*December 25th,
The Nativity of the Lord*

A Christmas message from our pastor, Fr. Jim . . .

One of the most controversial revelations of God is found in the Incarnation, the second person of the blessed Trinity becoming human. Whenever we profess this truth many in our world become very insulted, angry, and even violent. That's because it really is an amazing thing. Almighty God humbled himself to become a human like us. Wow. When you look at a manger scene ask yourself, "Would I become one of the farm animals out of love for someone?" Because the Incarnation is an even greater act of humility than us becoming an animal. During this Christmas season my prayer is that you realize more deeply that God loves you so much that he would give himself completely for your good. Merry Christmas!

... Rev. James B. Farnan

Fr. Francis's Christmas Message...

Christmas is a time of hope. The birth of a child is the occasion of hope for any family. What will he/she grow up to be — president of a corporation or even the USA, a doctor, nurse, priest, nun or brother, a scientist who finds a cure for cancer or the solution to global warming — the possibilities are endless. But the child whose birth we celebrate at Christmas proved to be much more — nothing less than the savior of the world. Because of Christ our hope for the future has changed dramatically. Instead of a vague hope for something better in the future with his birth we celebrate the greatest hope of all realized. Have a most blessed Christmas.

... Rev. J. Francis Frazer

*"She will give birth
to a son,
and you are to give him the name*

Jesus

*because he will save his people
from their sins."*

Matthew 1:21

FAITH LIFE

“ASK FR. FARNAN”

I will continue my discussion on marriage this week with an explanation on what is lack of form.

When a Catholic party gets married they ordinarily must have a Catholic wedding ceremony in order for the marriage to be valid. This usually entails a marriage contracted before a deacon, priest or bishop in the presence of two witnesses. Once a person is a Catholic, he remains bound by the Church’s form of marriage even if he later falls away from the Church.

The Code of Canon Law states, “The form . . . must be observed if at least one of the parties contracting the marriage was baptized in the Catholic Church or received into it” (can. 1117). The Church’s God-given authority imposes this law—Jesus gave the Church the authority to enact such laws that bind her citizens (see Matthew 16:18, 18:18). Thus, a Catholic ordinarily must observe canonical form in order for the marriage to be valid.

If a Catholic wishes to validly marry any other way (for example, observing the fiancé’s Protestant form), he must obtain a dispensation from the Catholic canonical form from his bishop. (This is ordinarily handled through his local priest.) If they fail to obtain a dispensation and proceed with a wedding apart from the Church, this wedding lacks canonical form and the marriage is not valid. Lack of canonical form constitutes grounds for annulment.

(Note: An exception to this exists in the case of a Catholic marrying a non-Catholic Christian of an Eastern rite, such as an Eastern Orthodox Christian, in that party’s church’s setting. In such a case, failure to obtain a dispensation makes the marriage illicit but does not invalidate the marriage.)

Additionally, if a Catholic wishes to marry a non-Christian, he must first obtain a dispensation from his bishop in order for his marriage to be valid. To receive such a dispensation the Catholic party must declare that he is prepared to remove dangers of defecting from the Catholic Faith and he must sincerely promise to do all that is in his power to raise offspring resulting from the marriage in the Catholic Church.

The non-Christian spouse must be informed of the Catholic party’s obligations and promises in this regard, and both parties must be instructed about the essentials of marriage that cannot be excluded. Failure of the Catholic party to obtain a dispensation from his bishop before entering into such a marriage impedes a valid marriage from coming into existence. As such, it constitutes grounds for annulment.

In next week’s column I will finish my teaching on validity of marriage and specifically address the two questions that started this series of teachings.

FORMED.ORG

ONLINE FAITH FORMATION FOR ADULTS AND FAMILIES

My Dear St. Matthias Parishioners,

It gives me great joy to share with you that our parish has renewed our subscription to FORMED, a premier online platform filled with over 4,000 Catholic studies, movies, audio dramas, talks, e-books, and even cartoons for our children. FORMED has content from over 60 apostolates, including Augustine Institute, Ignatius Press, and the Knights of Columbus, with material that is professionally produced, engaging, and solid in its catechism. Best of all, this material is free to you.

Our parish will be using the material on FORMED to support our ministries and provide continuing education for staff members and parishioners, as well as outreach for our sick and homebound members. Much of FORMED's content is available in both English and Spanish.

You have easy access to all of the material on FORMED to support your own faith journey and that of your family members.

Are you hesitant to return to the Sacraments after a long absence? Watch Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession or listen to The Lamb's Supper by Dr. Scott Hahn.

Would you like to be more confident in answering your teenagers' questions about the validity of the Gospels? Watch Lectio: The Case for Jesus or YDisciple: Who is God?

Do you search for a reliable source of Catholic teaching on current issues? Tune in each week to The Augustine Institute Show with Dr. Tim Gray or view Symbolon: The Faith Explained.

Have you despaired of finding good movies that your family can enjoy together on a Friday night? Start with Mother Teresa, the story of the selfless saint who brought hope and love to the poorest of the poor. For young children, watch Brother Francis episodes.

You can enjoy FORMED on your computer or on your television with an inexpensive Roku device or Apple TV. You can even listen on your phone as you commute to work or do chores.

My hope and prayer is that the content on FORMED will enrich, deepen, and inspire your faith. Please pray for the people at the Augustine Institute who create this wonderful and much-needed Catholic content for our people.

If you wish to make a donation to subsidize this subscription for the Parish, please feel free to make a check payable to St. Matthias Parish, note in the memo "Formed," and place in the offertory basket. Thank you for your generosity.

May you have a blessed Christmas and Happy New Year!
Rev. James B. Farnan, Pastor

CYCLE C

GOSPEL

The angels shared the good news about Jesus so people could worship him, too. Maybe it was the way they glowed when they sang about Jesus. Maybe it was the words or the tune of their songs. After the angels left, those shepherds were curious enough to stop what they were doing and look for Jesus themselves. When they found him, they were thrilled. Everything the angels told them was true.

LET'S LEND A HAND.

Help us make our community stronger with a mortgage, home equity, personal or business loan. For every loan we make, Community Bank will donate $100 to your favorite charity or organization. By borrowing from Community Bank, together we are making a difference. Ask any bank representative for details.
