SEPTEMBER 12, 2021

24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." - Mk 8:34-35

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Rest in the presence of God simply because God is God and you are you. This is all that is necessary. Out of this relationship will come inspiration, understanding, courage, constancy, truth, and virtues of all kind. We will find ourselves knowing the true meaning of things and developing a depth of insight that is not found following purely human venues. It is God who inspires and opens human hearts to see truth and beauty. In God, we understand all of our relationships with a richer appreciation and come to know who Jesus, who speaks of God's kingdom, really is. The trust that is fostered from resting with the Divine One allows us to see that God's ways are not our ways. There is something bigger going on in this picture of life. It is something mystical and magical that seeks to surprise us at every turn. It is not for us to cling to this world and its limitations. Our adventure is to dream bigger and brighter, realizing that it is even in suffering that the radiant light of the dawn will come. God's ways allow for our paths to be rocky, challenging, difficult, and even crippling at times. Purely human eyes cannot understand the 'why' of such experiences. The eyes and mind of God, however, reveal and detail a journey that ends in glorious resurrection joy. When we lose our axis and become too human in our thinking, Jesus rebukes us and gently reminds us how to see.

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God.

— MATTHEW 5:8 —

PRAYERS

MARY'S CORNER

Our Lady of Good Counsel

In the fifth century, the small town of Genazzano, southeast of Rome, contributed a large sum of money to Pope Sixtus III for the restoration of St. Mary Major in Rome. In appreciation, a Church was built in Genazzano and entrusted to the care of the Augustinian Fathers. As time passed, the church was in need of large repairs. With no help from the town, a local widow, Petruccia de Geneo, donated all of her savings for the restoration, but was unable to finish the project. On St. Mark's Day, April 25, 1467, a crowd of people witnessed as a cloud descended upon the unfinished church. The church bells began to ring on their own, and as the cloud moved, it revealed a portrait of Mary that came to rest on a narrow ledge near an unfinished wall in the church. The painting, now known as Our Lady of Good Counsel, is on a thin layer of plaster as thin as an egg shell, and is suspended without support. Two weeks after the event, two refugees from Albania arrived in the town and testified that the same painting was in a church in Albania a few weeks earlier but disappeared when the town was invaded. Upon checking their story, an empty space the size of the picture was left in the plaster of a church at Scutari in Albania. Because of the miraculous event, the church in Genazzano was completed and pilgrimages began. In the first six months, over 170 miracles were recorded. In 1727, Pope Benedict XIII granted an Office and Mass of Our Lady of Good Counsel for April 25th, but it is celebrated a day later to avoid conflict with the feast of St. Mark. Feast Day: April 26 Patron Saint: Albania, diocese of Essen, Germany, enlightenment, diocese of Sandhurst, Victoria.

Stewardship.....

A Way of Life

Stewardship is not optional. "None of us lives as his own master and none of us dies as his own master," says St. Paul.

"While we live, we are responsible to the Lord, and when we die, we die as his servants." See Romans 14: 7-9

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace." 1 Pt. 4:10

Gracious and Loving God, Help the men and women of the Diocese of Birmingham hear your call to serve. Our needs are great and our people thirst for your presence.

Open the hearts of many, raise up faithful servants of the Gospel. Dedicated holy sisters, brothers, deacons and priests, who will give themselves for your people and their needs. Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance. Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who is the same, yesterday, today and forever.

R. Mary, Mother of Vocations V. Pray for us

Heavenly Father,
We ask that you spare all souls from the scourge of abortion and protect the lives of children in the womb. Give hope and courage to their mothers to embrace life and know the peace of doing Your will. Give your strength to all fathers that they may always protect and cherish mother and child. Cause our elected leaders and courts to recognize and, through the law, protect the personhood of all unborn children. Lift up all church leaders to proclaim a Culture of Life. Lead those who have participated in abortions to repentance and healing. Bring about the conversion of those who facilitate abortions and deny the birthright of children. Grant us the courage and energy to be Defenders of Life. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord and through the intercession of His most Blessed Mother, Mary
Amen
