PROCESSIONAL—“Glory and Praise to Our God”

Refrain: Glory and praise to our God, who alone gives light to our days. Many are the blessings he bears to those who trust in his ways.

We, the daughters and sons of him who built the valleys and plains, praise the wonders our God has done in ev'ry heart that sings. (R.)

In his wisdom he strengthens us, like gold that's tested in fire. Though the power of sin prevails, our God is there to save. (R.)

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING—Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Moses spoke to all the people, saying: “A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen. This is exactly what you requested of the LORD, your God, at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, ‘Let us not again hear the voice of the LORD, our God, nor see this great fire any more, lest we die.’ And the LORD said to me, ‘This was well said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in my name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, he shall die.’”

RESPONSORIAL—Psalm 95

Response: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD; let us acclaim the rock of our salvation. Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us joyfully sing psalms to him. (R.)

Come, let us bow down in worship; let us kneel before the LORD who made us. For he is our God, and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides. (R.)

Oh, that today you would hear his voice: “Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the desert, Where your fathers tempted me; they tested me though they had seen my works.” (R.)

SECOND READING— 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties. An unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord. But a married man is anxious about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, and he is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy in both body and spirit. A married woman, on the other hand, is anxious about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. I am telling you this for your own benefit, not to impose a restraint upon you, but for the sake of propriety and adherence to the Lord without distraction.

GOSPEL— Mark 1:21-28

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRESENTATION—"All is Well with my Soul"

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way; when sorrows like sea billows roll; Whatever my lot, you have taught me to say, "It is well, it is well with my soul."

It is well with my soul; It is well, it is well with my soul.

My soul is at rest in the Lord God alone; From God comes salvation and hope. With God as my rock, I shall not be disturbed: All is well, all is well with my soul.

All is well with my soul; All is well, all is well with my soul.

Text: 11 8 11 9 with refrain. Verse 1 text, trad.; fr. It Is Well with My Soul; Horatio Gates Spafford, 1827–1888. Verses 2–4 text based on Psalm 62:2–3, 6–9; 63:5; Carey Landry. Music: Philip P. Bliss, 1838–1876. Music arr. and verses 2–4 text © 2008, 2010, Carey Landry. Published by OCP. All rights reserved. Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE# A-726069

RECESSIONAL—"The Spirit Sends Us Forth"

The Spirit sends us forth to serve; We go in Jesus' name To bring glad tidings to the poor, God's favor to proclaim.

We go to comfort those who mourn And set the burdened free; Where hope is dim, to share a dream And help the blind to see.

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JAY

of women who feel stuck with pregnancy find life solutions when they come to Women's Choice Network. In Pittsburgh last year there were 6,088 abortions. But when 440 mothers approached Women's Choice seeking help, 374 of those babies were saved and born. So what does it look like to offer a mommy options?

It looks like first black Brazilian priest to be beatified:

Blessed Francisco de Paula Victor (1827-1905) was born to a mother in crisis. A slave, unwilling or unable to name the father of her child, she might well have hoped for an easier end to her pregnancy than single motherhood. But she raised her child, in spite of the obstacles, and Blessed Francisco went on to be freed, ordained a priest, and beatified, the first Black Brazilian to be so honored.

In the Bible it looks like baby Jesus:

"But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, 'Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.'"

—Matthew 1:20

Locally it looks at these names of babies whose mummies found options in 2020:

PLEASE PRAY FOR THESE BABIES SAVED LAST YEAR THROUGH WOMEN'S CHOICE NETWORK

Let us all discern how God is leading us to love the pre-born babies and save their lives. Here is what two Saints did:

TAKING A STAND AT WORK

Servant of God Jérôme Lejeune (1926-1994) was a brilliant geneticist, the scientist who discovered that Down Syndrome is a result of trisomy 21. He was celebrated by the medical community until he realized that his work was being used to encourage parents to abort their children. At that, he spoke out, begging people to defend the unborn. It was career suicide and he knew it. On the night he won a prestigious award, he asked his audience to question the morality of abortion. Returning home, he told his wife, "Tonight I lost my Nobel prize."

PRAYERS OF REPARATION

When Venerable Annie Zelikova (1924-1941) was 13, she heard her distraught mother pleading, "That's a sin against heaven and against the infant—you can't kill it!" Annie knew that God was asking her to make reparation for this evil. She offered Him her life. Her spiritual director explained that she was making reparation for abortions. Within six weeks, Annie had been given three months to live. Instead, she lay dying for four years, offering her life to the Lord to console his heart for abortions performed throughout the world. She died of tuberculosis at 17.

