. Continue to look for more information in parish communications, on social media, or on the diocesan website covdio.org/synod on how to share your experience.

YEAR-END TAX PLANNING As you begin year-end tax planning, take advantage of the charitable tax deduction for gifts made before December 31 by making a gift to the 2021 Diocesan Parish Annual Appeal. Your gift to the Appeal can make a great difference to our faith community and help you as well. As always, work closely with your tax and legal advisors to determine how any particular strategy will affect your overall tax situation. Please contact the Diocesan Stewardship Office at (859) 392-1500 by December 31 to advise the Diocese of your gift of stock so that it will qualify as a 2021 donation. The Stewardship Office will coordinate with your financial advisor or broker to ensure the gift is properly credited. If you choose to make a cash donation, please prepare your check and mail it so that your envelope is postmarked, or received by, the Diocese by December 31 to qualify as a 2021 gift. For more information on end-of-year giving opportunities, please contact Mike Murray, Director of Stewardship and Mission Services, by phone at (859) 392-1500 or by email at mmurray@covdio.org.

DCCH FOSTER CARE AND ADOPTION PROGRAM has created a new ministry - St. Joseph Ministry. St. Joseph's Ministry is an outreach initiative offered by DCCH Center for Children and Families' Therapeutic Foster Care Program, with support from the Diocese of Covington. It was created to raise awareness of the many ways the church and faith communities can support children in Kentucky's public child protection system. Ron Bertsch (Director of Foster Care and Adoption at DCCH) would love the opportunity to speak to the pastor about this ministry. Ron has done presentations at churches in the community to spread this message. DCCH's website also has more information -- <https://www.dcccenter.org/stjosephsministry>
