PROCESSIONAL—“Turn to the Living God ”

Turn, turn to the living God, the God of healing and comfort, and with delight, God will turn to you. With delight, God will turn to you.

Text: Lori True, b. 1961, © 2003, GIA Publications, Inc. Reprinted with permission ONE LICENSE# A-718331.

FIRST READING—Exodus 20:1-17

For shorter version omit the verses in the brackets

In those days, God delivered all these commandments: “I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me. [You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers’ wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth generation; but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments.]

“You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain.

“Remember to keep holy the sabbath day. [Six days you may labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD, your God. No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, or your beast, or by the alien who lives with you. In six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD has blessed the sabbath day and made it holy.]

“Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you. You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor’s house. You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him.”

RESPONSORIAL—Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 11, 15

Response: Your words, Lord, are Spirit, Spirit and life.

The law of the LORD is perfect, refreshing the soul. The decree of the LORD is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple. (R.)

The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; the command of the LORD is clear, enlight’ning the eye. (R.)

The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever; the statutes of the LORD are true, all of them just. (R.)

They are more precious than gold, than a heap of purest gold; sweeter also than syrup or honey from the comb. (R.)

SECOND READING—1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters:

Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

GOSPEL—John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

POST CONSECRATIONEM (MYSTERY OF FAITH)

*All: Mortem tuam annuntiámus, Dómine, et tuam resurrectiónem confitémur, donec vénias.
(We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.)*

RECESSIONAL—"Take Up Your Cross"

Take up your cross, the Savior said, if you would my disciple be; deny yourself, the world forsake, and humbly follow after me.

Take up your cross, be not ashamed! Let not disgrace your spirit fill! For God himself endured to die upon a cross, on Calvary's hill.

Take up your cross, which gives you strength, which makes your trembling spirit brave; 'twill guide you to a better home and lead to vict'ry o'er the grave.

FIRST GAME BALL

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER JAY

It was said in my family that when Dad takes the oldest son to his first ball game, he catches a foul ball.

So, there we were at Three Rivers Stadium watching the Pirates play. I expected to get a ball and told the people around me. My Dad just laughed, but he had confidence. In the top of the seventh inning, a foul ball popcorned over our heads into the concessions inlet, and my Dad was gone! At first I had no idea where he was. Then men started scrambling and a huddle of several of them pounced in the corner of this inlet. Finally, as if he had been holding his breath for a seeming eternity, the men floated away and my Dad swam to his feet holding up a white ball. Despite the tsunami of fans, he had scooped up and surfaced with the baseball.

In my life I have felt like I am drowning in the sea of my sinfulness that hovers over me for my poor homilies or inconsiderate pastoral decisions or lack of time with people or my own prideful attitude toward those in need. It seems like the Lord dives into my sea of sinfulness, scoops me up, and brings me to the surface. Lent of 1993 was a moment like that for me. I was drowning in the sophomoric university life of impurity, drinking and partying, but God the Father rescued me with a priest: Father William, who heard my life's confession. I felt like that son whose Dad would go to the depths of the sea to rescue him.

Kind of funny, that day at Three Rivers... The team we were playing was from San Diego (as in, Saint Juan Diego); so fitting it was a Padre who hit the ball; my Dad who rescued it; and my Father in heaven who continues to mercifully restore my boyhood innocence.

Please pray for me. Please pray for all priests. Pray for protection, for understanding. Pray that the Father will rescue us every day.

SUNDAY MARCH 21 1-3 PM

AT PLANNED PARENTHOOD
DOWNTOWN, PITTSBURGH

QUESTIONS? boyle_family@yahoo.com

Praying at 40 Days for Life is a profoundly pro-life experience. We simply stand in peaceful prayer for the babies, their parents, as well as the workers inside of Planned Parenthood. Our presence is more important now than ever. With God, all things are possible (Mark 10:27), even an end to the barbaric practice of abortion. Our prayers outside of Planned Parenthood will hopefully not only change minds, but ultimately, change hearts.

—Rachel Boyle

After watching “Unplanned” and hearing Abby Johnson’s talk in December 2019, we realized that we had to do something to protect the unborn. We already prayed for them and voted for Pro-Life candidates, but we felt that we were being called to do more. To kick-start our actions we both went on the March for Life in 2019. Next we prayed and sang Christmas Carols as part of the 40 Days for Life in Pittsburgh. It was a touching moment to pray a Hail Mary as a woman passed by us, knowing that we were now “doing something.” One of the prayers that we have added is the Pro-Life Rosary. One day while praying we both reflected on the idea that Jesus was not killed by bad people but by the inaction of good people.

with a few simple guidelines. First, the cremains must be treated with respect, just as one would respect the body of a loved one. Recognizing our belief that the body will one day be resurrected, the cremains MUST be buried or interred in a cemetery in a timely fashion. Second, the cremains must remain intact. They cannot be sprinkled, or combined with the ashes of a pet or another loved one. They cannot be fashioned into jewelry or kept on a mantle. They must be treated like a body. A full bodily burial is still the preferred method, but a person can be brought to the church for a funeral Mass and then cremated and buried later. Funeral directors do this on a regular basis.

PRE-PLANNING

Contacting the parish to pre-plan your funeral or the funeral liturgy of a loved one is an act of love and will save stress when the time comes. Most funeral homes also have pre-planning options, including the selection of a grave and a casket as well as special instructions. These can be paid in advance or paid later. Monument companies such as Rome Monument also have plans to pre-arrange memorial markers and stones that can be customized to your liking. They can also assist in getting any available grants from the VA for those who are honorably discharged veterans.

ONGOING SUPPORT

Just recently I was signing some legal documents and realized that I neglected to include the Church in my will. While I was pastor for seven years in Beaver County, we celebrated more than 750 funerals. If each person left behind an average of just $100 to the Church, that would amount to $75,000. With the rising cost of maintaining buildings, even a small donation can make a huge difference.

Deacon Tony Giordano, Karen Walker and I discussed planning for funerals on Father Jay's "Exploring Catholicism" program on Tuesday, February 16. The program can be viewed any time by clicking the SAINTS JOHN & PAUL YOUTUBE button at greatgrouping.org.

Deacon Tony is available for funeral questions by calling (724) 385-8628. He assists with funeral planning at the three Beaver Valley parishes in our grouping. Pastoral Minister Karen Walker assists in funeral planning at Saints John & Paul. She can be reached at (724) 935-2104 x223.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

As Catholics, we believe that Christ becomes truly present within the Blessed Sacrament. As promised by Him, His Presence is abiding, not something that vanishes at the conclusion of Mass. During Eucharistic Adoration, we can sit silently in His Presence and open ourselves to His Graces. Adoration available at Our Lady of Peace, Monday-Thursday 8AM-8PM and at Saints John & Paul, Sunday-Friday 8AM-8PM.