THE MIRACULOUS MEDAL

DEACON TONY GIORDANO
agjordano@greatgrouping.org

The Miraculous Medal Novena that we pray every Monday morning following the 8 AM Mass holds a special place in my heart. The Miraculous Medal that I wear was given to my dad by his mother when he was drafted into World War II and then served in the Korean War. My grandmother commended his safe return to the intercession of Our Lady.

The front side of the medal shows Mary standing upon a globe, crushing the head of a serpent beneath her foot. She stands upon the globe, as the Queen of Heaven and Earth. Her feet crush the serpent to proclaim Satan and all his followers are helpless before her.

On the back side of the medal the twelve stars recall the vision of St. John in Revelations 12:1—"A great sign appeared in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars." The cross symbolizes Christ and our redemption, with the bar under the cross a sign of the earth. The "M" stands for Mary and her initial with the cross shows Mary's close involvement with Jesus and our world. In this we see Mary's part in our salvation and her role as the Mother of the Church. The two hearts represent the love of Jesus and Mary for us.

—catholicexchange.com/that-wondrous-miraculous-medal-of-the-immaculate-conception

The Miraculous Medal is a testimony to our faith and the power of trusting in prayer for patience, forgiveness, repentance, and faith. For me, the medal that I wear is a testimony of my grandmother's and my dad's strong faith. My dad passed his medal on to me on my ordination day as a deacon. It is the most precious gift that I could ever receive, as my dad passed away a month later. I wear my medal every day as a testimony of that great faith that my dad passed on to me.

the Year of SAINT JOSEPH

DECEMBER 8 2020 • 2021

In his new Apostolic Letter, PATRIS CORDE (With A Father's Heart), Pope Francis has proclaimed a "Year of Saint Joseph," from December 8, 2020 through December 8, 2021!

"Thanks to his role in salvation history, Saint Joseph has always been venerated as a father by the Christian people... [He] expressed his fatherhood 'by making his life a sacrificial service to the mystery of the incarnation and its redemptive purpose.'"

To help celebrate this Year of Saint Joseph, we've put together a page on our website with resources and references aimed toward bringing us all closer to Christ through the intercession of his foster-father.

Celebrate with us at greatgrouping.org/st-joseph and check back often for updates and additions!

DO WE HAVE YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS?

As we are preparing for the merger of the Valley Parishes in January 2022, it is important that we have as many emails as possible to help pass along all information pertaining to the parishes. We also issue a monthly email to all registered parishioners at the beginning of the month to keep you informed of the happenings in the parishes. Email jculp@greatgrouping.org or call the parish office to update: (724) 266-6565.

FAITH FORMATION RETURNING

Due to a recent decision from the Diocese, the bishop is allowing Faith Formation to return to in-person classes. If you have not received, or responded to the survey sent by Chris Patsch concerning Faith Formation beginning in February, please contact Chris Patsch cpatsch@greatgrouping.org. It is important to note that the bishop is permitting only Faith Formation to meet in person, other ministries are still asked to meet online for meetings.

GRIEF MINISTRY MEETING

You have suffered one of the greatest losses anyone has to experience, the loss of a loved one. Our Grief Ministry meets every Monday evening beginning at 6:30PM at Good Samaritan Church- our sessions are available on livestream, you can find the link by visiting: Greatgrouping.org, click on "Resources", then click on "Good Samaritan Live". For more information or to register, please call Deacon Tony Giordano at (724) 385-8628 or email: agiordano@diopitt.org

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Did you know we have a signup.com page set up for various help needed in the Valley Parishes? If you go to greatgrouping.org/outreach and click on Beaver Valley Outreach Sign Up. We have many different jobs at different times of the day/evening that we need help with such as, Outreach at Good Samaritan, Fish Fry Help, and Pierogi Making. We update the list as jobs are needed, so please check back often and sign up if you have some spare time to help.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

As Catholics, we believe that Christ becomes truly present within the Blessed Sacrament. As promised by Him, His Presence is abiding, not something that vanishes at the conclusion of Mass. During Eucharistic Adoration, we can sit silently in His Presence and open ourselves to His Graces. Adoration available at Our Lady of Peace, Monday—Thursday 8AM—8PM and at Saints John & Paul, Sunday—Friday 8AM—8PM
