LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Human beings easily get bored. Life's routines can become so predictable that there is often little time for excitement or freshness. Today is all about the new and the wonderful. In celebrating the beauty and simplicity of the Epiphany, we see in tangible ways God's creative, redemptive, and restorative power. This refreshment and revitalization is offered not only to a select few but to everyone throughout the world. There is nothing routine or static about God. Surprises, wonders, miracles, opportunities, healings, and joy without measure are available to those who believe. There are never any endings, just beginnings. And, when darkness, boredom, and gloom seem to be the order of the day, a bright new light now shines pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."

PRAYERS

MARY'S CORNER

LOVELY LADY DRESSED IN BLUE

Lovely Lady dressed in blue
Teach me how to pray!
God was just your little boy,
Tell me what to say!
Did you lift Him up, sometimes,
Gently on your knee?
Did you sing to Him the way
Mother does to me?
Did you hold His hand at night?
Did you ever try
Telling stories of the world?
O! And did He cry?
Do you really think He cares
If I tell Him things -----
Little things that happen? And
Do the Angels' wings
Make a noise? And can He hear
Me if I speak low?
Does He understand me now?
Tell me -----for you know.

Lovely Lady dressed in blue -----
Teach me how to pray!
God was just your little boy,
And you know the way.

Mary Dixon Thayer who wrote more than one poem for Our Lady, is the author.
This prayer-poem was popularized in the 1950s
by Archbishop Fulton
Sheen.

Gracious and Loving God, Help the men and women of the Diocese of Birmingham hear your call to serve. Our needs are great and our people thirst for your presence. Open the hearts of many, raise up faithful servants of the Gospel. Dedicated holy sisters, brothers, deacons and priests, who will give themselves for your people and their needs. Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance. Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who is the same, yesterday, today and forever. R. Mary, Mother of Vocations
V. Pray for us

First Friday Devotion Sacred Heart of Jesus

Begin your new year by honoring the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus by attending First Friday Devotion on January 7th. Plan to attend 8:15am Mass in the Church (Masks are required) and we will move to the Chapel for Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Eucharistic Adoration. Our Lord requested we attend mass, receive communion, and make reparation for our offenses for nine consecutive First Fridays. In return, He has promised safe refuge and salvation to all who honor His Sacred Heart. Join us as we pray for our Parish, Clergy, and personal intentions.

We will walk to Planned Parenthood to join up with the Birmingham March for Life and return to St. Stephen's afterward. Light breakfast and lunch will be provided.

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH GROUP

The high school youth group here at OLV has been doing some really great and fun things this year. Our “supply drive” for the Community of Cenacolo was a huge success. And the group that went to deliver the supplies enjoyed a special visit and tour of the community.

I am most happy with our Wednesday morning bible study. I never imagined high school kids wanting to come at 6 a.m., before a full school day, to reflect and pray. My prayer is that this is a habit they will carry with them beyond their youth group days.

This past weekend we had our Christmas party/lock-in. The kids, and myself, had a fun filled evening beginning with mass at 5 p.m., a Taco Mama dinner, and an entire night filled with countless games and great memories being made, and capping off the lock-in enjoying a breakfast at Waffle House.

There are 31 of our youth who will be participating in the March for Life trip in January to Washington, D.C.

Our youth group meets Sunday afternoons from 4:30 until 6:30 and all high school aged kids are welcome. It’s never too late to join. As a group, we are building a strong foundation of our Catholic faith through bible study, faith sharing and how to be better disciples of Christ all while nurturing the spiritual and personal growth of each young person.

If you are interested in our youth program, please call me at 205-784-7586 or email at mwoodard@olvsch.com.

Sincerely,

Mark Woodard, DRE and High School Youth Minister

FORMED

Our Lady of the Valley is a partner in an exciting 24/7 online web-based digital formation platform called FORMED.org, produced by the Augustine Institute and Ignatius Press. It is fast, easy and free to register — just visit formed.org and sign up! Have you wanted to be able to share more with others but felt you were lacking in knowledge? Through this content you will be able to not only learn more about the Catholic faith but also go deeper and strengthen your own relationship with God.

FORMED is designed to help adults (and children!) grow in their faith at all levels — how we think, how we pray, and how we live. Better yet, access is FREE to all parishioners and their families or friends anywhere, anytime on computers, tablets, or phones.

Turn off Netflix and give formed.org a try!!
