LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

What does it mean to be God's servant? In essence, it means being willing to call the world back to its childlike innocence, showing all that a joy-filled playfulness has a place in life. The servant of God serves to foster the Kingdom of God. God's kingdom is not a sterile, unhappy, strict, and rigid reality. It is quite the opposite. It is a kingdom devoid of jealousy and selfish ambition where peace, gentleness, mercy, and good works abound. To be a servant of this kingdom means that selfish ambition must be set aside so that others can be first, and justice pursued at all cost. The prayer of this kind of servant is not focused on self-advancement or need. Rather, the servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. In this way, we who are servants can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led by God. We can then be used to lay the cornerstones of the kingdom: faith, hope, and love. It is upon these that God's firm dwelling is built. Accepting this call may place us last in the world's eyes but first in God's.

PRAYERS

MARY'S CORNER

Our Lady of Mercy (or Ransom)

In 1218, the Blessed Mother appeared to St. Peter Nolasco with this message, "Find for me other men like yourself, an army of brave, generous, unselfish men, and send them into the lands where the children of the Faith are suffering". Peter had been working for several years trying to ransom the Christian captives taken by the Saracens or Moors for slaves. He was very devoted to Christ and to the Blessed Virgin Mary. When Peter asked Our Lady who was talking to him, she revealed herself as Mary, the Mother of God. She asked Peter, St. Raymond of Pennafort and King James of Aragon to establish an Order dedicated to visiting and to freeing Christians in captivity. She was dressed in white with the shield of the Order imprinted on her Scapular. Following Our Lady's request, the Mercedarian Order was constituted in Barcelona by King James. Pope Gregory IX approved the Order in 1235 with Peter as the first superior. Many of the new Order were religious who prayed and collected alms for the Christians in captivity. The other group in the Order were knights who actually went to the camps to buy back the Christians, or to trade places with them, securing their freedom. As well as Our Lady of Mercy, Mary was also given the name Our Lady of Ransom upon this apparition. She is often pictured holding two bags of coins to symbolize the ransom paid. Thousands of Christian prisoners were freed by this Order. Feast Day: September 24. Patron Saint of: Barcelona

Gracious and Loving God, Help the men and women of the Diocese of Birmingham hear your call to serve. Our needs are great and our people thirst for your presence. Open the hearts of many, raise up faithful servants of the Gospel. Dedicated holy sisters, brothers, deacons and priests, who will give themselves for your people and their needs. Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance. Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who is the same, yesterday, today and forever.
