GREAT PARISH GROUPING + BEAVER VALLEY EDITION

Evangelion

(E-van-JEL-yon, Greek, "the good news")

HE is HERE! | February 7, 2021 | 5th Sunday of Ordinary Time

PROCESSIONAL—“Come, Christians, Join to Sing”

Come, Christians, join to sing Alleluia! Amen! Loud praise to Christ our King; Alleluia! Amen!
Let all, with heart and voice, Before his throne rejoice; Praise is his gracious choice: Alleluia!
Amen!

Come, lift your hearts on high; Alleluia! Amen! Let praises fill the sky; Alleluia! Amen! He is our guide and friend; Our cry he will attend; His love shall never end: Alleluia! Amen!

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord
God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord
God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God
the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING—Job 7:1-4, 6-7

Job spoke, saying: Is not man’s life on earth a drudgery? Are not his days those of hirelings?
He is a slave who longs for the shade, a hireling who waits for his wages. So I have been assigned months of misery, and troubled nights have been allotted to me. If in bed I say, “When shall I arise?” then the night drags on; I am filled with restlessness until the dawn.
My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle; they come to an end without hope. Remember that my life is like the wind; I shall not see happiness again.

RESPONSORIAL—Psalm 147

Response: Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

Praise the LORD, for he is good; sing praise to our God, for he is gracious; it is fitting to praise him. The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem; the dispersed of Israel he gathers. (R.)

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. He tells the number of the stars; he calls each by name. (R.)

Great is our Lord and mighty in power; to his wisdom there is no limit. The LORD sustains the lowly; the wicked he casts to the ground. (R.)

SECOND READING—1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Brothers and sisters:

If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast, for an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it! If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my recompense?
That, when I preach, I offer the gospel free of charge so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

Although I am free in regard to all, I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible. To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak. I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it.

GOSPEL— Mark 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them.

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRESENTATION—“Healer of Our Every Ill”

Healer of our ev'ry ill, light of each tomorrow, give us peace beyond our fear, and hope beyond our sorrow.

You who know our fears and sadness, grace us with your peace and gladness. Spirit of all comfort, fill our hearts.

In the pain and joy, beholding how your grace is still unfolding, give us all your vision, God of love.

RECESSIONAL—“For the Healing”

For the healing of the nations, Lord, we pray with one accord; for a just and equal sharing of the things that earth affords. To a life of love in action help us rise and pledge our word.

Lead your people into freedom, from despair your world release that, redeemed from war and hatred, all may come and go in peace. Show us ho, through care and goodness, fear will die and hope increase.

LISTEN TO THE LORD IN THE SOUND OF SILENCE

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JAY

It's good to mute the TV if you are trying to talk to someone. It's good to have silence when studying. It's essential for getting to heaven to receive grace in the silence of our beings.

"It is better to remain silent and to be than talk and not be. Teaching is good if the speaker also acts. Now there was one teacher who spoke, and it was made, and even what he did in silence is worthy of the Father.

He who has the word of Jesus can truly listen also to his silence, in order to be perfect, that he may act through his speech and be known by his silence. Nothing is hidden from the Lord, but even our secrets are close to him. Let us then do everything in the knowledge that he is dwelling within us that we may be his temples, and he God within us. He is, and will reveal himself, in our sight, according to the love we bear him in holiness."

— St Ignatius of Antioch to the Ephesians

Spend 5 minutes a day in silence listening for the voice of God. When you hear Him, rest in the experience... for He is your Creator, yet He is here inside of you!

YOUR

FROM GOD

THE CATECHIST COLUMN

JASON GAWALDO

Director of Faith Formation

jgawaldo@greatgrouping.org

This week, we skip from 1 Corinthians chapter 7 (on marriage), over chapter 8 (on food offered to idols), to the end of chapter 9, where St. Paul addresses the rights and responsibilities of an Apostle. In this deeply personal passage, he talks about the obligation placed upon him and how he goes about fulfilling that obligation.

St. Paul's vocation, his unique calling from God and his pathway to holiness, was to be a traveling preacher who established and sustained infant churches. That was the task laid upon him by the Lord. He was not a volunteer, and his ministry was not a side gig to his tentmaking career (see Acts 18:3-5). Rather, his tentmaking allowed him to fulfill his God-given mission to preach the Gospel. As he says, "Woe to me if I do not preach it!"

