LIFE ISN'T FAIR

by Father Mark Beckman

As a young child, I preferred to read books, even at recess when others were busily playing. One day a group of classmates was having a blast playing in a newly raked pile of leaves and kept calling for me to join them. Absorbed as I was in my reading, I resisted the call but finally gave in. The moment I arrived at the pile of leaves, our beloved principal arrived, just in time to catch me and drag me to the office. (The defense that “everyone was doing it” didn’t work on her any better than it does on a police officer today!) One of my first lessons is that life isn’t always fair. Even worst, sometimes people suffer not for doing the wrong thing, but precisely for doing the right thing! It is easy to do the right thing (or the wrong thing!) when we are being cheered along by others, but not so easy when we are met with disapproval or hostility. It takes true courage to stand up for what is right when it is not popular. “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”
