Having just celebrated the Baptism of the Lord, we recalled our own Baptism. We have all received the call to go out and baptize all nations. Pray for those who are considering if they too are ready to renounce Satan and all his works and empty promises. If there is someone you think would like to explore what Baptism in the Catholic faith means, ask him or her to contact Jennifer Summe at 513-331-4302, extension 41 or jsumme@bscky.org

FAMILY PROMISE

Blessed Sacrament Church’s Family Promise/Welcome House Group is looking for volunteers. This group works to change the lives of low income homeless families by providing shelter, assistance and meals. It is a sheltering program dedicated to keeping family units together. Blessed Sacrament volunteers help with providing meals, serving dinner, monitoring evening activities with the families, and overnight assistance. We provide volunteers to assist at the shelter about every 5 weeks. If you feel called to help with housing uncertainty in a compassionate, giving environment, please reach out to Karen Kleman at karen.kleman@gmail.com. Thank you for prayerfully considering helping with this important ministry

GIFT OF THE MONTH

JANUARY

Everyone likes to begin a new year with a fresh start—but not everyone can afford the little things that make that possible. You can help with toothpaste, shampoo, conditioner, lotion, deodorant, laundry and dish detergent, and all-purpose household cleaner for Be Concerned. Please leave your donations in the bins near the church doors. Thank you!

REFLECTION

FORMED AS THE LORD’S SERVANT

“Now the LORD has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...

I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.” Isaiah 49:5a,6b

This Sunday’s first reading, from the Prophet Isaiah, reminds us that we are known to God before we are born. After hearing in the Christmas readings that God gave Jesus and John the Baptist specific missions before they were formed in the womb, we may think that this is something rare. Yet each one of us has a God-given purpose. Each of us is uniquely formed and given stewardship over some element of God’s plan for the salvation of humankind. Grasping the profound meaning of this personal commission is essential to fulfilling our vocation.

- What talents or abilities has God given me?
- How can I use these blessings to serve God and my fellow human beings?
- How can I, like Isaiah, bring God’s light to others today?

HOSPITALITY: COFFEE AND DONUTS

Please sign up to host Sunday morning coffee and donuts in the Undercroft after one of our masses. It’s a great way to meet new people or to visit with old friends. Instructions are provided.

Whether you are single or have kids who want to help, you can assist with this hospitality ministry.

Scan this code with your phone’s camera to reach the online sign up. See you there!

LOOKING FOR COMMUNITY?

Sometimes our longing for community becomes acute with life changes like retirement, relocating, unemployment, or being widowed. Blessed Sacrament provides many opportunities for you or someone you love to find connections with people who value community. Visit our website for information on...