What is your unique calling from God, your pathway to holiness? What is the obligation that the Lord has laid upon you? A vocation is not a vague notion but a specific thing. The Lord does not call a man to be a priest. He calls a man to be a diocesan priest in a specific Diocese or a Benedictine monk in a specific monastery. The Lord does not call a woman to get married. He calls her to get married to a specific man. He calls each of us to a particular pathway to holiness.

“[GOD] CALLS EACH OF US TO A PARTICULAR PATHWAY TO HOLINESS.”

He calls me to be married to Natalie and to be the father of our five children. Woe to me if I do not live a Christian family life!

In the second part of this reading, St. Paul explains how he willingly sacrifices certain privileges that might limit the effectiveness of his ministry. He could insist upon his authority as an Apostle, and he could eat non-kosher foods, and he could get married and travel with a wife, but he sacrifices those things to better fulfill his mission (see 1 Corinthians 9:1-5). Put another way, knowing his mission gives him permission to say no to good things that do not serve that mission. The Spirit is challenging each of us to do likewise.

Lent is a week and a half away. Perhaps the Lord is asking us, like St. Paul, to set aside some privileges.

What are some of the privileges, the nice things that are not bad in themselves but might limit our ability to fulfill our mission? What keeps me from being a better husband to my bride and a better father to my children? What keeps you from more fully embracing your unique vocation? An obligation has been laid upon each of us, and woe to us if we do not fulfill it.

"Crucifixion," by Tiziano Vecellio, 1555

the Seven LAST WORDS OF CHRIST

Beaver Valley Parishes

The seven short sentences that were spoken by Jesus as he endured his crucifixion are filled with significance and meaning. The sentences are both brief and poignant, capturing the depths of Jesus' mercy, physical suffering, emotional torment, and spiritual isolation.

If we want to meditate on Christ's experience of the Passion, we can turn to the Master himself as he spoke to those nearest to him and to his Father.

Join us each week during Lent as the priests and different staff members share their insights on the Seven Last Words that Jesus spoke from the Cross.

FUNDRAISING

BOBBY ALOE

Fundraising & Accounting Assistant
baloe@greatgrouping.org

It is 2021 and as we begin anew, we cannot forget what a year 2020 was! Despite its ups and downs, fundraising continued in our Beaver Valley Parishes. We want to thank everyone who participated in any way. Your dedication to your parish is overwhelming.

A special thank-you to Debbie Miketa. This past Christmas Debbie wanted to have a Christmas Cookie Sale. She organized the bakers, prepared the fliers, and sold the cookies—and it was a tremendous success! We thank her for all her work. Sadly, Debbie passed away suddenly the day after Christmas. Her passing will certainly leave a void in our fundraising efforts, but we will remember her smile and laughter as we continue.

Below please find a report of our fundraising in 2020. Again thank you to all who help make it a success.

DO WE HAVE YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS?

As we are preparing for the merger of the Valley Parishes in January 2022, it is important that we have as many emails as possible to help pass along all information pertaining to the parishes. We also issue a monthly email to all registered parishioners at the beginning of the month to keep you informed of the happenings in the parishes. Text BVPARISHES to 84576 to join via text or visit our website greatgrouping.org/welcome to sign up with your email address.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Did you know we have a signup.com page set up for various help needed in the Valley Parishes? If you go to greatgrouping.org/outreach and click on Beaver Valley Outreach Sign Up. We have many different jobs at different times of the day/evening that we need help with such as, Outreach at Good Samaritan, Fish Fry Help, and Pierogi Making. We update the list as jobs are needed, so please check back often and sign up if you have some spare time to help.

PIEROGI SALES

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

As Catholics, we believe that Christ becomes truly present within the Blessed Sacrament. As promised by Him, His Presence is abiding, not something that vanishes at the conclusion of Mass. During Eucharistic Adoration, we can sit silently in His Presence and open ourselves to His Graces. Adoration available at Our Lady of Peace, Monday—Thursday 8AM—8PM and at Saints John & Paul, Sunday—Friday 8AM—8PM
